OMAHA MEN ORGANIZE FIRM

Elkhorn Valley Condensing Company Filed.

BIG FACTORY GOES TO WATERLOO

Leroy Cortes, president of Concern which will prepare condensed milk to command Omaha's milk supply troubles.

Articles of incorporation for the Elkhorn Valley Condensing company were filed this morning, the capital stock of the new concern being listed at $20,000 and the headquarters being named as Waterloo, Neb.
The new company is promoted by Leroy Cortes, president and treasurer of the Waterloo Creamery company, and will be closely allied to the company.

The directors of the company are Leroy Cortes, George Monson and Guy Meyers of Omaha; E. L. Lindquist and J. C. Robinson of Waterloo, Neb. The officers are: Leroy Cortes, president; Guy H. Meyers, secretary, and E. L. Lindquist, treasurer. The firm will prepare condensed milk under the brand name of "The Elkhorn."

A large solid concrete building, 150 feet long and 56 feet wide, will form the factory of the new concern at Waterloo. The minimum capacity of the factory will be 750 pounds of milk daily and the maximum capacity will be 400,000 pounds.
According to the estimates furnished by the promoters of the company it will take $20,000 or $40,000 to equip and operate this factory.

Some Stock Already Sold.
Some of the stock has already been bought by prospective patrons of the condensing firm. Work will be started on the factory March 1, and it is expected to have the plant in operation by June 1.

The new company is the first and only one of its kind in the state of Nebraska.
The company will put up milk in cans of various sizes, from the "baby" and tall grades to the gallon sizes for confectionery and ice cream purposes. It is the aim of the men behind the new concern to make the Elkhorn brand as popular in Omaha and the west as the Borden brand is in Chicago.

In establishing the new factory the condensing company managers believe they will be able to meet successfully the problem of supplying milk to the people of Omaha at all times of the year. They plan to take care of the surplus at certain times of the year and to have such a surplus that there will be no shortage of milk and a consequent advance in the price.
They will keep the supply of milk in this city, the promoters declare, at a normal point all during the year. The factory, they believe, will be of immense benefit to Omaha and surrounding towns.

Plan for Omaha's Benefit.
"Conservation is the order of the age," said Leroy Cortes, chief among the promoters of the new company. "To conserve and regulate the supply of milk, arbitrary to Omaha is the prime motive of the organization of this condensing company." The problem of supplying milk to the people of a metropolitan city is very accious and important, from a business as well as a sanitary standpoint. The supply and the demand never are equal. There are weeks, months and seasons when there is an overproduction of milk by the farmers and the demand is normal. Other times the consumption is abnormal and the COUNCIL GETS IN A TANGLE

Votes to Reconsider Its Action in the Water Board Case.

MAYOR RETURNS THE BILL

Councilman McGovern Insists that This Has the Same Effect Under the Law as if He Had Signed It.

By a vote of seven to three Councilmen Davis and Bridges being absent, the city council at an adjourned meeting Friday morning voted to reconsider its action in passing the McGovern resolution which provided for the appointment of a committee by the mayor which should go to Lincoln and use its efforts to get the law creating the Omaha Water board repealed.

Following the motion to reconsider a motion was made and carried by the same vote placing the McGovern resolution on Tuesday night, was called to order Councilman Berg, who on his feet in a minute and offered a motion providing that the council reconsider its action in passing the resolution. The motion was seconded by Councilman Johnson. McGovern rose to a point of order, contending that Berk's motion was out of order, and that resolution was in the hands of the mayor and that the council had no right to reconsider. Berk contended that at that meeting was an adjourned one and that reason the motion was in order. Brucker ruled in his favor.

Roll Call is Demanded.
A roll call was demanded. Councilmen Hummel, Burmaster and McGovern voted against the measure, and Councilmen Funkhouser, Shildan, Berk, Schroeder, Johnson, Kugel and Brucker voted aye.
Notwithstanding the council voted to reconsider, Councilman McGovern contends that the resolution is in full force and that the action of the council was out of order.
His opinion is shared by many city hall officials, who say the council overstepped its rights. McGovern contends that if the council intended to reverse itself, it should have offered a resolution rescinding the original resolution.

"The council had no right to reconsider this resolution," declared McGovern after the meeting. "And it is in full force for as it was when it was passed. The council overstepped a bet. When Mayor Dahlman failed to sign the resolution or veto it, returned it to the city clerk unsigned, it had the same effect as if he signed it.
The resolution was returned by the mayor Friday morning after the meeting unsigned, which gives the effect of signing it. So the resolution is binding."

McGovern States the Law.
"The law provides that any concurrent resolution must go to the mayor within forty-eight hours from the time it is passed, and the mayor shall then have three days within which to sign or veto it. The law also provides that if the mayor returns a document unsigned within this time, it shall have the same effect as if he signed it. This the mayor did, so he approves the resolution." Mayor Dahlman admits returning the resolution unsigned. He says he did this

Eagles Decide to Erect Aerie Home
on Capitol Avenue

Lodge Votes to Spend Fifty Thousand Dollars on Structure—Site Purchased.

The Eagles will build a club house at Eighteenth street and Capitol avenue. It is proposed to spend between $5,000 and $6,000 on the structure.
Decision to build the club house was reached at a meeting of the aerie Thursday night. A committee was named by Wil-ham Kennedy, worthy president, who will take plans and let the contract for the erection of the building.
The site is on the southwest corner of the street, just opposite Trinity Cathedral.
This property has been owned by the Eagles for some time. The club house project has been tentatively under consideration for about a year.

