Off for South America

Eight well known Omnba people are planning to sail from New York City February B on the steamship Moltke of the Hamburg-American line for a trip to South America Mr. E. E. Bruce and two daughters, Miss Margaret Bruce and Miss Elizabeth Bruce; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickens, Miss Elizabeth Pickens, Mr. Joseph Hayden and his niece, Miss Ophelia Hayden. The steamer will make stops at Havana, Panama and interesting points in South America.

Many Omaha people have visited South America recently, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sunderland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English, Mr. and Mrs. R. Tyler and Miss Marion Tyler took the trip last year. The latter part of Januasy of this year Mr and Mrs. Sunderland left for their second trip to the tropics. Mra. J. B. Rahm and daughter, Miss Florence Rahm, who salled for South America in January for the benefit of Miss Florence Rahm's health, were obliged to stop in Mayana because of the illness of Mgs.

Pleasures Past

Mrs E. D. Van Court entertained at a small luncheon today at her home in Kountze Place

Mrs. Charles Eligutter, who is giving a series of luncheons, entertained today, when twelve guests were present.

Mrs. I., M. Pegau gave an Orpheum party yesterday afternoon. The guests were Mesd mes H. E. Wilcox, G. W. Williams, E. E. Larkins and Miss Irma E. Staples. Mrs. S. G. Clayton was hostess of the W. U. Card club Wednerday afternoon Prizes were won by Mrs. W. F. Kellogs. Mrs. L. S. Jarvis. Mrs. W. Shields and Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. R. L. Shaw will be the next hostess of the club when it meets February 22.

Mrs. Paul Stein was hostess of the Sunflower club Wednesday. Prizes were won by Mrs. Stein, Mrs. C. G. Henderson, Mrs. O. Anderson and Mrs. G. Erickson. Mrs. Fred Peterson will entertain the club February 22. Those present were:

Mesdames Mesdames-Frank Bignell.
L. Lunberg.
M. J. Anderson.
C. Mortenson. Le Hockenson.

Mrs. Emil Gruger entertained the 1909 Whist club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Eugene Atkins, Mrs. T. F. Ratchford, Mrs. W. H. Outhwait and Mrs. A. Howk. The guests were Mrs. A. L. Underland, Mrs. W. H. Outhwalt, Mrs. R. D. Mason, Mrs. J. N. Lench, Mrs. F. A. Holt, Mrs. C. Schmitz. Mrs. A. Howk and Miss Ella Kruger. The members of the club are Mesdames C. J. Evens, E. W. Anstach, E. V. Arnold, W. J. Hickiey, W. M. Davis, George A. Graham, J. J. Dinneen, G. H. Van Alstine and G. L.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Nichola entertained one of the evening bridge clubs at their home Thursday. Mrs. F. T. Grey was the guest of the club and the members present

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cahow. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould, Jr. Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Dorward. Mr. and Mrs. James Freeland. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Recimen.
Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Kyte.
Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harte.
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tillotson.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Farrell.
Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Nichols.

Miss Elizabeth Richards, 2027 Cass street. entertained Thursday evening in honor of Miss Sara Hirschberg of Chicago.

home present were Misses-Lillian Robin. Marie Gordon. Mabel Maddelson. Lena Marcus, Messre-Charles Sadier

Engabeth Richards, Bara Richards, Sara Aginskee, Sara- Hirschberg. Arthur Rosenblcom, M. Chasson, M. Krosue, Samuel Block, Albert Rosenfield. of Chicago.
Dr. W. T. Gordon, M. Krosu of Chicago.
Samuel B. Dayld, bluck, Albert R. Leo Klein.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Flower.

Students of St. Berchman's academy and young men from Creighton college last this evening includes: evening says a presentation of "A Wasp in the Woodbine," a three act comedy, which was much enjoyed by a large audience of friends. The comedy was given under the auspises of the Research club, and under the direction of Mr. Lloyd Ingraham, who Mary Donaldson of had the leading role in the play. Others in the cast were: Madeline O Coungt. Veronica O'Connor. Eva Lovely. Mande McArdie. Mande McArdle.

