Four Men Sentenced to Hang for Murder Are in Joking Mood

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Four men sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Fred W. Goslow, a truck farmer, joked with each other in their cells in the county jail today. Two others, equally concerned in the murder, but who received life sentences because of their youth, immediately imitated their elders, and with an air of bravado joked about their luck in escaping the gallows. The latter two are only 18 years old. The others, who appear to have little hope of escaping the hangman, range from 19 to 24 years.

PLOTNER CASE TO BE TRIED IN JANUARY

MITCHELL S. D., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—The term of circuit court for this county, ended today after a session of a week, with one or two recesses. The most interesting part of the court session was a hearing when the statutory charge against Luther Plotner and Mrs. Kate Quinn was sent to Womack for trial on January 2. Six divorces were granted during the session.

Simple Prescription Wonderful Kidney and Bladder Cure

The following simple prescription has become famous on account of its remarkable cures in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Get six ounces of good pure gin and add to it one-half ounce Murax Compound and one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu. Take one to two teaspoonfuls of this mixture after each meal and at bed time. It quickly relieves backache, rheumatic pains in the joints, and other well known symptoms which can hardly be mentioned here. The ingredients can be had at any good drug store and are easily obtained. Be sure to use the genuine Murax Compound, which comes in a sealed wooden tube, as a substitute will not give the desired results.

KELLY'S MOTHER ON STAND Parent of Accused Physician Testifies in His Behalf.

TELLS OF ODDITY OF ACTION Would Become Crazed with Fear at Slight Provocation—Bluffs Lawyer Tells of Terror Over Passing Check.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—For the first time in the Kelly murder trial the mother of the defendant told a part of the story of his life to the jury today. She declared he was a model boy, went to Sunday school, was forward in school and graduated from Creighton college before he was 21. It was after he had returned to Council Bluffs to practice two years ago that Mrs. Kelly first knew of the doctor's using liquor. On one occasion she went to the Henshaw hotel in Omaha, where Kelly was in bed sick and had nothing to eat for three days. She had him take a bath and brought him clean clothes and afterward he was brought home. He had sworn at her and accused her of conspiring against him. After he was gone home he became abusive and got up and went out of the house.

On one occasion the mother went with him late at night to his office to get his papers as he declared the officials of the Eagles lodge wanted his papers and would ruin him. Emil Schurz, a Council Bluffs attorney, told of being called to see Kelly and he was nervous and excited and talked about some forged paper he had passed in Omaha. He said he had passed $1,500 of it and named the Merchants hotel and Dr. Forbes. Later Schurz found he had passed a check at the hotel. Kelly was terrifically excited and sure that the officers had surrounded the house and were after him and he begged the attorney to save him.

A large part of the testimony of the day related to what happened in the jail where Kelly was kept. The father and others all insisted Kelly was crazy for two weeks to a month after he was brought there. Court adjourned until Friday morning with the testimony of Mrs. Kelly unfinished.

ONE NIGHT FOR MINISTERS AT BOWLING TOURNAMENT

DES MOINES, Nov. 29.—"Ministers' night" for the Midwestern Bowling tournament, which opens here Saturday, December 2, by President George Strots of the association. The City Ministerial Association recently adopted a resolution endorsing the tournament and the members have signified their intention of attending in a body. Saturday night has been scheduled as "St. Louis night," as ten teams from the Mount City are expected to arrive during the day. Chicago night will be December 3 and Omaha night December 9.

The entries for the tournament have surpassed expectations, seventy-five five-men teams having signified their intention of participating in the tournament.

BRIDE SAVED FROM ICY WATER; HUSBAND DROWNED

SQUID RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—While his bride only a few months married, William Randall was drowned here yesterday when he and Mrs. Randall, who were skating together, broke through the ice. Exerting himself to save his wife, who was accomplished by the efforts of others who saw the accident, Randall so exhausted himself that he could not drag himself from the icy water. The body was recovered soon afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Randall were married September 25.

