Western Bowlers Make Strikes and Spares in Competition for Mid-West Prizes

DUFFYS LEAD IN FIRST DAY

St. Louis Bowlers Roll Up Score of 2,909 in Annual Mid-West.

TWO CHICAGO TEAMS COMIN

Illinois Athletic Ctub and Chalmers Detroit Pin Swatters to Meet Columbus and Jetter Gold Teps Tonight.

Trying the highest score made at the tournament last year the Duffy team of St Louis bowled 2,000 at the opening of the fourth annual Mid-West Bowling association tournament at Francisco's Saturda night. An enthusiastic yelling crowd that put foot ball rooters to shame filled the hall and cheered as each man rolled his hall for a strike.

Opening speeches were made by Post master B. P. Thomas, president of the Omnha Mid-West Howling association; Searge Strotz, president of the Mid-West association: Acting Mayor of Omaha. Brucker: Ralph Sunderland, president of the Ad club, and Congressman-elect C. O.

'All strikes and no spares." was Thomas motto and "Welcome and Success to All," was the gift of George Strotz's talk.

Lebeck and Brucker both gave welcomes but Ralph Sunderland had the real mea-"I don't know anything about bowlmg," he admitted, "but you look good to ms and Omaha and the Ad club welcome you here.

Thomas, Lobeck, Sunderland and Brucker each rolled a ball to start the game. Thomas and Sunderland managed to dray down seven pins each. Lobeck four, but Brucker not only three.

Speeding Up. Bowling was swift and fast for the rest of the evening. The Duffys took the first game Mt. to the Budweiser and Diels' secand with 868, and the Ojto Stufel's 856. The Budweisers came strong in the second with a 1,630 game, but the Duffys, when it came to totals on the three games, had the high

The second squad on the alleys consisted of the three St. Louis teams-the Faistaffs, De Sotes, and the American Bowling congress tournament team; and the Kansas City team, the Brunswick-Balke-Collender five. The Kansas City team came first Kling, Chicago, set the four ending with 2,672 and the A.

The former enumerator has been indicted for violation of the census act. The other enumerator, it is said, interpreted his instructions so liberally that he invented out of his own head information where it was lacking. In one place the enumerator in District 62 reported 121 persons living in a building which a recount showed contained only nineteen regular lodgers. In another district the recount reduced the enumeration from 4,129 to 3,347.
