PLANS FOR TAFT CAMPAIGN

Hilles to Be Chairman and Reynolds Secretary of Committee.

PUBLIC STATEMENT IS ISSUED

Committeemen Not Inclined to Consider the Third Party Movement with Any Degree of Seriousness.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The campaign for the re-election of President Taft will be formally launched tomorrow in New York. James B. Reynolds, of Massachusetts, today named as secretary of the republican national committee, and C. D. Hilles, president of the Taft's secretary, selected for chairman of the national committee, will help sell the political ship.

Mr. Hilles issued a statement tonight declaring the confidence of the republican party in its cause and its candidates. It follows:

"The republican party approaches the presidential campaign with confidence in the solemnity of its cause and in the integrity and ability of the candidates who represent that cause. Progress with America is a good doctrine for the republican party today as it has been since the day of its birth.

"Real progressiveness is not a theory, but an achievement. No American citizen should be deceived into an exchange of his birthright for a vision. The progress of the nation toward better things does not come from declamation, but from actual results. More has been accomplished in the last three years under the administration of President Taft, than ever before in the history of the country. The same time, one platform is an earnest of the future progress through a record of achievements; the other is a promise containing a denial of the good that has been done.

The Two Parties.

"Upon the solid rock of the rights of the individual, as granted by the constitution, the republican party builds its structure of optimism.

"The democratic party, on the other hand, in the opening sentence of its address to the electorate, betrays its recession quality by denying the right of congress, a right again and again confirmed by the supreme court, to establish protective duties for the benefit of American industries. It declares as false the vital issues of the constitutional liberties of the individual. Such liberties are now assailed by those who advocate the overthrow of the independence of the judiciary. It would leave the individual defenseless in the protection of those rights declared inalienable under the constitution."

The subcommittee of the national committee announced the selection of Mr. Hilles and Mr. Reynolds today after a half-hour session with President Taft at the White House and a few minutes in conference in a downtown hotel. Both men were chosen unanimously. The members of the subcommittee expressed the belief that its decision was the best possible and declared there was no reason to doubt that republicans would find Hilles an admirable captain. President Taft was plainly pleased with the committee's choice and members of his cabinet spoke of Mr. Hilles in terms of praise.

The subcommittee adjourned until July 12, when it will meet in New York. At that meeting it is probable that an advisory committee of five men and probably an executive committee of eight or ten will be announced.

Organize Taft Campaign.

Mr. Hilles' other leaders were hopeful tonight that the treasurer would be named at the next meeting. All the members of the subcommittee left Washington after the chairmanship was settled, but some stayed long enough for short conferences. They proceeded to organize Mr. Taft's campaign undisturbed by the report that a number of progressive republicans were going to circulate petitions to ask him to withdraw from the ticket.

None of the committee members regarded that movement seriously, in view of the fact that it was being proposed entirely by men who had lost out at Chicago. They admitted that the campaign would be bitterly fought, but among them there were many expressions of confidence in the re-election of Mr. Taft. The ease with which the subcommittee buried its differences and unanimously named Mr. Hilles was pointed out by them as an indication of how the leaders expect republicans everywhere to get together and work for the president.

"Mr. Hilles was the unanimous choice of all," said William Barnes, Jr., of New York, who had been considered for the place. "We thrashed the matter over and everyone agreed that Hilles was the best man that could be selected. A great many felt he would be of invaluable service to the party. He is a secretary, a position he has filled with great credit to himself, but the republican party needs his services to lead the forces to victory in November. His selection will meet with the approval of republicans everywhere."

Charles B. Warren of Michigan, member of the sub-committee, said the selection of Hilles would give general satisfaction, especially throughout the west.

"The west wants a man who is progressive in his ideas," Warren said, "and not hostile to any of the proposed legislation. We have such a man in Hilles. He has been in close touch with the party leaders from all over the country for all over the country and knows the conditions. I predict he will make a successful political general. He is a high class man, and the republican party is to be congratulated upon securing him for its leader."

Iowa Retailers Denounce Fraud

IOWA CITY, Ia., July 10.—Retail show dealers of Iowa, at their annual convention which closed here today, adopted resolutions endorsing legislation to prohibit fraudulent advertising.

F. L. Wilson, of Washington, was re-elected president and T. M. Need, of Atlantic, secretary. The next meeting will be held at Fort Dodge.

PEACE AGAIN IN THE SADDLE

Teachers Expunge the Record and the War Comes to an End.

STIRRING TIME IN CONVENTION

Charges that Mrs. Young Adopted Improper Methods to Secure Her Election Are Finally Disposed of and Dropped.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Open charges that at the convention at Boston two years ago, when Mrs. Ella Flagg Young of Chicago was elected president, the rolls were "stuffed," that teachers were enrolled as active members credited from Chicago schools, when they lived in other states; and that their dues were paid by Chicago principals to insure more votes for Mrs. Young, were voted upon by the national association today. The board of directors adopted unanimously a resolution that all references to the charges should be "expunged from the records, without impugning the motives or impeaching the character of any one."

It was the intention that the whole subject should be wiped out of future discussion, and speeches were made that "the utmost harmony now prevails in the association" and it was the sense of the meeting that no conscious wrong entered into the election of Mrs. Young. At the same time it was declared Secretary Irwin Shepard, who made the charges, was not guilty of any misstatements when he referred to the violation of certain technicalities at the Boston election.

