Major William G. Haan, coast artillery set aside for the representatives and excepts, will proceed to Fort Monroe for temporary duty. claims upon the tide of immigration, and they took advantage of the situation to appeal for the Panama Canal exposition for San Francisco in 1915.

Robert Newton Lynch urged everyone within the hearing of his voice to direct a elegram to President Taft expressing the iew that the west is entitled to the Pan ama Canal exposition and that the show should be held in San Francisco. He also spoke of the efforts that are being made to secure the exposition for New Orleans. His remarks were supplemented by a brief address made by R. W. Raymond, president of the Portland Commercial club. He argued that the only expositions that have paid dividends were those conducted in Omaha, Portland and Seattle, and that the same results would be obtained if the show were to be held in San Francisco. He said that San Francisco was fully capable of putting on the biggest exposition ever attempted, and would do so in 1915 whether New Orleans is selected or Wilber Walker of Alameda, Cal., who is n charge of the Burbank exhibit at the Land Show, spoke entertainingly for a fav minutes about the great florist who has attracted so much attention by his work. C. Rosewater also spoke, thanking the Californians for the creditable showing they have made at the Land Show.
