WOMEN ENTERTAIN THE VETS

Auxiliary Day at the Camp of the Veterans at Florence.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED W. H. Green is Chosen as President and L. Shipply is Made Treasurer of the Organization-Officers Installed Friday.

Thursday was "Auxiliary day" at the Douglas County Veterans' reunion being held at Camp Tracy, Florence. The women of the auxiliary served dinner to the old vots. It was served in old war fashion. Everybody fell in line, having to make sereral stops on the way before they had their syder on their plates.

he foremoon of the day was taken up by business meeting of the vets, at which officers for the coming year were elected. The following were elected to office: W. H. Green, president; C. Henn. vice president; "Jeff" W. Bedford, junior vice president; T. L. Hall, secretary; L. Shipley, tressurer; C. W. Allen, officer of the day.

A special program was provided for the afternoon and evening by the women. Si Elegg's drum corps headed the program with martial music, after which Mrs. Stephens gave the invocation. Josephine Carroll made a short historical talk, after which a violin solo was played by Viola Stevens followed by a recitation by Letia Toney. The speakers of the afternoon were Mrs. Lillian P. Eddy, department president of the Women's Relief Corps, and Rosalis B. Condon, past department president of the Women's Relief Corps. The program was concluded by a vocal duet by Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Schieb.

The evening program consisted of music by the drum corps, recitation by Mrs. Elliott, vocal solo by Dorthea Stevens. a reading by Mrs. G. H. Schlah, violin sole Worthington, an address by Mr. Green and the singing of "America" by the
