COMMONER STARTS THE TROUBLE Nebraska Objects When Martin is Advanced as Progressive Candidate to Defeat Bailey and Spoils Unanimous Election.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Senator Martin of Virginia, at the democratic senate-caucus, was today selected as permanent caucus chairman and minority leader during the present congress. He received 21 out of the 37 votes cast.

The expected long contest did not develop. Prior to the session the progressive democrats, as the followers of William Jennings Bryan prefer to be designated, met in the office of Senator Owen to discuss the situation. Several found themselves in an embarrassing position because of pledges made many weeks ago that they would support Mr. Martin.

It was decided that the progressives should vote for Senator Newlands of Nevada, as Senators Cullerton of Texas and Stone of Missouri, both declined to become candidates. The plan was changed in the caucus, however, when it was learned that Mr. Shively, who was the vice chairman under the leadership of Senator Money during the last congress, would not object to receiving the complimentary vote of those who would not vote for Mr.
Martin.

Several of the progressives conceded that Senator Martin could not be defeated.
Failure to upset his candidacy was due partly to his having been originally brought out as the candidate of the Bryan following, led by Senator Stone, to prevent the election of either Senator Bailey or Bacon. Most of the senators generally known as the regulars, were opposed by the progressives.

It seemed for a time that Mr. Martin would be elected unopposed, but Mr.
Bryan wanted an out and out progressive named and frankly told some of the new democratic senators that they were throwing away their opportunities.

Mr. Martin was nominated by Senator Clark of Arkansas and Senator Shively by Senator Kern of Indiana, the running mate of Mr. Bryan in the last campaign.

Senator Stone secured the Shively nomination. He then secured the caucus account for the democratic strength except four. Senators Tillman of South Carolina, Terrell of Georgia and Shively were absent because of illness, and Senator Martin did not vote.

The roll call follows:
For Martin—Bain, Clarke, Bankhead, Bryan, of Florida, Chilton, Clarke, Cullerton, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Overman, Paynter, Perry, Rayner, Simmons, Smith of Maryland, Swanson, Taylor, Thornburn, Watson and Williams.

For Shively—Chamberlain, Davis, Gore, Hittcock, Johnson of Maine, Kern, Lee, Martine, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Owen, Pomerehne, Reed, Smith of South Carolina and Stone.

Bryanism in Background.
The fact that the battle had been fought in advance of the caucus enabled the democrats to keep in the background all of the Bryan and anti-Bryan sentiment manifested during the preliminary scrippings.

The friends of Senator Martin decided that inasmuch as they had the votes to elect their candidate, it would be folly to bring that question into the caucus.

The appointment by Chairman Martin of a steering committee, which will also serve as a committee on nominations, was authorized by the caucus. The committee will have to report its program for the filling of vacancies on standing committees to the caucus itself.

Hill Line Pleads Guilty to Violating Appliance Law

Great Northern is Fined Two Hundred Dollars and Costs at Sioux Falls.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., April 7.—(Special.) C. H. Winsor, of this city, attorney for the Great Northern Railway company, appeared before Judge Willard of the United States court and withdrew his answers for the company in two cases instituted against violations of the national safety appliance law. Attorney Winsor confessed the violations for the company and Judge Willard imposed a fine of $200 and costs. This makes several cases of this kind which have been disposed of during the present term of federal court.

The bond of Harry LaRoche, a mixed-blood Sioux Indian living on the Lower Brule reservation, was declared forfeited by Judge Willard through the failure of the defendant to appear at the present term of court for trial. There are two indictments against him, one charging that he fired a shot at another Indian, and the other that he took liquor upon the reservation.
It is expected LaRoche will be arrested within a day or two on a bench warrant.

Fourteen persons, all residents of Gregory, Tripp and Bon Homme counties, appeared before Judge Willard and entered pleas of guilty to indictments charging them with selling liquor to Indians. It was the first offense in each case and each received a sentence of sixty days and a fine of $100 and costs. Those sentenced to confinement in the Minnehaha county jail were: Walter McCarthy, Gene Guertin, Joseph Papusek, Morris Minihan, John Harmsch, George Bruning, John C.
Hays and J. R. Lind. James Ueber was sentenced to the jail at Tyndall, while John Berlinger, Ben Loesel, F. Bluzek, Frank Stanek and John Reinbrecht were sentenced to the Yankton jail. The cases against these defendants were instituted on evidence secured by a special agent of the Indian bureau.

A great deal of the time of the court during the last two days has been taken up with the trial of the case of the United States against Claude Cournoyer, the defendant being charged with the theft of horses on the Rosebud Indian reservation.
An effort was made by the defense to establish an alibi for the defendant.

Mine a Seething Furnace.
One of the men rescued was James Vickers, a fire boss. He reported the position of the mine was a seething furnace.
The roof is falling, the coal is on fire and the timber holding up the roof of the gangway is being eaten away by the flames.
Vickers was overcome by smoke and was found by rescuers, who took him to the mine hospital and revived him with difficulty.

Vickers was carried into the office of the coal company and physicians attended him. He gave it as his opinion that all the men in the mine are dead.

