PENFOLD DECIDES TO LEAVE

Secretary of the Ak-Sar-Ben Governors Resigns Place.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN WEST

Will Become Associated With Panama-California Exposition to be Held in San Diego for Period of Year.

H. J. Penfold, for many years secretary and member of the board of governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, has resigned these positions to become associated with the Panama-California exposition, to be held in San Diego, Cal., for one year, beginning January 1, 1912.

The resignation was accepted with regret by the board of governors at a meeting last night.

Mr. Penfold's resignation will become effective on June 1, when he will go to Chula Vista, a suburb of San Diego, which has been his family home for more than a year.

Chairman C. T. Kousser of the finance committee reported that an indebtedness of $10,000 for necessary repairs on the "Den" last year must be met and that funds must be raised to meet expenses for the parade at the fall festival this year. It was agreed to issue subscription cards and call upon merchants for subscriptions to meet these financial demands.

The festival week will be September 16 to October 5. Features of the week will be an elaborate manufacturers' parade on Tuesday afternoon, an electrical parade on Wednesday night and a rose battle parade on Thursday afternoon.

Motherhood

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Fails to Sign Bid Award is Held Up

Failure of the Offerman Plumbing and Construction company to sign its bid, although it was accompanied by a certified check, caused the council last night to postpone the awarding of the contract for the construction of the Saddle creek sewer between California and Harney streets until Friday afternoon.

The Offerman company bid $6,600 on the job, while the James Jensen company bid $11,000. The latter bid was the lowest signed bid, but the Offerman company went word to the council that it was its bid which was opened and found unsigned. The award will be made after discussion Friday afternoon.

The list of judges and clerks of election for next Tuesday, appointed by Mayor Dahlgren and sent to the council, was not approved. Councilman Funkhouser moved that the approval be made at the meeting this morning. An amendment to the motion was made that the approval be made last night, but on vote the amendment was lost. The council will not approve the list this morning, but will take a recess until 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, at which time the names will be gone over by the council.

OF HEALTH ARE DIVIDED

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., May 1.—(Special.)—The board of secretaries of the State Board of Health is reported to have divided two on each side in a report on the Omaha medical branch of the state university and the medical college at State university.

The secretaries were in session yesterday and a portion of today and after making up their report for the Board of Health, of which the governor is chairman, adjourned without giving out the result of their labors.

It is known, however, that two of the secretaries signed a favorable report on these two institutions to the board and that two signed a report which in some manner was adverse, though they refuse to give out the substance of the reports and the secretary of the board was likewise uncommunicative.

The members are even more secretive than usual in this case in regard to their doings, and it is broadly hinted by parties interested in the colleges that the whole matter is a result of differences among the secretaries over schools of medical practice. These differences have in the past repeatedly led to lack of harmony and charges of unfairness and the refusal to give out the findings, while admitting the facts of a divided report, has revived this talk.

Under the law it now is the duty of the board to pass on the qualifications of medical schools.

At the Theaters

ATTRACTIONS IN OMAHA.

American "Lieutenant Red Head." Gayety. Burlesque. Orpheum. Vandeville. Matinee today at the Gayety, Krug and Orpheum theaters.

"The Players" at the Brandeis. "The Adventure of Lady Ursula," a drama in four acts by Anthony Hope; direction of Miss Fitch. Cast: The Earl of Hasensden... Sidney Powell Sir George Sylvester... Rex Morehouse Rev. Mr. Climboe... George McIntyre Mr. Dent... Walter Crunden Mr. Castleton... William Taylor Mr. Ward... Homer Conant Sir Robert Clifford... Mr. Lord Quillon... Mr. Hamilton Mills... Mr. Joyce Mrs. Fenton, aunt to Dorothy Fenton... Miss Louise McPherson Dorothy Fenton, betrothed to Lord Hasensden... Mrs. Henry Doory

Well staged, well costumed, well played. "The Adventure of Lady Ursula," given by the Players' club at the Brandeis theater last night before a large audience made up principally of society folk, was the best of the three plays recently put on by the club. The cast was excellently arranged and the whole staged and produced in fine fashion by Miss Lillian Fitch.

As is usual with the well proportioned talent in the Players' club, none starred other than by the will of the playwright. And the playwright, in this case, was the whimsical and serious, Anthony Hope. Naturally he gave the starring to the holder of the title role, which was gracefully and meritoriously carried last night by Pretty Mrs. Henry Doory.

Through her personality as well by the charming reading of the lines, she held the interest and amused her audience throughout. As a loving sister who went out to save her brother from a duel, and as one who inadvertently but surely won the heart of a knight, she easily gained the good will of her audience.

Sidney Powell, with his stage experience, handled his lines most adroitly. As the Earl of Hasensden, brother of Lady Ursula, and the fiancé of Dorothy Fenton, he carried well a role well balanced for dignity and real human tenderness.

