OMAHA LOSES ONE TO DENVER Arbogast's Errors Give Friday Game

to Mountain Grizzlies. LOTZ PLAYS A TIGHT GAME

All Bets Were Off to the Ninth Inning, When the Visitors Made the Circuit for Three Runs

Despite the fact that Joe Lotz put up a marvelous exhibition on the firing line yesterday, allowing but four hits, three of which were in the scratch class, the Mountaineers walked away with the first battle of the series on errors by Arbogast, win ning by a 5 to 1 score.

The Grizzlies started off with a rush and nipped a nice one in the second frame on an infield hit and an error by ArboKearney York

Omaha worked hard to tie up in the seventh. Kneaves opened with a double. Arbegant get to first on an error by Olmstead. Lotz batted into a double, and Kneaves retired the side, trying to steal home. The Mountaineers settled all discussion in the ninth when they made three runs, on an infield hit, a walk and triple. ably assisted by an error.

Lotz Little Marvel. Lotz should have won his game with hands down. His work on the mound was nothing short of marvelous. His benders mystified the Grizzlies, and nine of them were benched by the strike-out route. The youngster's control was almost perfect. and but four of the Colorado Claras walked. Coffey, the big Denver shortstop. who is renowned for his batting abilities. was up but three times during the game and twice hammered the wind. Pick was placed on first, owing to Kane's injury. The little fellow sure put up a stiff game at first, and many times saved the balt from going away by his alertness. Fourteen chances were handled by him without a bobble.

TOWNSENDS RESENT STORZ CLAIM Declare that Defeat Was Not in Practice. The manager of the Townsend ball club resents claims made by the Storz Triumphs team. He has written the following. To the Editor of The Bes: I saw in last night's papers that the Storz Triumphs claim that the first game the Townsends beat them this year was only a practice game and therefore should not be counted as a defeat. This is certainly news to me as I didn't know or don't believe there was any such a thing as practice game.

me as I didn't know or don't believe there was any such a thing as practice game, neither does Frank Quigley, former manager of the Storz Triumphs.

However, if the Storz men want another game, I will gladly give them a date at Rourke Park any time they want it before October 7. I will not play anywhere else, as we are as much entitled to a same at that park as any Mink League club. We had a game scheduled at Rourke Park for July 21, but it was cancelled to play Shenandoah of the Mink league. I can't see where the Storz team can claim the city championship by playing claim the city championship by playing and losing to Mink league clubs, and would therefore suggest that they even up and cancel a Shenandoah game booked for September 3, and play the Townsends. After they have disposed of the Townsends they should play the Americans if they win, and let the results decide who are champions.