Margaret Kelly.
Margaret Murray.
Greta Hogan.
Mac O'Brien.
Margaret Mulvibill.
Cathorine Carrick.
Altee English.
Messra.
Jack Mulvibill.
James Blair,
Frank Thomas.

Catherine Morray. Mary McSiligot. Adelaide Harrigan. Winifred Traynor. Ruth Howard. Anne Robertson. Anne Haster. Walker. Menars.

Francis Warren. A surprise party was given Miss Mary Peterson last evening by a number of her friends at her home. 2502 South Thirtieth street. The time was spent with musiand games, after which a delightful lunchcon was served. Those present were:

Misses-Rena Lotz. Maria Damm. Maria Landrock.
Martha Schaeffer.
Lilly Anderson.
Eva Larson.
Alida Ulander.
Oma Peterson. Messrs.
Derell Callahan,
Arthur Anderson.
Carl Rench.
Walter Pearson.
Alfred Peterson.
Albert Erickson.

Dagny Bernard, Eather Peterson Emma Landrock Kamma Wasse, Elma Pearson, Lillian Fischer Mesars. Melville Larson, Carl Peterson. Alfred Peterson.

A delightful affair of Thursday was the reception given by Mrs. Charles Clement Allison at her attractive home on Bouth Thirty-ninth street. The rooms were fragrant with spring flowers. Mrs. Allison received her guests in the reception hall where there was a profusion of roses and stevia. American Beauty roses brightened wave their feelers at the inspecting purthe music room, and in the dining room the table had an attractive centerpiece of ionquila, Mrs. E. W. Nash served tea and long. They are not handsome to look at. Mrs. Warren Rogers served coffee. Ices but epicures declare that they are "dewere served in the breakfast room by Mrs. Issao Cole and Mrs. O. T. Eastman. Here forms and white flowers were used in decoration. Assisting through the rooms were are 50 cents a pound. Mrs. J. E. Baum, Mrs. Edward A. Cudaby, Joseph Barker, aC. M. Wilhelm, John D. Creighton, Clement Chase, J. M. Daugherty have eaten them skillfully prepared, are $1 and Frederick A. Nash. About 150 guests a quart.

Personal Gossip

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jewell are the guests | Pacific coast to the middle west market: It was finally decided to refer the quesof Mrs. L. M. Pegau for several weeks. arrived today to be the guest of Misa pound; salmon, 17% cents a pound.

Dorothy Morgan. Miss Katle A. Alston of Boston. Mass., truly French flavor to the salad and s ip a. m., and extend throughout the day, to them. who is visiting her sister. Mrs. Watter II. French appreciation to the salad eater, is A varied program will be given which will plans to leave later for a trip to the Pa- flower in the market today is fine and Cowin will be the principal speaker of the ing market for their products. offic coast for the benefit of her health

Croquettes

'E and Tomate Croquettes-Cook three cupfuls of canned tomatoes with a small onion stocks with two cloves, two silees of carrot, sprig of parsley, one sprig of thyme, one-third of a teaspoonful of peppercorns, one teaspoonful of salt and one-eighth of a teaspoonful of sods for thirty minutes, then remove seasonings and rub through a sleve. Bring to boiling point, add one-half cupful of rice and steam until rice is suft. Remove from range, add one egg slightly beaten, one-third of a cupful of grated cheese and a few grains of cayenne, Cool, shape, dip in crumbs, egg and crumbs again and fry in deep fat and drain. Potato Croquettes-Wash and pare four medlum-sized potatoes, drop at once into cold water to prevent discoloration and soak one hour; drain. cook in boiling salted water until soft. again drain and force potatoes through a potato ricer. There should be two cupfuls. Add three tablespoonfuls of cream, one-half terspoonful of salt. one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper, a few grains of cayenne, a few drops of onlon juice and the yolk of one egg and beat thoroughly. Take up a rounding tablespoonful of the mixture and roll between the hands in the form of a smooth ball; then roll lightly on a board until of the desired length and flatten ends, care being taken not Roll in crumbs, then in egg and then in crumbs again, fry one minute in deep fat and drain on brown paper.

