Independent telephones are still rapidly being removed from homes and business places in the territory of the Independent Telephone company of Omaha since the sale of that company to the Bell by the receiver. It is understood that a number of the hotels in the city had long term contracts with the automatic people service, extending in some cases to as much as ten years hence.

Those who held such contracts began to wonder what would become of the agreement if the Independent exchange went out of service altogether. President Yost of the Nebraska Bell system says United States Army he anticipates no trouble arising out of such contracts if there be any, as he says those who hold them will be only too glad to give them up when everybody

The new buildings are of twenty-ohe rooms each,

Express Companies Say New Rate Would Not Cover Expense

NEW YORK, July 16.-The express rates prescribed in the report of the Interstate Commerce commission on express companies will not produce enough revenue to cover the cost of business according to a statement issued today after a meeting of express company offi cials in this city. In support of this contention it was announced that the companies would prepare statements showing what the proposed rates would produce on business actually done. It was also announced that the companies would adopt the suggestions and directions of the commission in regard to "regulation and practices."

The statement, which was given out as coming from "all the express panies," follows in part:

"The report of the commission relate o rates and practices of the express companies. The vital thing to the companies is the question of rates. The report recommends a basis of express rates on a sone system which is entirely new, totally replacing the present basis of rate and tariffs.

"Fortunately the commission has given the express companies until October 9 to show whether the proposed rates should be adopted. The companies will meanwhile prepare statements showing what the proposed rates would produc on business actually done, which information could not have been known here tofore by either the commission or the rates is one that will be decided judiclously by the commission in October. The companies are not anticipating any final action by the commission that will be destructive.

"Unfortunately, the question of rates has been up to this time complicated in the investigation with that of regulations and practices, which the managers of the companies have been as desirous of changing as the commission itself."

AVIATOR GORED TO DEATH

Hubert Latham Killed by Wild Buffalo in French Sudan.

WAS NOTED AS A MONOPLANIST

Made Several Trips to Africa and India in Search of Big Game-Attended Aero Meets in United States.

PARIS, July 16 .- Hubert Latham, the amous Angio-French airman and one of the pioneers of heavier-than-air aviation, was killed by a wild buffalo yester day during a hunt in the French Sudan. The governor general of French Equatorial Africa, Martial Henri Merlin, in telegraphing the news today to the minister of the colonies, says Latham was out with a number of natives in the forest when he shot and wounded a buffalo, which immediately charged and gored him to death.

Latham's death occurred in the Char river, near the Bahr Es Salamat, practically in the center of the French Sudan, in the direction of Lake Chad. The date of the fatality was June 7.

Hubert Lathan, who was the first aviator to make any notable flights in a monoplane, the Antoinette, acquired fame as a very young man. In February, 1905, in company with his cousin, Jacques Faure, he made a balloon trip across the English channel, voyaging from the Crystal palace, London, to the gates of Paris in six hours. On July 19, 1909, he made an unsuccessful a tempt to cross the channel in a monoplane, which was considered a most daring feat at that time. He fell into the sea, owning to his motor breaking down and on his second attempt in the same month a similar fate met him.

Had Many Accomplishments. Lathan was also renowned as a daring motor boat man.

He was a spendid shot and in 1905 went elephant hunting in the Sudan. In 1906 he made a trip from Khortoum to Abyssinis, then passed through British East Africa and visited India and French Indo China.

On his last and fatal hunting trip, he left Bordeaux on December 29 last year for the Congo, taking with him a mono plane and a big game outfit.

Lathan was 20 years of age, having be born in Paris in 1883, of English parents. In October, 1910, Lathan arrived in New York from Europe with the Prench team, which was to take part in the aviation meet at Belmont Park, where he was placed fourth in the international aviation race. He later went to Baltimore where he made several flights and won $3,500 in prises. Thence he went to San Francisco and Los Angeles, making flights at both places and narrowly escaping death on two occasions while flying. From the west coast he sailed for the orient and made a long tour in

The Omaha Provisional Battalion of the National Guard is to be incorporated for $5,000 in order to secure better business administration and also to insure getting the armory back into better shape. The battalion suffered consider able loss in the fire at the armory some time ago and it is up to the men of the battallon to replace what is lost or do without some of the equipment and con veniences they had arranged for themselves before the fire.

Lieutenant Colonel Bachr of the bat talion says the men chose the incorporation method of handling their business rather than to resort to circulating a subscription list to raise the necessary money. Articles of incorporation are being drawn up which will be submitted to the proper state authorities and the incorporation is to be pushed. The stock is to be divided into two parts. Preferred stock is to be sold to the amount of $2,500 and this will be guaranteed to pay 5 percent. The $2,500 of common stock is to be carried by the men of the battalion themselves. The stock is to be guaranteed by the revenue derived state holds a long term lease on the armory, and allows the battalion to sublease the rooms and collect the revenue therefrom.

The corporation will guarantee to pay back the $2,500 received for the preferred stock within three years. In the meantime it is to pay 5 per cent interest When the fire occurred in the armory some time ago the battalion lost improvements it had installed to amount of some $2,200 which was not covered by insurance. Cotton Mills Close as Result of Strike

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 16 .-Iwelve New Bedford cotton mills, employing 18,000 operatives were closed tonight "for an indefinite period" as a result of the strike of weavers and loom fixers which went into effect today. The loom fixers went out in sympathy with the weavers, as did also the twisters and moothers. A notice posted by some of the milie announcing a proposed new system of grading cloth to determine the pay of the weavers was the direct cause of the strike. The weavers said that unless the notice was removed by Saturday noon they would not report today. Secretary William O. Devoll of the New
