Black Powder Case Before High Court

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The attempt of the Kansas legislature in 1907 to proect coal miners by passing a law regslating the sale, delivery and use of black powder in coal mines today came under the scrutiny of the supreme court of the United States.

PROPOSALS FOR ELEVATOR, OFFICE ages of twelve and one-half pounds, was Among other things, the act provided that it should be unlawful for any miner to take into a coal mine black powder except in original packages of twelve and one-half pounds, and prohibited miners rom opening powder cans in a mine with pick or other metal substance or instrument. Another provision of the law was that no powder should be delivered by hauling in any car propelled by an electric motor, unless the car was thoroughty insulated. Grand Championship Won by Iowa School

hibit of Herefords was a feature. Bank Clerk Shoots Himself by Accident

Esmey G. Green of South Omaha, a clerk of the transit department of the United States National bank, accidentally shot himself in the left breast about 6 o'clock last night. He was taken to the Omaha General hospital by directions of Vice President Caldwell of the bank, where Dr. Davis attended lifm. The wound is very serious and the young man's chance for recovery is slight. Green lives with his parents in South Omaha and has been in the employ of the bank for the last six months. Yesierday he brought to his work a revolver. intending to take it to a guarmith to have it repaired. Being detained by his work at the bank, he was too late to get into a gunsmith's shop and so said to a clerk who was working with him that he would try to fix too weapon bitaself. While he was tinkering with it the gun