Chicken Croquettes - Cook three tablespoonfuls of butter with one chapped shallot three minutes, stirring constantly. Add one-fourth of a curful of salt, one-fourth of a tenspoonful of paprika, one-eighth of a tenspoonful of pepper and a slight grating of nutmey and stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one cupful of chicken stock. Bring to the boiling point and let stumer eight minutes. Add the yolks of three eggs slightly beaten. one and one-fourth cupfuls of cooked chicken cut in small dice, and one-half cupful of cold boiled ham cut in small dice. Cook slowly five minutes, spread on a pan to cool, shape in the form of croquettes, roll in flour, egg and crumbs, fry in deep fat and drain. Salmon Croquetter-Drain one can of salmon and pour hot water to remove as much of the oil as possible, then dry on a piece of cheesecloth; separate into flakes. There should be one and three-fourths cupfuls. Add one cupful of thick white sauce, using three tablespoonfuls of butter, one-third of a cupful of flour and one cupful of milk. Season with one and one-half tenspoonfuls of lemon juice, threefourths of a teaspoonful of sait and a few grains of cayenne. Shape and fry the same as other croquettes.

For the Future

to leave the impression of the fingers.

Mrs. Daniel McCarthy will entertain at dinner Saturday

Mrs. Ward Burgess will entertain at uncheon Saturday. Mrs. Mary Auld will be hosters of the

Mrs. S. L. Danfurth will entertain at a bridge luncheon next Thursday at her

Tuesday Bridge Luncheon club February

Dr. and Mrs. Palmer Findley will enter- of Susan B. Anthony's life and work will tain at dinner this evening at their home. be given. Covers will be placed for ten guests.

tain informally at bridge this evening at ance Unions. Wednesday, plans were con their home in honor of their house guest. Dr' and Mrs. Rich of Green Bay, Wis. Miss Alice Cary McGrew will entertain at a ten from t to 6 o'clock Tuesday for Mrss Schneider, guest of Miss Dorothy Morgan, and for Mess Elizabeth Pickens, who leaves in ten days for a trip to South Amer.ca.

Many theater parties are being planned would make reservations for all parties of ington, D. C. ten or more. The following have reserved seats for parties:

Mrs. G. H. Bicknell,
Mrs. Edward Phalan,
Mrs. Edward Phalan,
Mrs. O. B. Ganson,
Mrs. J. J. Brewn,
Mrs. C. C. George,
M. a. George N. Peck,
Mrs. D. Cameron,
Creighton Gles club,
Mrs. George Johnston,
Mrs. Howard Aconsed Mrs. Howard Mennedy, Mrs. W. E. Clark, Mrs. Thomas K patrick

Mrs. M. R. Murphy. Mrs. M. R. Murphy. Mrs. Edward Hatfield Mrs. Warren E. B. Miss Mabel Clark. Bingbam. Miss Marsden Miss Dora Harvey. Mrs. George Barker. Mrs. G. H. Thummel.

A military hop will be given at Fort Crook this evening by the officers and lad'es of the post. The committee in charge includes Captain Nuttman, Lieutenant Bubb and Lientenant John K. Cowan. The guests from Omaha who plan to attend-

Alice Carey McGrew,

Laura Jordan.

Ciannahan,

Ruth Lord, Eugenie Whitmore,

Lobsters Here from Boston;

Misses— Nannie Page, Dorothy Morgan, Helen Schneider of Jean Cudahy. Gwendoline White, Mensen.-Stockton Heth, Taylor Belcher, Otto Bauman, J. Van Renesalaer, Bloodgood. Paul Beaton Lieutenant and Mrs. Nathan Post.

Ella Mae Brown, Mesura .-Wilson Austin Captain O'Connor, Lieutenant Watson, Frank Wilhelm, James Ely Bready, George Bohman.

Sunday Dinner Menu.

DINNER.

Cream of Celery Soup.
Broiled Steak. Glased Sweet Potatoes.
Cauliflower au Gratin.

