LONDON, June 29.-King George and Queen Mary, accompanied by the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary, today made still another progress through the capital. Although the procession lacked the ceremonial and military display of those of last week, popular interest was undiminished, and from Buckingham palace to the city and back through northeast London, great crowds lined the route and enthusiastically cheered their majestles.

The object of today's procession was to attend the coronation thanksgiving service at St. Paul's and afterward to lunch with the lord mayor and the ceronation at Gulld Hall.

The procession, consisting of carriages with the members of the reval family and chief officers of state and their ladies, was accompanied by the usual picturesque escort. The route was lined by 10,000 troops, each regiment accompanied by its band.

The service at the cathedral was short, out impressive, and was attended by a congregation representing every interest and every branch of the service of the empire; ambassadors, including Ambassador Reid and distinguished visitors.

As on all royal visits to time city, the lord mayor and the sheriffs met the king at Temple Bar and preceded him to St. Paul'a, thence to Guild Hall, and after luncheon there, to the city boundary. Upwards of 700 guests sat down to the luncheon, which was served in the lunch style for which the corporation is famous.

GEORGE SAYS STATE IS FOR TAFT for Burning It. State Treasurer Goes on Record that the President is Making Good, but Husenetter is Not Committed. LINCOLN, Neb., June 29.-(Special.)-Whether Frank A. Shotwell was right in when the matter comes up before the meeting of the Progressive Republican league George is for Taft. they are not well enough informed on the to those alleged to have been engaged to Several of the state officials say that matter to state the attitude of the republicans of Nebraska, but State Treasurer George says that Mr. Shotwell's talk to President Taft was all right.

"Shotwell did just right, I think, in pledging this state to Taft," said he. "Taft will make good in this state and is worthy of the support of his party. This reciprocity usiness will not hurt him in the least. I believe. People as a general rule, are too quick to criticise men in public office and they have done so in President Taft's case with a vengeance. However, sentiment is beginning to go the other way and he is stronger right now in Nebrasks than he ever was. And he will continue to get stronger right along, I anticipate, Taft is the broadest-minded man I ever saw and as a manager of the country's business perhaps has never had an equal. Taft is all right, and I am for him.

"On the other hand," he continued "! doubt if people over this state are willing to put the affairs of the nation in the hands of such uncertain men as La Follette," he concluded.

Husenetter Noncommittal. William Husenetter, chairman of the state central committee and now state oil inspector under Governor Aldrich, said that he desired to make no comments on the matter insofar as a reflection of the popular sentiment was concerned or as far as Attorney Shotwell's action in pledging the state to Taft was concerned.

"All kinds of opinions are suggested to me," said Mr. Husenetter, "and I do not care to deny or justify the position taken by the Omaha man in the matter. I have talked with many republicans in regard to next year's presidential possibilities, and there is sentiment both for Taft and La