Balloon Hunting by
"Trig" Successful

Weather Bureau's Sounding Record Located by Expert's Calculations to a Nicety.

The accuracy with which the meteorological experts can determine the height reached by a balloon or the distance it travels has been demonstrated in the instance of the sounding balloon sent up from Fort Omaha on Washington's birthday.
After soaring to a height of fifteen miles it exploded and dropped to earth.
Mr. Sherry, in charge of the meteorological work, stated that the collapsed bag and instrument dropped twenty miles south of Omaha. Returns were received from the balloon Friday showing that it had dropped exactly twenty miles from the place it started.

There was another pretty ascension from Fort Omaha Thursday. From the time the balloon was released it soared for an hour and forty minutes and was at all times in view of the experts who were peering through lenses especially adapted to the purpose. The balloon arose to a height of nearly fifteen miles before it exploded.

Mr. Sherry has nine more balloons in his supply and he expects to have released all of them by Friday or Saturday of next week. This will conclude the meteorological observations here.

STUDENTS' BUSINESS CLINIC

Classes from Boyles College. Visit Wholesale House to study Systems.

The students of Boyles Business college Thursday took the first of a series of excursions into the business district of Omaha.
The 60 students were shown through the John Deere Plow company's wholesale establishment at Ninth and Harney streets, where the successive steps of the business transactions of the house were exemplified through the work of each department.
This is a good way to make Omaha boosters," said F. J. Farrington, assistant manager of the John Deere company, who guided the students through the building.
"These young people will carry the fame of the big Omaha business houses all over the country."

At the close of their visit the students were given copies of a booklet on better farming.
At the wholesale house the students were shown the salesrooms, bookkeeping department, stenographic department, advertising and printing department and other ramifications of the big business system.
The entire field of Omaha's wholesale and manufacturing business will be covered by a series of these excursions.

Argue Motion for Retrial of Townsend

Rush and Olmsted to Go to Lincoln to Present Argument in Land Fraud Case.

Argument on the motion for new trial for George E. Townsend, president of the Western Land and Cattle corporation, convicted of land frauds after a strenuous trial here, will be held by Judge T. E. Munger in United States court at Lincoln Saturday.
Sylvester Rush, special assistant attorney general, and R. H. Olmsted, for the defense, will go to Lincoln to present the arguments.

M'BRIDE THINKS GOOD BILL WILL BE MADE A LAW

Says Sentiment Seems to Favor State and County Highway Features.

George McBride, county surveyor, returned Thursday night from Lincoln, where he was for two days. He met the joint committee on good roads while there and also a subcommittee appointed by the joint committee to draft a progressive road bill, covering the county highway commission and the state highway commission features.
He said there seems to be a sentiment among members of the legislature that a bill drawn on progressive lines will undoubtedly pass.

PURSE SNATCHER GETS BUSY

Robber Seizes Woman's Pocketbook on Eighteenth Street and Escapes with Cash.

The twilight purse snatcher is on the job again.
Mrs. C. White, 544 North Twenty-fourth street, was robbed on Eighteenth street, between Farnam and Douglas streets, at 5 o'clock last night. A man approaching from behind seized her purse containing $11 and ran.

TOO MUCH CREDIT CAUSES
HIS FINANCIAL DOWNFALL

Real Estate Man from Kansas Asks to Be Declared a Bankrupt.

Too much credit appears to have been the cause of Frank J. Quinby's financial downfall. He launched forth in the real estate brokerage business in his home town of Scott City, Kan., and he also tried a whirl at the milling business. Affairs went wrong, and after borrowing to the limit he had not bettered his condition, and was compelled to seek a quieter place to live.
He came to Omaha, and after having established the necessary residence, sought the bankruptcy court. By his attorney, McKenzie, Howell & Cox, he filed a voluntary petition with the clerk of the United States district court today. In the schedule he shows liabilities aggregating $28,100.24, and assets amounting to only $67.50.
The unsecured claims represent largely notes given to western Kansas banks. The name of his father, F. R. Quinby, appears as endorser on most of these, so it seems

Robber Leaves Dime
as Car Fare for Use of His Two Victims

Note from Hand of Thief is Found by Roomers When They Awake.

Carfare and a note of gratitude were left by the burglar who robbed the room of A.
Brockman and R. Morris, 289 Sherman avenue, last night.
Ten cents and a scrap of note paper were left on a chair on which the victims had left their clothes.
The robber took $7 from the clothes of the two men.
"So you won't have to walk down town," said the note. Folded into one corner was a dime.

TO TRY FRATRICIDE FOR SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Police Judge Holds Patrick Griffin to the District Court—Unable to Give Bond.

Murder in the second degree is the charge on which Patrick Griffin, the negro who stabbed his brother to death, will be tried in district court.
Griffin was arraigned in police court Friday morning and bound over. He is unable to give bond.
The prisoner killed his brother at their home, 2511 Patrick avenue, in an argument as to which son was most like his father.

PLAN GOOD FELLOWSHIP FEED

Commercial Club Proposes to Duplicate Big Feast of Last Year on Anniversary.

A second "good fellowship dinner" will be given by the Commercial club on March 27, the anniversary of the big dinner last year.
This decision was reached at a meeting of the entertainment committee of the club held Friday morning.
The dinner program will include but few speakers, while effort will be made to give the affair more of the aspect of an entertainment.
