Sale of High Grade Oriental Rugs

MONDAY morning we begin a week's sale of high grade Orientals at the lowest prices we ever have offered on these excellent rugs. We make this statement because it is absolutely true—the lowest Oriental prices we ever have made. Certainly, there is a reason for these startling concessions. We must clear our stock rooms for early fall shipments-they are crowded now. We sacrifice profit for space. The rugs are not several seasons old-they include all latest importations in all the most popular colors. A rare assortment of those desirable Belouchistan and Daghestan rugs will be in the sale. It is the opportunity for the June bride to furnish her home inexpensively-the opportunity for you to give the bride a lasting, useful present, or to get a high quality covering for your own home at prices that positively cannot be equaled in any reliable house in the city. Details will be published in The Sunday Bee. Some of the rugs may be viewed in our south window.
