Question Regarding Paul Morton's Connection with Paying Rebates Brings Instant Response.

BIG DAMAGE CLAIMS PAID

Charge Made that Democratic Leader While Acting as Receiver of Railroad Was Guilty of Rebating.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 5.—A severe personal attack on Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio was made by Theodore Roosevelt here today in his first speech in the campaign in Ohio.

Colonel Roosevelt's address was delivered in the Valentine building. He began his address by saying that "in the democratic press" there had appeared today a telegram addressed to and sent "apparently on Governor Harmon's behalf by Mr. Powell, a former democratic candidate for governor."

Harmon's Question Answered. The message asks Colonel Roosevelt why he did not act against Mr. Morton. The colonel asserted that Mr. Harmon failed completely to trace the crime of rebating to Mr. Morton.

Colonel Roosevelt went on to say that he had advised the attorney general, directing him to lay all the evidence on which Mr. Harmon made his recommendation before the court.

Service State and Morgan. Saying Mr. Harmon had sought to discredit an innocent man, Colonel Roosevelt took up the receivership of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, which he said was owned in Wall street.

Colonel Roosevelt continued, "It is shown by actual record that while he was receiver the road was engaged continuously in paying damage claims to certain parties for the purpose of holding business, under circumstances which clearly indicated that the payment of such damages served the same purpose as the payment of rebates."

Why Taxes Were Not Paid. "Mr. Harmon became governor, but continued his dual position as receiver of the road at a salary of $25,000 and governor at a salary of $10,000. His services to his two clients, the state of Ohio and the Wall street owned road, appear to have been about in proportion to the compensation they paid him.

Colonel Roosevelt said Governor Harmon asserted "he knew nothing of the evasion of taxes of the rebating and the combination of the road with other railroads."

Big Price for Ignorance. "If that is so," he continued, "what did he mean by accepting the position of receiver and drawing a salary of $25,000 a year? If he drew a salary like that it was his business to make himself thoroughly acquainted with what the road under him was doing and especially to see to it that it did nothing illegal and that it paid its just debts to the state."

Colonel said Governor Harmon had asserted he did not want to continue as receiver of the road, but that the judge would not allow him to give up the work. "If Governor Harmon had not wanted to remain as receiver," said Colonel Roosevelt, "no judge in the land could have forced him to remain."

He declared the author of the bill had charged publicly that the governor knew all about it and that he himself had gone over it with the governor. He asserted that although the governor said he was against petty graft, he had appointed a committee to investigate the graft which he had done in others, and that he had on the ticket with him one

End of Campaign Has Been Reached Out in Wyoming

All Kinds of Claims Are Made and All the Factions Are Confident of Victory.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Nov. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Today closes the hottest political campaign in the history of Wyoming, with both sides apparently confident of the outcome. While the democrats and independent republicans are claiming a landslide for Judge Joseph M. Carey, a democratic candidate for governor of the democratic ticket, the standpaters are insisting that his opponent, Attorney General W. E. Mullen, the regular republican nominee, will pull through safely.

That the insurgent element is strong in northern Wyoming admits of no doubt. The Carey force, therefore, figures on a big vote for the democratic state ticket in Park, Big Horn, Sheridan, Johnson, Weston and Crook counties, the northern tier. They also count on substantial majorities in the central counties, Fremont, Natrona and Converse.

The southern part of the state, known as the Union Pacific territory, is where the standpaters base their hope for more than offsetting the democratic-independent republican sentiment in northern Wyoming and electing Mullen, together with the entire republican state ticket.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—With the hearty approval of his divorced wife, Seymour F. Locke married his sister-in-law, Miss Margaret Orenstein, a magazine writer, whose home is in Lexington, Ky. The first Mrs. Locke was so far from bearing enmity towards her sister that it was at her special request that her son was his father's best man at the ceremony.

The newly married couple are at present at Coleman Park, Va., on their honeymoon. Although they were married several weeks ago, cards announcing their marriage were not received here until today.

Wilson guilty of contempt of court for not producing certain books of the United Wireless Telegraph company for examination before the grand jury, was filed today in the United States court of the United States. Wilson also appealed from the action of the lower court in refusing to release him on habeas corpus proceedings from the custody of the United States marshal.

Will Hitchcock Put it Back?

Reputation is Dishonored. Shelton Clipper. Whether O. M. Hitchcock borrowed state money or money belonging to J. S. Bartley, in pleading the statute of limitations as a defense in the case of the mortgage, is a matter which he is abundantly able to pay the money. The people of Nebraska don't want a repudiator to represent them in the United States senate.

Sailing It Down. Grand Island Independent. The finale in the Howard-Hitchcock-Bartley shortage game seem to be in progress. Editor Howard of the democratic Columbus Telegram yesterday gave to the people of Nebraska further proof of his charges that Hitchcock was a borrower of state funds and had not put it back. And this further proof is so damaging in its nature that the World-Herald and Hitchcock, who seemed to prefer to make as little reference to the matter as possible, have come out today with the facsimile of a letter from Bartley, dated in 1904, to the effect that the $100,000 (not the $20,000) was from Bartley's private account in Wattle's bank. The mortgage securing this $100,000 was, according to Hitchcock himself, foreclosed in 1905. Mr.

