

What Women Are Doing in the World

WITH holiday distractions over, the women's organizations are resuming activities. The lull in club life and work caused by the Christmas and New Year festivities and duties is passed and club affairs are in full swing again.

The program of the first meeting of the Omaha Woman's club of the new year, Monday at 2:30 p. m., will be in charge of the forestry committee of which Mrs. William Berry of South Omaha is chairman and Mrs. F. J. Burnett and Mrs. A. D. Bradley members. Professor A. A. Tyler of the biology department of Bellevue college will give an address on "The Proposed Nebraska State Forest Preserve." Professor Tyler is a member of the forestry committee of the Nebraska State Development and Conservation congress and was a delegate from Nebraska to the last national conservation congress.

A musical program will be given on which Mrs. Henry Richmond will sing, Miss Ruth McBride will play the violin and Miss Ruth Wahlstrom will give piano numbers.

At the business session which will precede the program, Mrs. M. D. Cameron, president, will present recommendations of the general federation regarding bills which are before the national congress—the children's federal bureau bill and the health bureau bill. Mrs. Cameron will also call for discussion of certain changes and additions which she recommends to the club for the new year. The club committee which worked with a committee of the Commercial club to gain 9 o'clock Saturday night closing of Omaha stores will report.

Miss Frances Graves will tell the household economics department of the Woman's club Thursday morning, "What Every Housekeeper Ought to Know." Miss Graves has been for many years connected with one of the Omaha wholesale grocery firms and has a thorough knowledge of foods.

"Mediaeval Drama" will be the subject of study at the meeting of the literature department of the Woman's club Wednesday morning. Mrs. Millard Langford, leader, will preside and the following papers will be read: "Development of the Drama Through Religious Service of the Church," Mrs. W. S. Knight; "The Folk Theater of the Middle Ages," Mrs. Henry S. McDonald; "The Emancipation of the Drama From the Church," Mrs. Joseph Polcar.

Considerable dramatic ability is being brought out in the oratory department of the Woman's club this season. The members have gone a step farther than in former years and are acting out dramas instead of merely interpreting them. They have acted under the direction of their leader, Miss Fitch, "The Sunken Bell," "Paola and Francesca" and "The Piper." At the meeting Tuesday morning in Miss Fitch's studio they will give "The Romanians," which was planned for last week, but postponed. At the meeting following they will give "Sister Beatrice."

Mrs. Anna Lasear-Allen will interpret Browne's "Every Woman" at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Metropolitan. This is the sixth of the series of dramatic interpretations which Mrs. Allen is giving under the auspices of Miss Lillian Fitch and the Woman's club.

The first bulletin of the series to be issued this year by the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs instead of the year book of former years has been sent out by Mrs. T. J. Gist of Falls City, state federation president. It gives a list of the newly-appointed committees.

There are a number of Omaha women on the state committees—Mrs. R. E. McKelvey is chairman of the civics committee, Mrs. M. D. Cameron is chairman of the program committee, Mrs. J. T. Johnston is a member of the civil service reform committee, Miss Euphemia Johnson, principal of Brownell Hall, education committee, Mrs. Katherine R. J. Edholm, health, Miss May Hiale, literature, and Mrs. Hilleck Rose, legislative. Mrs. F. H. Cole is chairman of the scholarship trust, the advisory committee of which numbers among its members Bishop A. L. Williams and Rev. D. E. Jenkins, president of the Omaha university.

Mrs. Gist also has sent in the bulletin a message from the General Federation president, Mrs. Philip Moore, saying that the history committee and the board of the General Federation have arranged to publish the history of the General Federation through the Norwood press, Reliance building, 22 Union square, New York, and asks federated clubs to send their year books or printed lists of officers to Norman Smith of the Press in order that the history may be sent to federation members.

The Dundee Woman's club will study "Fembrace" by Mary E. Wilkins, at its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Selby. Mrs. H. B. Randall will be the leader. Mrs. George Chaitner will report current topics.

The Benson Woman's club held a short memorial service at its meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Searson for Mrs. H. L. Rivett, who died two weeks ago.

The Imogene club of Florence is agitating the question of establishing a public library in its city. The women of this study club wish the matter to be voted on by the city council next spring.

