SECULAR SHOTS AT PULPIT.

New York Tribune: With Mrs. Eddy's works in the ship libraries, will the men of our navy study the giving of absent treatment to hostile fleets, or will they consider hostile fleets mere "errors" which are to be disregarded?

Brooklyn Eagle: The Rev. Dr. Younh pastor of the Bedford Presbyterian church would have young women invite young men who call Sunday evening to accompany them to church. Nothing better could be thought of to test carnestness, but in cases young women to go slow-perhaps sofa and no farther.

Philadelphia Record: An English bishop remarked that the boys were being very badly taught, but added that the girls would never find it out. In an inverted form the consolation may be applied to the discovery that the girls of Wellesley spell poorly.
