School Days Shoes

For Misses' and Children

Who has not envied the rollicking, running and jumping and laughing children as they play along on their way to school.

Do you remember the shoes you kicked out in those days—and such shoes as they were: Big, rough, stiff, hob-nailed soles and ill-fitting.

Now how different—our misses' and children's school shoes are genuine welt soles, very flexible, no wrinkles in the lining to tear the hose and cause discomfort. They are made especially for us and are built on honor, every stitch. Don't take our word for it, maybe we are too enthusiastic—Come and see for yourself.

The Neal Treatment and the Alcohol Cure

In Three Days the Patient is Free From the Desire

It is an important point in the treatment of periodical and habitual drunkenness to reduce as much as possible the time, and expense required to obtain a cure. This may be done at the Neal Institute in Omaha at 192 South 16th St.; where patients are perfectly cured of all desire for alcoholic drinks in three days time.

The Neal Treatment not only destroys the craving for alcohol, but in addition it restores the debilitated and weakened system to a normal vigorous condition. This destruction of alcoholic craving, and up-building of the patient's general health is accomplished without hypodermic injections or injurious drugs; only 25 doses of this specific for alcoholism are required to effect a cure. From the very first dose almost all desire for drink is removed, and a perfect cure is effected in three days time.

That the Neal Cure does cure and that the results are permanent is an established fact beyond controversy and it is being acknowledged daily by hundreds of grateful patients who have been cured.

We guarantee to accomplish a cure in three days time or the money will be refunded.

For further information, and our booklet "THE NEAL WAY," address Neal Institute Company, O. B., 192 South 16th St., Omaha, Neb.

DON'T TRY HAYDEN'S FIRST IT PAYS

SHE SUFFERS TO KEEP WORD

Little Girl Dares Poverty to Be True to Promise.

GIVES WHOLE FAMILY HOME

Faithful Pledge to Her Dying Father and Refuses to Be Cared for by the Juvenile Court Authorities.

Through the torments of sickness and old age, hunger and facing a future as dark as the past, Annie Phillips, 16 years old, has refused offers of good homes and pretty clothes to remain true to her father's dying wish that she be a mother to her brothers and sisters and keep the family together. Admitting that her brother, Max, a year her senior, drinks to excess and does not work steadily to help her in her labor of loyalty to her dead parents, admitting that she is unable to make the home as good as it should be, poverty she cannot have, the little girl in juvenile court Monday morning refused to leave the hotel which is home to her and her brothers and sisters.

Touched by the child's unusual demonstration of fidelity, neighbors and strangers who attended the hearing, promised Judge Sutton that they would see that the family does not suffer.

"We don't want to punish you," said Judge Sutton, kindly. "You haven't done anything wrong. You are doing the best you can; but it is too much for you. We want you to live with Mrs. Wynn, Mrs. Wynn at the Detention home and go to school. You will be well taken care of."

"I won't go," she said. "I'm going to do what my father told me to do. He told me before he died: 'Annie, you stay here and be a mother to the children as long as you live,' and that's what I'm going to do as long as I live 'cause my father told me to. I don't care if I do get sick. I am going to do it as long as I can."

Many Would Help Her.

"Everyone needs help sometimes," said the judge. "We want to help you. You can go with Mrs. Wynn and work and give your money that you earn to help your brothers and sisters if you want to."

Outgo officers of the court suggested that the Phillips home be rented for a few dollars a month, the money to be spent in the interest of the children, who would be placed in homes. The girl shook her head.

"Efforts to show her that her father if alive would be pleased at this had no effect upon the child's blind fidelity to her promise."

Then help came in the form of assurances that Annie would be helped to keep her home and she went away happy.

The little girl's mother died three years ago. She took her place in the home and the family managed to get on until the father died two years ago. Since then things have been going from bad to worse. The older brother cannot leave drink alone. His earnings have not been sufficient to support the family. Recently he thought he had a position, but when he went to take it he found another in his place.

No Drop in Prices Expected Here—Cole

Says that There is Very Little Cold Storage Provisions Kept in Omaha.

There will be no drop in food prices at Omaha as a result of the great upheaval reported in the east, according to David Cole, dealer in poultry and dairy products, Monday. "What is reported to be an avalanche of food stuffs on the big city markets," said Mr. Cole, "is merely that involved in the speculative market. The markets of the west, that is, those this side of Chicago, have been and are dealing direct from the producer to the consumer, and there has been no speculation."

Mr. Cole explained that there never has been any great quantities of stocks kept in cold storage in Omaha or the west, and that therefore, there has been no fictitious price placed upon them through speculation.

REAL ESTATE MEN TO LINCOLN

Tuker Organizing Party to Attend State Convention at the Capital.

Harry Tuker, of the Tuker & Son real estate firm, was the busiest man in Omaha Monday, enlisting real estate men of the city in the party which is to go to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the state real estate convention.

The Omaha men do not intend to strive for any particular result at the convention, outside of advertising their city in a general way and learning about real estate affairs of the state. There probably will be close to 100 men in the Omaha delegation.