"They perished hours ago," he said. "No one could live in a place like that. The workings are a furnace and are full of smoke."

General Williams
and Band Are Raiding American Ranches

Citizens of United States Appeal to Commanders of American Troops for Protection.

CALExICO, Cal., April 7.—Stanley Williams and his rebel band of eight men stationed at Algodones, a few miles east of Mexicali, began last night a career of raiding and terrorism on the American ranches located in lower California. The lot of the American's band is reported already to amount to more than $100,000.
United States citizens have appealed to the American troops here for help. Williams is said to have been a former quartermaster in the United States army and is charged with desertion. All of his followers are Americans.

MEXICALI, Mexico, April 7.—Reports of the defeat and rout of Simon Berthold and his band of sixty-five rebels at Alamo, Texas, eight miles south of Mexicali on March 28, are confirmed by reports today of the arrival of soldiers in the United States army and is charged with desertion. All of his followers are Americans.

The invasion of the United States by the rebels and the fear of a new invasion has led to the appeal to the American troops for protection. The American troops are reported to be in the vicinity of Mexicali, a short distance from Mexicali, Mexico. The rebels are reported to be

SCRANTON, Pa., April 7.—Fifty men and boys, including two foremen, are imprisoned and in all likelihood dead, as the result of a fire in the Pancost mine in Troop, near here.

Rescuers pushed past the fire late this afternoon and found three bodies. Officials and rescuers say there is no hope of any of the men being alive.

The government rescue crew with oxygen helmets and other equipment is on the ground. There are two openings to the mine, under the law of the state, but the fire is so located that escape has been entirely cut off.

The fire started in the engine room and communicated with a number of dust-covered and oil-soaked mine cars, which burned fiercely. Added to this was the fact that a serious explosion might occur if the flames should reach a pocket of gas.
The rescuers are making slow progress and relief crews are constantly being sent into the mine.

There were 300 men in the mine when the fire started and all escaped except one party which was in a blind gangway beyond the engine house. Two men who were at work in the engine house and who got out reported the imprisonment of a party of their fellow workmen.

Millinery Jobbers
Win Part of Fight

Commission Rules that Regulations of Express Companies for Packing Hats Are Reasonable.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Some of the regulations of express companies relating to the transportation of millinery were held by the Interstate Commerce commission in a decision handed down today to be unreasonable and what were deemed by the commission to be proper regulations were prescribed. The opinion was rendered in the case of the Millinery Jobbers' association against the American Express company and others.

In the complaint the association averred that regulations of the express companies concerning packing of millinery goods for shipment were unreasonable and discriminatory and that they resulted in excessive regulations for shipment.

The express company maintained that the flimsy character of the packing of hats and bonnets resulted frequently in damage and they were forced, therefore, to provide rules for proper packing, largely because of the immense size of women's hats. These packing rules were upheld. Other features were ruled against.

The investigation of the bomb throwing Sunday morning is being prosecuted slowly and with little result. Most of the thirty-seven persons arrested near the scene of the disaster deny, with frightened faces, that they even heard the explosion, which woke all of Juarez, jarred every atom for miles around and rang the bells in the quiet old mission of Guadalupe.

"If it please the senior, jefe politico, I did not hear anything unusual. Explosion?
What explosion?" and thus are all questioned on him to surrender the city and warning him that he will be held responsible for the promulgation of the suspension of guarantees law. A large number of soldiers passed the night on top of the governor's house, others inside and a sentinel stood in front of the door all night, but no one knew how the document arrived.

During the night a federal soldier, stationed on top of Sacred Heart church, rouined from sleep and saw out. "Therefore come," and stepped gun in hand, into fifty feet of space. He has been buried.

EL PASO, Texas, April 7.—(Special Cor-casket on a gun carriage for Manuel Sa-morano, the Mexican hero who lost his life Saturday night when he attempted to extract the fuse from a lighted bomb in a patio Cuidad Juarez. Not a single comrade or officer accompanied him remains to the Juarez cemetery Sunday afternoon.

And when his body was lowered into the yellow earth no trumpet sounded "march" and no flag fluttered downward. The military authorities furnished a plain pine casket—that was all—and when it was time for this to be taken to the cemetery, lounge-rs were requested to help handle it.

Presence of Troops and War Craft at SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 7.—With every foot of the Mexican boundary patrolled by United States troops, while a fleet of war craft of all kinds is operating outside of San Diego harbor, the smuggling of Chinese across the boundary has become a too hazardous undertaking as a result of the military and naval mobilization.

Chinese merchants of San Diego shipped 100 mats of rice by steamer yesterday to Ensenada, the capital of Lower California, where 200 stranded Chinese are on the verge of starvation. Ensenada being a port near the American line, has long been a center of smuggling operations, and the fact that these 200 Asiatics have accumulated there since the order of troops to the boundary to prevent filibustering, illustrates the extent to which these operations are carried on.

Without hope of effecting an entrance to this country in the near future, the Chinese now at Ensenada are in a sorry plight and are appealing to their countrymen in California for assistance.
