JOE LOTZ GROWS STRONGER

Pater Familias Rourke's Baby Pitcher Stays Nine Innings.

HIGGINS' GYPSIES DROP GAME Des Moines Puts Up Listless Contest and Apparently the Iowa Boys

Are Not Auxiou to Secure First Honors.

Omaha's kid pitcher, Joe Lotz, won for Hourke by 3 to 1 against Des Moines, after striking out eight men and allowing four Joe had not pitched for over two months and sixty days' energy was stored up in his system. Not only did he go like a whichwind for five innings, which, prior to yesterday, had been his limit, but he went the full nine and at the end was going as good as in the first. It seemed for awhile in the first inning that he would be batted out of the box before the end of the game. but afer passing two men he settlel down and struck out the next two.

The kid pitcher had everything at his command and the way he dropped the Deserters with his mysterious wrinkles was a sight. Not only did Lotz work good, but his support was excellent. Niehoff at third played fine ball and his lightninglike stops at third made it possible for the Rourkes to pull off two double plays in startling rapidity. Kneaves had an off day and made two errors.

Des Moines put up a listless game at the hat and it appeared as if they did not want to win, especially after the second inning, when the Rourkes had garnered three runs. Hersche, who was pitching for the Hopefuls, stuck it out to the end and did his best to pull himself out of the hole, but the home boys had their batting togs on and refused to let up. Thomason again took the honors at the bat by clouting out three hits in four times up. Kneaves also came in for his share of the stick work and in two times up hammered out two doubles. He also put down a clever

It travels in large numbers and wiggles corresponding, but it failed to materialize. Tip O'Neill is of the opinion that Des Moines is on the rocks right when it comes to base ball. Not only has the team left the town, with the refusal to return, but not a single score of the game has been sent to the league from the Des Moines official scorekeeper, according to along the ground like a snake. Being the color of the weeds upon which it feeds, its presence was not noticed by Mr. Miller until the Russian thistles on his farm began to turn black. He then investigated and found that apparently millions of the worms had attacked his farm. They feed upon nearly every sort of weed except pigeon grass, which they refuse to touch, but so far no cultivated plant has been
