CATTLE—Receipts of cattle, as usual on a Saturday, amounted to the next thing to nothing, so that there was really no market. For the week receipts foot up 25.560 head, being almost 2,000 head larger than last week and larger than any recent, week. The market as a whole has been in very satisfactory condition.

Beef steers have been good sellers all the week and the best grades of cornfeds are safely 150250 higher than one week ago, with the general run of fair to pretty decent kinds of killers 100150 higher.

Cows and heifers, owing to the large receipts and to the fact that they were very high as compared to beef steers at the beginning of the week, caused some fluctuation in prices, but at the close of the week values are substantially the same as at the close of last week. Very little cornfed stock is arriving, the buik of the supply consisting of grassers from the range. Totals 4.262 consisting of grassers from the range.

The volume of business doing in stockers and feeders showed a decided increase last week and the trade took on more life and activity than has been the case during most recent weeks. The country demand was good and as a consequence weeks.

good and as a consequence prices are gradually improving, until at the close of the week they are safely 15@25c higher than gradually improving, until at the close of the week ago.

a trifle at the close, movement was anything but active.

Supplies had small volume, amounting to only seventy-two loads, but the size of receipts was completely ignored in buying circles. The better kinds of hogs moved largely on shipping orders, outside purchases giving a total of about sixteen loads, fully 20 per cent of the estimate. Clearance was delayed until well along toward il o'clock.

ance was delayed until well along toward il o'clock.

Range in prices continued wide, choice lights making a lone top of $7.55, while the big bulk of stuff landed at a spread of $7.00\text{T.15}$. The $7.55 limit, it will be noted, is only a dime under yesterday's top, the highest made since January.

During the week runs have been light and a couple of runaway markets resulted. Packers resisted advances on most days, however, and today's break leaves trade that shows only moderate, though uneven, gains. Packing stuff is closing about 100 life above a week ago, while shipping grades range from a dime to a quarter higher. The demand has been broad from outside quarters on all days, about 23 per cent of the total receipts being sent to other points for slausther.

AVIATORS RACE OVER CHICAGO

International Contest Begins for Eighty Thousand in Prizes. EVERY MAN PAID FOR EFFORT

Rules Give Minimum of Two Dollars Minute for All Time He is in the Air in Daily

Flights

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 .- A series of accidents that put three aeroplanes out of commission without injuring their drivers, together with a downcast sky that threatened to develop into a downpour at any minute, did not serve to mar the success of the opening of the International Aviation meet here today.

While no records were broken, the number of aviators participating and the total time spent in the air exceeded the anticipation even of the flyers.

Arthur B. Stone and his mechanic, in a Queen monoplane, suffered the most serious accident, their fall resembling that in which Moisant met his death. The men had risen to a height of forty-five feet when a sudden gust of wind struck the car, and, as Stone attempted a sharp turn, the airship overturned. Both men fell under the aeroplane, but missed the engine and escaped practically unhurt.

Almost immediately afterward Frank C Coffin, by an earthward sweep, struck the monoplane in Which Rene Simon was rising, disabling Simon's car so it could not be used.

The machines driven by St. Croix Johnstone, James V. Martin and Captain Paul W. Beck also sustained injuries while alighting. In no case was the aviator hurt. Incomplete arrangements for handling the aviators and lack of preparation for events necessitated doing away with the program and only a part of the listed to the decision, having been called down by the frantic signals of a judge, who had been told the race had ended. Unofficial estimates gave both the altitude and endurance contest to W. G. Beatty. Owing to the confusion of cars, the judges were unable to keep track of the identity or starting time and at a late hour had been unable to figure the official winners of either. Unofficial timers recorded Beatty as having been in the air two hours and fortyfive minutes and having an altitude of 7.800 feet.

A. L. Weish was second with a total time of two hours and three minutes; C. P. Rodgers was fourth, remaining in the air two hours and one minute. It was reported among the aviators tonight that Lincoln Beachey probably would be disciplined for violation of the association's rules prohibiting taking unnecessary risks. Twice Beachey descended from high altitudes in sharp spirals that brought the occupants of the grandstands to their feet.

dicular and it was feared he would be unable to recover. He also had narrow escapes in the general speed contests when he made a score of trips around the course driving not more than ten feet above the ground.

At one time his car stood nearly perpen-

Repeatedly it was thought the planes had caught on the ground, but each time the car rose in safety. It was after midnight when the judges finally completed their conference and announced the official results of the five events on the afternoon flying program. At that hour the officials announced that both A. L. Welsh and W. G. Beatty had broken the American record for elapsed time in the air while carrying one passen

Stephenson Election Will Be Investigated

Senate Adopts Resolution for Legislative Inquiry Into Alleged Irregularities.

WASINGTON. Aug. 11.-A legislative inquiry into alleged irregularities in the election of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin was directed in a resolution adopted today by the senate. Today's action was sprung suddenly. The senate committee on elections, of which Mr. Dillingham of Vermont is chairman, held a brief meeting and adopted the subommittee's recommendation for an inestigation.

Mr. Dillingham reported his resolution to this effect, with the favorable recomnendation when the senate met. The senate adopted the resolution without iscussion and without division. Later, on account of a technical error in the senate's action, the matter was reconsidered and the resolution referred to the ommittee on contingent expense whose favorable report as to the expenditures called for by the resolution is necessary before it could be adopted. This committee probably will report it back early next

Mrs. Mann, however, is not hopeful of regaining her loss as she believes the money was stolen from her while shopping. She had the money-ten $10 bills-in her handbag, she said, and when she went to pay rome bills she missed it.

AROUND WORLD IN 39 DAYS

Paris Newspaper Man Will Break All-Records if He Continues Without Accident.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 18 .- Andre Jagerschmidt, a representative of the Daily Excelsior of Paris, who set out from France twenty-seven days ago to make a trip around the world in forty-two days. arrived from Japan today on the Empresa of Japan, which made port one day shead of its schedule. The Parisian journalist left Victoria tonight on a special train carrying silk to New York, whence he will complete his tour in thirty-nine days breaking all records. Jagerschmidt left Paris July 17, went to Moscow via Berlin and Warsaw and then took passage by the Transsiberian railroad to Vladivostock, where he caught the Russian steamer Orel for Tsuruga, Japan. This steamer was delayed by storm, and had it not been that Sir Claude MacDonald, British ambassador, allowed him to take passage on a special train for Tokio he would have probably missed connection with the Empress of Japan.

He was stopped by Russian police at Harbin, where he was arrested for taking photographs, but was soon released.

If the bonds for the jail and the furnishing of the new court house are not voted now they will have to be voted later as a necessity, for the new building cannot be used until the board has the money to equip the jail, furnish the buildings and grade down the grounds. A failure to vote the bonds will only postpone the date and cause an unnecessary loss to the taxpayers. They are now paying about $300 per month rent for outside court rooms and offices and a new court house and jall is of no value unless furnished so that it can be used .- Adv.