Pearse Starts Trouble.

The charges started when President Carroll G. Pearse criticized the report of Secretary Shepard. Mrs. Young had said if the association approved of the secretary's report "every teacher in Chicago would be justified in suing the association for slander."

Secretary Shepard today submitted a written reply in which he attempted to sustain his charges. He asserted that before the Boston convention, the organization known as the Chicago Principals' club set out to promote Mrs. Young's candidacy. He charged that many persons were enrolled as active members, credited from Chicago schools, when in fact they lived in other states and were not connected with Chicago schools. He quoted letters sent from Milwaukee and New Orleans in which persons, whose names were withheld, professed to have been paid by Chicago teachers for going as active members and voting for Mrs. Young. Eighty-six votes were thus secured, he said.

As soon as Mr. Shepard had read his charges, a dozen Chicago teachers secured the floor, demanding to reply to what they called "charges of dishonesty, dishonor and fraud."

"In all these charges let us bear in mind," said John W. Cook, Dekalb, Ill. "that there is no intention to impute that Mrs. Young, an honored member of this organization, had any knowledge of the alleged wrong."

Mrs. Young took the floor. "From the discussion," she said, "it would appear that I had been longed for the honor of being president. I just want to say that when I was asked, in January, 1910, to become a candidate for president, I did not think the name of the first woman to head this organization would be dragged in the mud."

William B. Owen, principal of the Chicago Teacher college; Miss Ida Mighell, and Etta G. Gee, Chicago school principals, all declared they had been active in supporting Mrs. Young. They asserted that it had been customary to organize in promoting a candidate; that the Chicago teachers did furnish some money to pay the dues of active members and that some of the active members thus made did live in other states. They denied, however, that the members were credited to Chicago schools, saying that without any intention of committing a fraud they wrote on their application that the volume of proceedings to which each member was entitled should be sent to Chicago schools. This they said, led to the charge that they had given false addresses.

One teacher in Massachusetts said Miss Mighell had ordered her volume of proceedings to be sent to Chicago.

"Would anybody pretend a woman would say she was teaching a school in Chicago while living in Massachusetts?" Miss Mighell asked.

It was finally agreed by both sides that the discussion should cease. James B. Reynolds, of Massachusetts, proposed the subject be expunged from the records. John R. Kirke, president of the state normal school at Kirksville, Mo., seconded the motion. The vote was unanimous. The election of officers is to take place tomorrow and the selection of the meeting place for next year on Thursday.

President Edmund J. James of the University of Illinois advocated the establishment of a national university at Washington on the theory that "in a free state education is fundamentally a national function."

M'PHERSON RELEASES GIRL

Federal Judge Grants Request in Habeas Corpus Case.

WOMAN IS THE CHIEF WITNESS

Government, Losing Prosecution of Saloon Man at Des Moines on a White Slave Charge, Would Deport Girl.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, July 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Miss Krawna, a Lithuanian girl, ordered deported to Russia by the Department of Commerce and Labor will not have to go back Judge McPherson acted on the application for habeas corpus by ordering the girl's release. The girl was the prosecuting witness in the case of the government against Adam Simmons, saloon keeper charged with violating the white slave traffic act.

Simmons was cleared by the jury and the immigration authorities began the attempt to deport.

Judge McPherson, in his opinion on his ruling, said the girl would far better be allowed to stay in this country than sent back, where she would be apt to fall into a life of lowest shame in the city of Hamburg, without funds 600 miles from Lithuania.

Show Railroad Assessment High.

T. A. Polys, tax commissioner of the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha railroad, presented today to the state executive council an elaborate showing of the relation between the assessment and value of the property in the counties of northwestern Iowa through which the railroad runs. He was able to show, in brief, that if the company was assessed on the same basis as other property, it would have an assessment of about $2,000,000 instead of $400,000.

The express companies commenced their hearing today before the state assessing board.

Given to Drake University.

A. U. Coates has given a 225-acre farm to Drake university. Mr. Coates is a noted public worker and at one time was a candidate for governor. The farm, which is located near Dexter, Ia., was given to the university last week and the board of trustees, after investigating the property, accepted the offer and the deal will be closed this week. The property is valued at $15 per acre.

After Delinquent Corporations.

The attorney general today started after the delinquent corporations to make them pay the corporation tax with penalties. The penalties now amount to about $60 for each corporation, and nearly a hundred failed to make their reports last year.

Injured When Roof Fell.

A peculiar accident happened here today to four workmen engaged in tearing down an old building. The roof fell in and they were buried in the debris. J. W. Meeder, who was completely covered, was most seriously injured and suffered bad bruises.

Ray Kinney, an electrician, was seriously burned when he fell on a hot stove at a restaurant. He was doing some work in the kitchen and fell full upon the range, his left leg and arm being much injured.

Appointed as Administrator.

Thomas C. Hanley, cousin of George and James Hanley, who were killed a week ago in an auto accident near Geneva, Ill., was appointed administrator of the estate in place of Simon Cassidy, Des Moines banker. Cassidy was appointed several days ago on application of a cousin, but other relatives appeared before McHenry Monday and asked for the change. Cassidy resigned. The new administrator has been required to furnish bonds to the amount of $80,000.