Endive With French Dressing

They have come from Boston to Omaha.

not to be confounded nor classed with the "codfish variety." Lobsters, "live lobsters"

These live lobsters from the east lie on the bed of chopped ice in the market and licious to taste." The live lobster sells for 45 cents a pound, one lobster weighing two pounds or more. The boiled lobsters

Scallops which have a special place in the l'at of "good things to eat" for all who white and sells at 13% and 15 cents a pound. | day continue good until April.

and scallops from Boston are the latest luxuries to reach the Omaha market.

even though they come out of the sea are cents.

chaser, attesting to the fact that they are The att

Woman's Work

February 15, the birthday of Susan B. Anthony, will be observed by the Omaha Woman's Suffrage club. The date is that of the next regular meeting and a review

At the meetings of the Frances Willard Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bradbury will enter- and Omaha Women's Christian Temper pleted for the Frances Willard Memorial service. The service will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Young Women's Christian association building. All of the unions of Omntha, South Omaha and Benson will

Rev. F. M. Lynch will give the address. telling of Frances Willard's life and for the entertainment which is to be given work. Mrs. Harry Paul will sing. The Forceful "Open Letter" Points Out Saturday evening at the Lyric theater in members of the unions will read brief benefit of the social settlement. Because excerpts from some of the tributes paid the demand for boxes was greater than the to Miss Willard at the time of the unveilsupply the management decided that it ing of her statue in Statuary Hall, Wash-

> Mrs. N. H. Nelson gave an interesting de- ification by congress of the reciprocity scription of the Panama canal as she saw agreement with Canada moved on apace it in a recent trip. Mrs. Nelson had a yesterday. The house committee on ways large map on which she traced the pro- and means held its final hearing and it exgress of the canal building and gave to pected in executive session tomorrow tremendousness of the task which Uncle the consideration of the house. Sam's engineers have accomplished.

dramatic composition.

candies all day Saturday in the basement of Orchard & Wilhelm store. Sale will be in charge of Mrs. Maxfield.

Activities of Various Organized Bodies Along the Lines of Un-many present their first realization of the morning to vote to report it favorably for Harvard men and five other Radcliffe all of the discussion and that the demo-trade with it will extend and increase. If terday by Austen Chamberlain. girls for the Craig prize of $250 for crats will determine on a policy in re- this is desirable in the part of Canada, it

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont has offered

Sale of Good Things to Eat.

a pound; carrots, beets and turnips, two Strawberries, of more tempting appearance than the earlier berries, sell now for baked, are 40 cents a quart. Pineapples and 28 cents a dozen. Butter prices like-

Coffee. 40 cents a quart. Pears, which are popular bunches for 15 cents.

dertaking of Concern to Women.

RECIPROCITY MOVES FORWARD Campaign of Taft Administration

'JIM' WILSON SHOWS BENEFITS the free introduction of flaxseed. Free

Advances Apace.

Advantages to the Farmers-Some Democrats Fear Alding Mensure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 .- The campaign To the members of the Current Topics of the Taft administration and the eledepartment of the Omaha Woman's club. ments allied inthe same cause for the rat-

Mrs. W. R. Adams, superintendent of the Agriculture added his word to the pro-Miss Nan Dorsey, head nurse, is acting bers of the senate will meet in caucus tomorrow morning. Ostensibly the conference of the minority was called to out-Miss Florence Agnes Lincoln, a special line a program in relation to all legisla-spect to it. Democratic leaders may naturally they of the people of the United States." would be for the agreement, but some of prizes to members of her artists' league them are holding off because of the feel. United States handled Canada's surplus ported the government, as also did the branch of the Political Equality associa- ing that President Taft might be bene- wheat, American transportation facilities laborites. tion of New York City for the best pieces fitted politically by its adoption by con- will tend to reduce the price of bread to The debate had far greater vitality than I cannot speak further. of sculpture and posters flustrating the gross. The democrats who are inclined to the American consumer. He suggests that many former fiscal debates, owing to the cause of "votes for women." She will give this view say they hesitate to assist the the Canadians will also be able to furnish republican party at present.

The women of St. Paur's church will sentiment in the house, when the McCall American rancher and homesteader. hold a sale of all kinds of bread, cakes and bill to carry the agreement into force is house democrats will support the bill, in which event the senate democrats will Opposition Speaker Asserts Canada probably follow suit.

John Norris, chairman of the paper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, today made the final mittee in support of the pulp and paper Scallops Come With Them clauses of the agreement, earnestly urging its adoption without amendment.