LYNCHERS FOILED BY BLUFFS JAIL

Missourians Pursue Man Charged with Serious Crime to Glenwood, Ia., in Vain.

IN MILLS COUNTY BASTLE

Sheriff, Fearing for Safety of Prisoner, Makes Hurried Trip.

POSSE DECIDES TO STOP EFFORTS

Irate Neighbors Must Await the Process of Law.

ACCUSED MAN DISGUISES SELF

Harry Barger is Arrested at Pacific Junction, Following Alleged Attack on Woman in Atchison County, Missouri.

Harry Barger, accused of a criminal assault upon Mrs. Chet Baker, residing in Atchison county, Missouri, a few miles southeast of Hamburg, Ia., was captured at Pacific Junction, Ia., Friday afternoon and brought to Council Bluffs late in the evening for the purpose of preventing a posse of pursuing Missourians from lynching him.

Barger was taken from Pacific Junction to Glenwood, Ia., and lodged in the Mills county jail, but when Sheriff Lindley heard that a band of rascally Missourians, recruited from the neighborhood where the assault was committed, were coming to Glenwood in automobiles determined and well prepared to lynch Barger, he placed the prisoner in an auto and sped across the country with him. Council Bluffs, acting a promise from Sheriff McCaffery, not under any circumstances, to disguise the fact that the prisoner was in Council Bluffs jail lest the irate Missourians should come up there and finish the job they had undertaken. The fact, however, was widely circulated around Glenwood, where the pursuers easily acquired all necessary information about the condition of the Council Bluffs jail. They neglected to take advantage of the opportunity offered them to continue their journey, but would undoubtedly have finished Barger if he had remained in Mills county.

GOES TO BAKER HOME.

Barger was a hired man on a farm near the Baker residence and was acquainted with Mrs. Baker and her family. He went to the house when he knew she would be alone and left her in an insensible condition. He left the place before she recovered and before any neighbors returned. When she regained consciousness she telephoned her brother, having only strength enough to tell him to come to the farm quickly. Her brother used his automobile for a speedy journey. On the way he met Barger coming from the direction of the house, but not knowing what had happened, merely spoke to him in passing. Mrs. Baker told her brother the story, an dthe farm telephones were quickly used to raise a pursuing party.

Barger was followed, but he got into the hills and went to a corn field, where his pursuers, mostly in automobiles, were unable to follow and they lost him. He came to the vicinity of Pacific Junction, where, partially disguised by a stained face, he found employment husking corn for a farmer named Moore. He worked until Friday before he was recognized as the possible fugitive and Mills county officers placed him under arrest. An hour or so after he was brought into Pacific Junction the pursuing Missourians had reached the Moore farm and learned of the arrest. It was then a chase between them and the sheriff, in which the sheriff was victorious. No one has been permitted to see Barger and his own version of the case has not been made public.

Sheriff Hides Pursuers.

GLENWOOD, Ia., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Marshal John Farrell of Pacific Junction, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Robert Allen of Atchison county, Missouri, arrived here yesterday and had placed in jail Harry Barger, of Hamburg, Ia., charged with the charge of assaulting Mrs. C. C. Baker at her home six miles southeast of Hamburg. Several automobile loads of relatives and friends, prepared to make quick work of Barger, if caught, were known to be close to Glenwood and Sheriff Lindley thought Council Bluffs a safer place for the man, even if the jail there had been recently condemned by the grand jury. In a few minutes after a transfer of the prisoner had been decided upon, Clyde Stranathan was in front of the jail with an automobile. Sheriff Lindley, Deputy Allen and the prisoner made a rapid trip to Council Bluffs, the condition of the roads being taken into consideration. The first automobile load of pursuers drew up in front of the Glenwood jail and others interested in the republican ticket and others interested in the republican party will continue to be present in every state in the country where the farmers are engaged in an unusual degree of property.

WANTS DIVORCE BECAUSE WIFE IS TOO ECONOMICAL

James Conklin of Sterling, Ill., Alleges She Refused to Buy New Dress for Two Years. STERLING, Ill., Nov. 5.—James Conklin of Bureau county today filed a petition for a divorce in which he sets forth that his wife refuses to dress like other women in the neighborhood and that the style of attire worn by her causes him much embarrassment. He alleges that she has refused to buy a new dress for two years. He states that he had frequently urged her to dress more fashionably and in keeping with the season's styles, but that his wife maintained that it was too costly. He also alleges that she had deserted him.

CZAR AND KAISER SHOOT

Fifteen Hundred Deer and Other Animals Impounded for Them. BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Emperor Nicholas hunted today in Emperor William's new game preserve, near Oranienburg, twenty-six miles northeast of Potsdam. A battalion of soldiers with foresters had been engaged for some days in assembling some 1,500 deer here and other four-footed game within an enclosure and when the animals were driven out today past a line of platforms concealed by pine branches and upon which the royal party and twenty-two other court hunters had taken positions ready for the killing, Emperor Nicholas was permitted the first shot. The forest was thoroughly searched by troops to make sure that it contained no one whose presence was unauthorized.
