TAYLOR LOSING HIS NERVE

Man to Be Hung Friday Makes Appeal to Governor.

CONDEMNED MAN DENIES CRIME

Writes Incoherent Letters, in Which He Talks of "Control Machines"

No Action Yet Taken for Him.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Though his execution is set for Friday no man has been made to save the life of Bert Taylor, convicted of the murder of his sister-in-law, Pearl Taylor, age 15 years, at Minden in 1906. Taylor today requested that Chief Justice Rees and Governor Shallenberger visit him in his cell, as he had a statement to make. In the afternoon of the governor, Secretary Furse visited Taylor and talked with him.

The condemned man simply repeated what he had said before—that he did not commit the murder, but that one Jake Martin was the guilty man.

Taylor wrote two letters, to be given to the governor. Both of these letters are incoherent, and tell of a "control machine" which exercised its powers over the condemned man.

Under the law if insanity proceedings are started it will be necessary to file the petition in the county court.

The movement to have the National Guard of Nebraska camp at Fort Omaha next fall during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities is already under way and an effort will be made also to have a portion of the Iowa guard take part in the military maneuvers at that time.

General Hartigan is working on the matter and while he may not be at the head of the guard at that time, before he goes out of office he expects to have the arrangements so far made that there will be no doubt of the scheme being carried out.

General Hartigan believes that the expense to the state will be practically nothing, except possibly railroad fare from Ashland to Omaha. His plan is to have the annual encampment held at Ashland and move the troops from Ashland to Omaha for two days.

Appointment Delayed. No word has come from Governor Shallenberger as to whom he intends to appoint to membership on the State Railway commission to fill the vacancy caused by the death of W. H. Cowgill.

Toppy Leaves State House. Toppy B. Bullard is gone. For years this little dog has been the favorite of state officers and employees at the capitol and a favorite with scores of little boys and girls.

ALDRICH TAKES TO OMAHA

Republican Candidate Makes Strenuous Campaign in Metropolis.

DEFINES HIS STAND ON ISSUES

Talks for County Option and Says He Will Be a Governor of the People and Not of Any Special Interest.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

CHAS. H. ALDRICH, republican candidate for governor of Nebraska, began his second day's campaign work in Omaha by a noonday address to 500 business men in the Commercial club rooms.

One of the results of the Commercial club address was effective removal of the impression that Mr. Aldrich is arrayed against Omaha. He showed where common bond links city and state and pointed plainly that such needs the other.
