Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, July 19.—A restless stream of bedging sales from the big cash houses carried the market down today despite the news that exports amounted to the remarkable total of 134 car-loads. Closing prices were easy at 340% to 1% c decline. Corn finished %@%c to %@1c down; oats off %@%c to %c and hog products varying from 5c lower to 5e advarice.

Encouraging reports for a good corn crop. continue to flow into the offices of the various railways in the city. More rain was reported in many towns in the state early Wednesday morning, and Kansas reported another good soaking for Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning. Reports from western lowa are for the averbut age corn crop, while more rain is needed badly towards the central parts. Until the recent rains it was feared that corn in the western part of Iowa would be an utter of failure owing to the grasshoppers, but reports received Weanesday morning showed est the moisture to have done away with the pests. The McCook division of the Burlington drew the best making of the day. Oberlin reported four inches of rain at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning with rain still falling. This portion of the division was badly in need of rain and assures the riddance of grasshoppers which had invaded the corn fields. The following towns reported rain Wednesday morning. Nebraska City. Sterling. O'Neill, Norton, Wilsonville, Greeley Center. Sargent. toggen, Edgemont, L. neton, Lafayette. Madrid.

John Briggs Pulls Out of Primary Race for Sheriff's Place

South Omaha Chief of Police Formally Withdraws His Name from Official List.

John Briggs, chief of police of South Imaha, has withdrawn from the primary ace as a candidate for sheriff. He filed his withdrawal with the county clerk Wednesday morning and his name will not go on the primary ticket.

"I have concluded to withdraw my candidacy for the republican nomination for sheriff of Douglas county, in the interest of other South Omaha candidates and the success of the party," says Mr. Briggs. tured by quiet demand. Influence of receipts appeared to be neutral as the run was of moderate pro-portions. About 185 loads arrived in all, tight butcher and bacon grades being more numerous than heavier classes. Shippers purchased less than 10 per cent and a purely speculative outlet was practically lacking. Selections made by shippers con-sisted largely of good bacon enimals. Long strings ranged from 56.3005.40 and