Pope Gives Berettas to New Cardinals

ROME, Nov. 29.—This afternoon all the new cardinals including the American prelates, Mgrs. Falconio, Farley and O'Connell, went on by train and on their arrival they formed into a procession and preceded and accompanied by the Swiss and noble guards and personages of the papal court, passed through the magnificent halls to the state apartments. The way was lined with guests who had come to pay them homage. The newly created cardinals were then introduced into the presence of the pontiff. Pius X permitted each of the cardinals to kiss his hand and his foot, afterwards imposing on each the red beretta as a first tangible proof of their supreme dignity. The ceremony of today will be followed on Thursday by the great public consistory, during which the red hat will be conferred on them.

TAPT TALKS TO FRENCHEMAN

(Continued from First Page.) eign affairs was brought to the attention of the secretary to the president. Mr. Hillier explained that much surprise had been felt at the White House in finding that a gentleman, the cousin of the French military attaché, coming introduced by the French ambassador, should have thought, without any authorization, to circulate as an interview his recollection of casual remarks made by the president in the course of a hurried conversation. The gentleman in question was one of a large number received during a busy morning and no interview whatever was authorized. Francois de Tessan was understood at the White House to be a cousin of Count de Chambrun, military attaché of the French embassy, and was introduced to the president by Ambassador Jusserand. Count de Chambrun late today, however, declared that the French journalist was no relation of his.

FIRE INSURANCE MEN ARE TO MEET IN PIERRE

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Insurance Commissioner Haasford has called the insurance men and firemen of the state together for December 13 and 20 at this city in a fire prevention congress. Insurance Commissioner Frous of Minnesota will be one of the principal speakers and Mr. Wentworth of Boston will probably be on the program. The dates fixed for the next congressional congress of this state are January 2 to 11, at Sioux Falls. This date has been principally fixed by James J. Hill, as the congress was to meet at dates when he could be present.

Steel Trust Seeks to Show that Stock is Widely Distributed

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Brokerage and banking houses today received a request from the United States Steel corporation for a list of their shareholders. The corporation, it is understood, is seeking to learn the actual number of its shareholders in order to show that steel shares are not concentrated in the hands of the so-called "steel interests," but are distributed all over the world. Thousands of shares are held by individuals in the names of brokerage and banking houses. The corporation's letter says: "We desire to ascertain if possible the number of record stockholders of the United States Steel corporation and the amount of their holdings divided into classes as follows: Number of stockholders of ten shares and under, number of stockholders of 11 to 100 shares inclusive, 101 to 500 shares inclusive, 501 to 1,000 shares inclusive, 1,001 to 5,000 shares inclusive, 5,001 to 15,000 shares inclusive and over 15,000 shares. The brokers are promised that any information they may give will be treated confidentially."

Russia Will Demand Removal of Shuster

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 29.—Russia is about to demand the resignation of W. Morgan Shuster, the American financial adviser to the government of Persia. This demand is contained in the instructions which the foreign office has forwarded to the Russian minister at Teheran, M. Poklewsky-Kostel, concerning the supplementary demands which Russia is making on Persia to recoup it for the cost of sending troops to that country. Great Britain, it is understood, is in accord with Russia in the latter's demand for Mr. Shuster's resignation. The Russian foreign office appreciates the tactful attitude of the American minister at Teheran, Charles W. Russell, throughout the series of incidents culminating in the present demand. The Washington government adhered to the view that Mr. Shuster was at present at Teheran in a private capacity and that the situation did not call for American interference.

Two Indians Are Frozen to Death

ABERDEEN, S. D., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—According to reports reaching here two Indians on the Cheyenne River reservation met death in the recent snowstorm that section of the state. One of the Indians was Ed Porter, who was overcome by the cold while attempting to buy stock. The name of the other Indian is not given.

A white man, a homesteader of Corson county, was caught in a snowstorm, lost his whereabouts and was unconscious and nearly dead when found, but he will recover. He is 57 years of age, and lived alone on a homestead. As his health is not robust the experience he is meeting with this winter are very trying to him.
