Mr. Campbell told the governor that $15,000 was shough to organize the work, but every cent of that amount would be needed, that Omaha is spending $15,000 and nually in the same work and the state ought to spend as much as one city. He ought to spend as much as one city. The governor said he was ashamed that Nebrasks did not have a better state exhibit at the Western Land-Products Exhibit recently held in Omaha and he felt hurt when he visited it and saw no more informed that what was shown in space was bought by the Commercial club and Stock Yards company of Omaha and the cases used were paid for by a railroad company which invested the 5000 necessary and then took the exhibit to every other exposition in the country.