Miss Louise McPherson, as the dominating aunt of Dorothy Fenton, was in a character quite foreign to those of her last appearance in the Players' club productions, in which she again was successful in displaying versatility.

Miss Mary Ringwalt was captivating as the girlish Dorothy Fenton. She moved about with an ease that greatly helped to hold the story of the play directly before the audience.

Rex Morehouse also scored with a role appropriate to his physique and personality. He was Sir George Sylvester, with whom the Lady Ursula fell in love, and in that character comported himself in a way that was far from depreciated by the house.

A very able support was offered by George McIntyre, Walter Crunden, William Taylor, Homer Conant, Mr. Lord, Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Joyce.

being disappointed. The engagement will be for three days, with a matinee on Saturday.

Getting away from the usual methods of farce comedy work, Mr. Perkins and the Woodward company at the American are proving that farce calls for a high degree of talent when properly presented. And that is why the present engagement is proving a success. It is because the actors understand that serious work is required of them, rather than horseplay, and that each bit of business must be tactfully and purposely done in order to produce the effect. If you really want to spend a pleasant evening, go over to the American tonight and see this company present "Lieutenant Red Head," the bill for the week. The next matinee will be on Thursday afternoon.

Pouchot's Ballet, at the Orpheum this week, shows six young women dressed in fancy lights flying through the air with the grace and agility of birds. They form all kinds of artistic figures in their flight. The most unique part of their performance, however, is the liberating of sixty snow-white pigeons that fly about the stage and over the heads of the audience. The birds are beautifully trained, having been taught the art of posing by Miss Baumer and her assistants.

Next week the chief feature of the Orpheum bill is grand opera, which will be given by the Romany Opera company, an organization of talented singers. The name of their production is "La Festa di Mezz'Agosto." The music of the opera is by such composers as Leon Cavallo and Funckhüll.

"As sweet as a nut; as clean as a whistle" are the two truths that apply to "The College Girls," the closing extravaganza of the regular season at the popular Gayety. Starting this afternoon and continuing throughout the week, Julius Raab, the "round-the-world pedestrian," will give a descriptive lecture on his travels, adventures and the object of his 50,000-mile hike. He has already worn out 43 pairs of shoes. Tonight the Omaha and Des Moines base ball clubs will occupy box seats as the guests of the management. Ladies' matinee daily.

One of the delights of the "Jardin de Paris" show at the Krug this week is Miss Dixie Emmette, who performs in the olio, co-operating with Ray Leavitt and Win Clark in a singing act. Miss Emmette is a South Dakota girl and has been on the stage only a short time. The current Krug attraction to predict that she soon will be out of burlesque. Her song number at the Krug this week is one of the big hits of the show and is going so well in all the cities that Miss Emmette probably soon will get into vaudeville. Miss Emmette is graceful, pretty and winsome, qualities that go for a great deal in making a stage success.

KEARNEY CITY COUNCIL GRANTS SALOON LICENSES

KEARNEY, Neb., May 1.—(Special.)—By a vote of 5 to 2 saloon licenses were granted tonight by the Kearney city council for the coming year, serious objection to but one of the applicants being raised. License to but two drug stores were granted, that being the extent of the applications. Bonds were accepted from all to whom licenses were granted.

One thousand five hundred dollars was immediately transferred from the license receipts to the city cemetery fund, to park a new ten-acre plot and install two large cement reservoirs for water storage to be used in springing during times of drought.

The council also placed St. Luke's hospital, the Episcopal hospital under the supervision of Bishop George A. Beshefer, on the free list, the municipal water plant furnishing water to it free of charge. The same courtesy was extended to the home of the Salvation Army.

Strike of Engineers is Averted by Signing of Arbitration Pact

NEW YORK, May 1.—The threatened strike of engineers of the fifty railroads east of Chicago was averted tonight by the signing of an arbitration agreement between the two committees representing the railroads and the engineers.

The arbitration committee will consist of seven members, one from the railroads, one from the engineers and the other five to be appointed by the two. If the two fail to agree on the five umpires, Chief Justice White, Commissioner of Labor Neil and Judge Knapp will be asked to make the appointments.

Fireman is Dropped from Ladder Company

Axel Rostin, a fireman with hook and ladder company No. 1, has disappeared, not only from his room, but from the fire station. He was last seen Sunday night. As the result of his absence from duty he was dropped from the fire department rolls last night at the weekly fire and police board meeting. Friends of Rostin think that he was probably hurt and while out of his head may have left Omaha.

Frank Simons, who runs a drug store at 704 North Sixteenth street, was granted a Druggist's permit to sell liquors. The board denied the application of the Walnut Hill pharmacy. This is the second time the board has rejected their petition. The first refusal was because the police raided the place once, though the case was never prosecuted.