"Paper Bag Cookery" will be the chief subject of discussion at the meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the public library of the household economics department of the South Omaha Century Literature club. Days have been distributed to the members and they will report the results obtained in cooking it. "Fireless Cooking" is the subject of a paper which will be read by Mrs. Bruce McCullough. Mrs. E. B. Brown will have a paper on "The Casserole."

A January Bride

MISS ROSE FRUHWIRTH, Who is to wed Mr. William D. McCurdy.

The Bee's Wedding Book

January 7, 1880—Athan B. Clark of Omaha and Miss Ida Frank of Cleveland, O., were married at Newport, Ky. The ceremony being performed by Rev. James Patterson of Omaha. Mr. Clark is the son of J. T. Clark, who was at that time assistant general superintendent of the Union Pacific. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at the Palmer house in Chicago.

January 7, 1896—Mr. Charles A. Harvey and Miss Jeannette Duryea were united in matrimony by Rev. J. T. Duryea, the bride's father, pastor of the First Congregational church. It was a charming "home wedding." Mr. Robert Harvey of Chicago was best man and Miss Mary Duryea served as the bridesmaid.

January 7, 1891—Mr. G. L. Stonehill and Miss Etta Newman were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Caesar, as an Historical Personage.

The series of lectures being given by Prof. Paul A. Grumann of the University of Nebraska in the auditorium of the Young Women's Christian association came to a stop during the holidays, but will be resumed this week. Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock the lecture in German mythology will be on "The Eddas" and "Voluspas." Prof. Grumann will begin Monday his interpretations of Wagner's "Niblung Ring," giving the "Rielgold," the first of the tetralogy.

"Classical Art and its Relationship to Music," the second lecture of the trilogy on music and art being given by Henry P. Eames under the auspices of the Society of Fine Arts and the Tuesday Morning Musical club, will be presented Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the Young Women's Christian association.

The University Extension club is at present without a leader. Mrs. Elizabeth Seavick, who organized the club, is engaged with other interests and the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Sears, has given up her leadership on account of business. At the meeting Tuesday evening in the Omaha Commercial college building, there will be a discussion of the further work of the club. The program will also be given as scheduled. History will be the general topic. Papers will be read on "Short History of the Jews," "Government of Ancient Peoples," "The Legendary Story of Rome" and "Greek Institutions."

The program committee of the Story Teller's league of which Miss Emma Roselley is chairman is preparing the year books for 1912 and expects to have them ready for the first meeting of the new year, January 18.

The Mothers' Self-Culture club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the Westminster Presbyterian church. The lesson will be on "What Every Mother Should Know." Each member will bring an extra woman to the meeting the purpose being to enlarge the membership of the club.

The Mothers' Culture club expects to get out its year book of study for 1912 in a few days. Mrs. G. E. Mickel heads the committee which is working on it.

Stereopticon views of historic spots in America will be shown at the meeting of the Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday at 2:25 p. m. in the lecture room of the public library. The lecture on the pictures will be given by Mrs. John W. Griffith, Mrs. Charles Johannes and Miss Mary Sumner. The Major Isaac Sadler chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be guests of the Omaha chapter and will substitute this meeting for their regular January session.

The Daughters of the Confederacy are preparing to celebrate the birthday of the great confederate general, Robert E. Lee, January 19 at the home of Mrs. Bernard Kohn.

Appropos of the cold weather, the Wythe Story Teller's league will have stories of the northland told at its meeting Thursday afternoon at 4:15 in the public library. Those who will tell stories are Miss Mary Kohn, Miss Ida Crowell and Miss Holsko. This club of teachers and mothers banded together for the purpose of promoting suitable story literature for children, follows the seasons in its work. After the cold weather stories will come patriotic stories in February, when the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln

Old Man Winter Has Whipped Father Time

Old man Winter put a crimp in Father Time yesterday and today; that is, he did it stopping the city clocks in putting a crimp in Father Time. Outdoor clocks of Omaha stores had resisted the extreme cold up to last night, but several then gave up the fight. The big clock on the Siles & Moser cigar store corner, Fifteenth and Farnam streets, snowballed at 8:05 o'clock last night, and a short time later the outdoor clock on the Wood building, Eighteenth and Farnam streets, ceased to run. From that time on clock after clock in the city stopped. Today there probably are a dozen outdoor clocks that are out of commission because of the cold.