BIG ADVANTAGES TO FARMERS

Wax beans are 20 and 25 cents a quart. Markets for Ments and Grains Throws cucumbers, 25 cents each; tomatoes, 25 cents Open to Producers.

WASHINGTON. Feb. 9 .- "The pending ciprocity treaty with Canada will go some distance towards meeting the demands of the people at the last election without interfering with the policy of protection as applied to the whole world." This is the Canliftower au Gratin-Piace a whole cooked canliftower on a dish for serving, cover with buttered crumbs, place on oven grate to brown. Remove from oven and pour one cup of white sauce around it. conclusion of James Wilson, secretary of a bunch; grapefruit, 5 and 10 cents each. agriculture, in an answer on behalf of the Taft administration to the National Grange's declared opposition to the proposed agreement.

wise show little change, creamery butter is The answer is in the form of an open They are, moreover, real aristocrats and 30 cents a pound; country butter, 28 and 25 jetter made public tonight, addressed to the legislative committee of the National Chickens sell for 16 cents a pound, tur-Grange, Concord, N. H. keys, 25 cents; ducks, 20 cents; geese, 18

Secretary Wilson argues that the cost of production in the United States and cents; brotlers, 50 cents each. Pork prices show a drop. No. 1 ham is 15 cents. No. 1 Canada is more nearly identical than it is bacon, 19 cents; pork chops, 12% cents. between the United States and any other Rib roast of beef ranges in prices from 19 country, that the same difficulties, with to 20 cents. Calf sweetbreads are 65 cents regard to farm labor exist on both sides of the international line and that Canadian The wholesale poultry prices are: Hene, "fresh" and have been out of the sea not 14% cents; roosters, 13% cents; turkeys, 26 and American farming methods are virtually the same. cents; ducks, 18 cents; geese, 15 cents; Salaries Behind Prices.

omer squabs, $4; fancies, $3.50 and No. 1, $3. Secretary Wilson wrote, in part: "Prices for the necessities of life have PIONEERS MEET IN CITY HALL een high and wages and salaries have not kept pace with the increase. There was a Question of How Refreshments Shall demand for lower tariffs in the last elec-Be Served is Discussed and tion by the population of the towns. That Task Given Committee. interest carried the election by default. Whether the Nebraska Pioneers' associ- A new congress was elected along lower Blue point oysters in the shell are E ation should serve a 15-cent lunch at its tariff lines, if it had any instructions from cents a dozen. The season of this sea food social which will be held February 22 in the people. is now in full awing and the supply will the Masonic temple, occupied the attention of the members who attended the meeting Rivalling the castern sea denizens in of the society yesterday afternoon in the Canadians with nothing in return. We get in the Canadian woods, timber products. opularity are the fish which come from the city hall things very much needed, as our home sup-The red snapper from the Pacific coast at tion of refreshments to a committee and piles are so much reduced that prices have Miss Helen Schelder of St. Joseph Mo. 15 cents a pound fresh halibut, 174 cents a let the members produce the refreshments gone up markedly in the last few years. Southern states have a new market for

"Canada opens its doors to our fruits, Mullin. 110 South Twenty-ninth atreet, in the market at 40 cents a pound. Cault- include speaking and music. General John which will give to our orchardists a grow- has been have free trade in seeds, which is well, be- of their population they turn to us. cause many seeds are more valuable coming from northern latitudes.

This is Our Orkin's Douglas St. Store at 8:00 a. m.

Final and Greatest Sale

In announcing this great final sale of all our suits, we want to emphasize the

Every suit in this extraordinary offer is a late model, which will be in good style fact that this is absolutely the final and last suit sale of the season, and that its MAIN for spring wear, and all are beautifully tailored of finest all wool materials, none of which sold under $25, and from that price up to $35. The skirts alone from the suits

Our entire stock of $60 in every instance is worth more than what the entire suit will be sold for.

TAILORED SUITS

FEATURE WILL BE THE UNHEARD OF LOW PRICE.

We predict that every suit in our stock will be sold before closing time. The sale starts at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and the doors of our store will then open-this will give everybody an

Just think of buying a tailored suit, worth $25.00, $27.50,

$29.75, $32.50 and $35.00,

Final Clearance Sale Price . . .

equal chance of being the first one at the opening of the sale.

