SCHIPKE SCORES FROM SECOND

Fast Playing from the Start, and for Six Innings it Looked Like a Shutont for Wichits.

Eddie Allen, Omaha's new outfielder, won for Omaha the second game of the series with Wichite in the ninth loning with a drive to left with Skipper Bill Schipke on second. Score: Omaha, 2; Wichita, 1.

After one man was down and Johnson on third the Skipper got to first by virtue of an error in the ninth, and second when Johnson was caught off third. Two men were out when Allen came to bat and visions of extra innings had visited the hearts of the fans. Just when things looked over. Allen caught the ball square on the nose and slammed it to fair territory, while Skipper Bill rushed across the platter.

The game was almost a repetition of the preceding one. It was a pitchers' duel, with little Harry Hicks in great shape. He had the Jobbers falling all over themselves trying to fathom his wrinkles, but there was nothing doing Five hits were all the little fellow would give and he wrifted nine of the Wichita Perry kept his hits well scattered, bu the first linning a double, a single and a sacrifice scored the first run. The Jobbers tied it in the seventh on a single, a steal and two errors. An error and a hit won the game in the ninth.

Hard Work in Eighth.

It looked like "good-night" for Omaha in the ninth, but Harry Hicks pulled himself out of a bad hole. Pettigrew opened with a double, Hughes sacrificed. Middleton beat out a bunt and then stole second. With one down and second and third populated, Hicks worked hard. A pop-up behind second by Davis was speared by Coyle, and then Callahan cent a hard one to Niehoff, who fielded it serfectly, but threw it bad to Kane. The ster dropped the ball, but picked it up ist in time to save the game.

Justice opened the first for the Rourkes with a double to right. Coyle sacrificed. Thomason best out a bunt, while Justice

Callahan started with a single in the seventh. Westerzil landed safe when he forced Callahan at second. Westerzil. stole second, went to third when Johnso threw wild to second to catch him, and scored on Mee's bunt, which was booted by Hicks
