Manager Arbognat Clouts Out Home Bun, Bringing in Team Mates -Sioux Pinch Hitters

Omaha took the last game of the series from the Sloux City Indians yesterday in old-time slugfest, in which the Rourkes got only a wee bit the best of the argument. The score was 8 to 6. Slaughter was pitching for Sloux City and Rhodes for the Rourkes. The home team managed to whack our twelve real live hits off the Sloux City twirler, while the Indians hammered Rhodes to every corner of the park for a total of eleven safe ones. Five Manager Arbogast in the second inning after Niehoff had gone to second on a hit to center. two-base hits were made and one home hit to center.

Sloux City fought a beautiful uphill game and but for two errors in the seventh inning the game might still be in progress. The wily Sloux came back in the eighth inning and with the aid of four timely swats and a wild pitch by Harry Hicks, who went in to curb the onshaught, slipped three men across the platter. Manager Andreas sent in French and Orendorff in an attempt to bein the game, but Hicks refused to alwin the game, but Hicks refused to allow a hit, though he walked French and hit Meyers with the ball.

of the greatest cathedral builded by medern civilization. The cornerstone of that temple is Plymouth Rock. The Declaration of Independence and our matchless constitution are imbedded in the foundations thereof. The superstructure has been reared block by block with many years of toil by true patriotic and ablo statesmen. Within its wall every man may come to worship the one living and true God in such fashion as his fathers did or his conscience dictates. Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant, barbarian, Scythian, bond and free, kneel side by side in the sacred calm. In the outer shadow of its walls are clustered schools and colleges without number where the sons of the millionaire and of the peddler from New York's crowded east side alike may attain the highest scholarship. Near at hand are the marks of trade where the heir of the financier and the offspring of the day laborer side by side without other limitation than those fixed by the personal capacity of each, contend for the prizes of fortunes. Stretching to the western horizon are thousand thousand millions of acres where the descenddamnation. Republican Leaders Denounced. "Too long has the country endured the offenses of the leaders of a party which once knew greatness. Too long have we been blind to the bacchanal of corruption. Too long have we listlessly watched The time has come when the salvation of the country demands the destruction of the leaders of a debauched party and the resoration to place and power of cessingly war against corruption in politics, who will enforce the law against both rich and poor and who will treat guilt as personal and punish it accord-

"For their crimes against American citizenship the present leaders of the republican party should be destroyed.

"For the lavish waste of the public funds; for the fraudulent disposition of the people's domain and for their contribution toward the division of the people into classes they should be destroyed. "For the effort to seize for the executive department of the federal government powers rightfully belonging to the states they should be destroyed.

"All destruction will be theirs, this the very year, if we but do our duty.

"What is our duty? To think alike as to men and measures? Impossible, even for our great party. There is not a reactionary among us. All democrats are progressive, but it is inevitably human that we shall not all agree that in a single highway is found the only road to progress or each make the same man of all our worthy candidates his first

"It is possible, however, and it is our duty to put aside all selfishness, to consent cheerfully that the majority shall speak for each of us and to march out of this convention shoulder to shoulder intoning the praises of our chosen leader -and that will be his due, whichever the honoracle and able men now claiming