Sold up to $35.00, SATURDAY

"We do not grow enough of flax to make our olls and will derive benefit from barbed fencing wire will be a boon to our farmers.

"The Payne tariff act reduces duties on a great many articles and we have been havof that act. That may do no harm and a reduction of the amount of protection given to some other manufacturers may do no harm, indeed, may be justified, but, whenever these reductions go as far us to permit very heavy importations of goods in those classes, the factory stops and the farmer loses his market.

Reciprocity Different question. Reciprocity with Canada must be con sidered from a viewpoint somewhat different from that of a tariff act affecting our commerce with the entire world. "Our relations with the people of Canada are different from our relations with any other people. In the first place they are Visiting Nurses' association, is slowly re- reciprocity chorus, in the form of a long a kindred people and their territory runs the new Parliament, the House of Com- sistance I can to the Arnold family. I covering from the operation which she and forceful "open letter" addressed to the form sea to sea along our northern border. recently underwent. During her Illness National Grange. The democratic meinfrom any other cause.

The attitude of the minority in the sen- United States and that meats will be re-

Gets Worst of Bargain.

unusually large attendance of members. The result of the afternoon's discussion was right, would continue the fight to the was a declaration by Finance Minister end. favorable action and a declaration for the opposition by Mr. Borden, conservative leader, that after a forty-year development struggle, Canada had reached a po sition where reciprocity and increased desirable, but that Canada should continue to seek British markets with her surplus products. At the opening of the session French conservative nationalists attempted to defer the discussion. F. D. Monk declared there had not been enough time for proper study of so large a question and moved an amendment regretting that the measure was being submitted without prope consideration. No Undue Haste. For the government, Mr. Fielding replied

"It is the reciprocity treaty of 1854 over stages of her career. again, with comparatively little change," he said. "It promises prosperity to the Florence in, recalling the night. people of Canada and this house would back" was my line. It was the first, last make a grave mistake and do a grave and only line I had in the play. I was wrong if it refused to take advantage naturally very timid at rehearsals, and I taken by the United States."

into committee on the resolution. "The reciprocity treaty is so far-reach- to get on." ing," declared Mr. Borden, opposition leader, who was the first speaker in com- my cue, entered, and rushing down to the mittee. 'that no man can tell what its footlights, yelled at the top of my voice,

"Fish comes into the United States free, and the United States has been denying -Kansas City Star which will mean quite as much to our reciprocity, and now when their natural people as the opening of our markets to resources of timbers, minerals and agricul-Canadian poultry products. We are to ture are being overtaken by the demands Objection to Agreement.

"No one favors more than I the maintenance of good relations with the United States, but that country has made its tariffs to suit itself and Canada could well take a lesson in this case." Some of the results of the agreemen which Mr. Borden foresaw were the ing heavy importations since the passage abandonment of the British markets, which Canada had built up with effort and treasure for forty years, the growth of commerce with the United States, which would eventually lead to commercial union with that country. He summed up the opposition policy by pleading Canada should follow the paths it North German Lloyd steamer Berlin, is now treading without regard to the United States, whose favor of today might be withdrawn tomorrow.

COMMONS FOR THE AGREEMENT House Reaffirms Adherence to Free Trade Principles.

years ago that was abrogated more through The division was taken on the opposition's temporary sentimental considerations than amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne, urging fiscal re-"If this reciprocity treaty becomes the form, with special reference to the proposed student at Radeliffe college, who lives at tive matters, but it is believed the Ca- law of both countries, our relations with reciprocity agreement between Canada and Charlestown, Mass., has beaten sixteen nadian agreement will consume practically Canada will become more intimate and our the United States which was moved yes-

The amendment was rejected, by a vote certainly should be desirable on the part of 324 to 222. The nationalists, who here tofore have always abstained from voting Secretary Wilson concluded that if the in fiscal divisions, on this occasion sup-reciprocity agreement, but this fact reveals questioned, that he was not and never had ate may be influenced by the democratic duced in price by the activities of the situation that in spite of Austen Chamberlain's having presented his preference in the ablest speech he has ever delivered, no put on its passage. The indications are the UNITED STATES MOST FAVORED? whole-hearted enthusiasm was shown by The Bee Advertising Columns. the unionists.