Railroads Getting a Big Ice Harvest

While the cold has interfered with some lines of railroad business, it has been a boost for others. It has put received into the ice harvest. Right now the Omaha roads are working close to 2,000 men on the ice, hauling in the neighborhood of 5,000 tons per day. The Union Pacific is hauling fifteen-inch ice at Grand Island, Dutchberg, North Platte, Laramie and Green River. The Burlington has a big force at Ashland and at other places about the Platte, where twelve to eighteenth inch ice is being taken out for the ice houses along the Nebraska lines. The Northwestern at Long Pine has made its first cutting and is now harvesting ice that is about twice inches in thickness.

Three New Stores for Harney Street

G. C. Redick will remodel the quarters at Fifteenth and Harney, recently vacated by John P. Morrison, who has moved his billiard and saloon business one block east. The ground floor will be converted into three stores and a floor will be put in on a level with Morrison's old gallery, making two stories. This will pass the old place that has been the scene of many hotly contested billiard matches and the favorite rendezvous of such billiard sports as Billy Rice, Harry Shinnis, Judge Redick, Judge Crawford, W. H. Chambers, Colonel L. A. Welch and Dr. Sumner. Mr. Redick says the trails will be made strong enough to carry six stories and some day the building may be extended four stories higher into the air.

Ad Wolgast's Motor Runs Down Man

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 6.—George Bauer, aged 30 years, was seriously hurt early today in an automobile smashup, which resulted in the arrest of Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast, on a charge of reckless driving. Bauer was hit by the speeding motor car when it ran into his house moving outfit. The automobile turned turtle and one of Jones' companions was pinned under it, but not seriously hurt. A fourth member of the party, who escaped in the darkness, was reported to have been Ad Wolgast, but this was denied, it being stated that the fighter had not been out of the house since he escaped a threatened attack of pneumonia. The "Kurtzman" has been selected!

Famous singers prefer to have their accompaniments rendered on a worthy piano—able accompanists are at their best with an instrument worthy of their efforts.

Thus, the "Kurtzman" piano has been chosen for the "Madame Gerville Reache" Recital, to be held at The First M. E. Church, Tuesday Evening, January Ninth.

Mme Gerville Reache

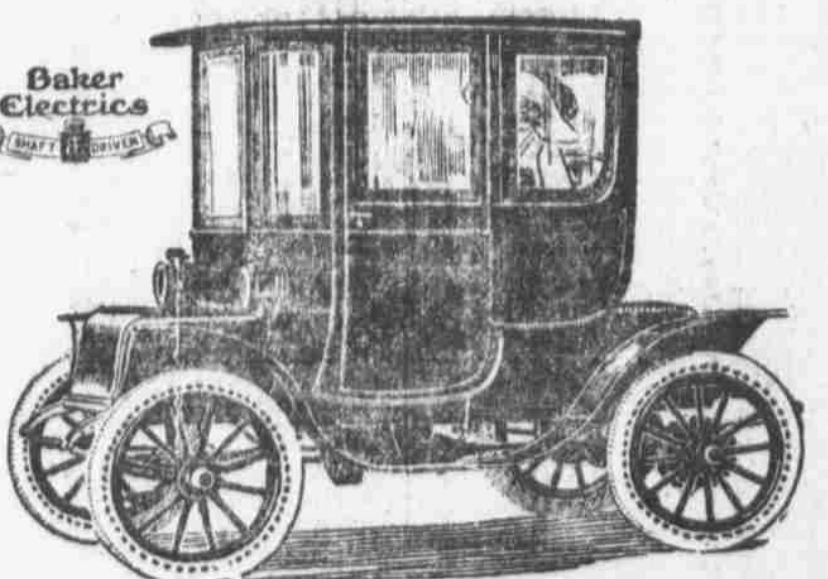

Prima donna contralto, and the "Kurtzman" Piano form a musical combination far out of the ordinary

The "Kurtzman" Piano is sold in Omaha and surrounding territory, only by the—

The Quietest of All Electrics

—the quietest of all motor cars—is the Baker. This is significant, for noise indicates friction, and friction means wasted power. The power developed by the Baker motor is not used to overcome friction, but to turn the wheels. Hence its unmatched mileage radius.