Prender Asquith made a long speech OTTAWA. Ont., Feb. 19.-The Canadian largely devoted to arguments in support of nouse yesterday began the debate on the government's position with reference the reciprocity agreement with the United to the agreement, and in denunciation of argument before the ways and means com- States. The great interest in the measure the tariff reform agitation. Mr. Balfour, was indicated by crowded galleries and an leader of the opposition, declared the unionists, convinced that their fiscal policy

> Fielding that parliament would put Homar Greenwood, liberal, said that through the measure without delay with what strengthened Canada commercially, a provision that it should come into force strengthened the empire politically. Orgaas soon as the United States had taken nized immigration, and not protection, was the secret of Canada's success.

> The tariff reformers were not taken seriously, but were regarded as urging the oversea dominions as a pawn in the domestic party game. Regald McMawter, unionist, suspected trade with the United States was no longer. that politics was at the bottom of the > > the cleavage of the empire and might amount to an imperial disaster. BILLY FLORENCE'S FIRST HIT agreement, which was the first wedge in

Had Only Two Words to Say, But He Made the Rafters Ring.

The late W. J. Florence liked to recall his first appearance on the stage. The that the question was not new and there play was "Evadne," one of the old standhad been no undue haste in its prepara- ard romances in which Mary Anderson appeared very frequently in the earlier "I was one of the conspirators," said delivered this order in a way very unlike "The bill will be passed with a suspend- that of a real conspirator. Shout it, my ing clause providing that it shall not come boy, shout it-let them hear that you have into effect until similar action has been a voice, said the stage manager. 'If you want to succeed in this business you have Mr. Monk's motion was defeated on a got to have confidence in yourself. If "This treaty is not one-sided, giving our straight party division by a government you go to the market with a pound of butmarkets for ments, and grains to the majority of twenty-five and the house went ter to sell you must make as much noise as if you had a thousand. That's the way

"Well, the eventful night came, I got onsequence will be. In the last forty 'Hold back!' You could have heard me Imported French endive, which gives a The social entertainments will begin at their cottonseed oil, which will be valuable years Canada has made great strides many blocks in the open. I can assure toward development and no man can say you the lines 'went." The audience roared that our progress should be faster than it with laughter. No other line in the play made such a hit that night as did my line "For forty years we have been seeking -the very first I over spoke on the stage.

Alleged Fiance to Aid in the Search

George S. Griscom Returns from Italy-Received Last Letter from Her December First.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10,-George S. Griscom ir., of Pittsburg, Pa., whose acquaintance and correspondence with Miss Dorothy Arnold brought his name into print in connection with the two months' search for her, arrived tonight from Italy on the

Although it had been announced that, John W. Arnold and G. Arnold, brothers of the missing girl, had arranged to go down the bay to meet Griscom, none of the Arnold family did so, nor were they at the pier when the vessel docked.

"The case is as much of a mystery as ever to me," said Griscom to reporters, Arnold's disappearance.'

He did, however, scout the belief which the missing giri's father, Francis R. Arnold, entertains, that the girl is dead. Griscom said he received a letter from Miss Arnold at Florence, Italy, about December I. She disappeared December 12.

"Was there snything in this last letter that gave any intimation of her proposed movements; was the letter cheerful?" he was asked.

"The letter was cheerful, but gave no intimation of her disappearance from home. However, he added emphatically, when cattle feeders for the corn belt of the such a divergence of opinion on the side of been engaged to marry Miss Arnold. He the unionists as to how to meet the new saw her last on November 2, before he departed for a visit to Italy. A Guarantee of Husiness Prosperity-

He promptly replied "I hasten with pride To show all the world

went on the nave

Truly "Classy"

People who like to be exclusive; and use and wear and eat things too expensive for the majority have no advantage when it comes to

Campbell's SOUP

They find that money won't buy anything better than this rich and perfect delicacy. They might as well try to buy better sunshine than other people

And you get your money back if you say so.

21 kinds 10c a can Just add hot water, bring to a boil, and serve. JOSEPH CAMPRELL COMPRRY

Camden N J Look for the red-and-white label

