Reformation by Compensation Illustrated by Switzerland

James H. Moody in Town and Garden.

Many great reforms which would be of inestimable benefit to the human race are often interfered with and made impossible by well meaning extremists.

A wiser and more conservative member of the club suggested that men engaged in the growing and manufacture of tobacco should be compensated for stock on hand, buildings and the machinery used in the business.

On a subject of this nature, we can learn wisdom from the staunch little republic of Switzerland, which recently abolished the sale and manufacture of alcohol within its borders.

This humane method of dealing with something which had been judged as detrimental to the community has much to commend it.

If the abolition of the manufacture and sale of alcohol were a benefit to the entire population of Switzerland, it was only just and right that the entire population should bear the cost.

The general assembly of the Swiss confederacy made the following provisions for carrying out the federal law of June 24, 1909, for the prohibition of alcohol:

The owners and tenants (farmers of lands on which alcohol had been cultivated for the purpose of distillation were entitled to partial indemnity to the extent that they were affected by the prohibition law.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., July 21.—(Special)—The promoters of the new third party in Iowa confidently predict an attendance of six or seven hundred delegates to their state convention here next week.

The county conventions yesterday were fairly well attended. In some counties no convention were held, but in many of them there was a fair turnout of men for the selection of delegates who will come to Des Moines to help in organizing a new party.

The second annual convention of the master painters of Iowa, which meets in Des Moines, July 23, 24, 25 and 26, promises to be the best gathering of master painters ever held in the state.

Because there are 25,000 Bohemians in Iowa, and because the number is increasing, the State Board of Education has decided to teach the Bohemian language in the state university.

In the future Miss Anna Hayberger of Cedar Rapids will be the instructor. Woman Has No Opposition. Miss Blanche Stoddard, nominated at the republican primaries for the office of superintendent of schools of Hardin county, will have easy sailing at the November election.

Some admirers among the democrats placed her name on their ticket and she will therefore be the candidate of both the republicans and democrats.

The following delegates were selected to attend the state convention at Des Moines: Frank Luxford, N. Nielsen, H. C. Hale, Joseph Furm, George Walmer, W. M. Bomberger and H. V. Yackey.

NEWCASTLE Boosters Make Tour. NEWCASTLE, Ia., July 21.—(Special)—Twenty-five automobiles carrying 10 Newcastle boosters visited Ponca, Martinsburg, Waterbury, Allan, Concord, Dixon and Laurel Thursday.

A stop was made at Allan, where the Newcastle ball team defeated the Allan boys, 3 to 2.

Several selections were rendered by the band and the journey was then continued as originally planned.

The trip was made to advertise a Three-day picnic to be held here August 3-5.

Iowa News Notes. HARLAN, Ia., July 21.—(Special)—Harlan has been selling stock food and infectants here, and who left town without settling his bill for board.

He was arrested in Manning, and brought to this city by Officer Doherty.

He was taken before Judge Dunaway, who sentenced him to eight days in the county jail.

HARLAN—J. B. Galbreath, an old time resident of Harlan and an engineer in the employ of the Rock Island railroad company for the last forty years, died suddenly at the home of a relative near Hartford, Mich.

DEMOCRATIC FIGHT IN PROSPECT. A big fight is in prospect at the democratic state convention at Cedar Rapids this week.

It will be a contest for control of the party machinery, largely in view of the hope of the democrat that the second large estate in this city to be incorporated will be that of H. De Vere Thompson, plans for which have just been made.

The estate will be placed in a trust corporation that cannot be divided for 99 years and the heirs will have shares in the estate.

There are two sons, who have lately come into possession of the entire estate of the late O. H. Perkins, their uncle, worth at least a half million dollars, and this will be included. The other estate is that of F. M. Hubbell, which has been managed as a corporation for a number of years, but a part of the Thompson wealth is included in the Hubbell corporation.

Will Go After the Democrats. Dr. Margaret Clarke of Waterloo and Rev. Mary Safford of this city will go to Cedar Rapids next week to attend the democratic state convention and work for a suffrage plank in the democratic platform.

The republican state convention and the editorial convention both swung over to the "Votes for Women" idea. It now remains to win the democrat.

By the very nature of their professed beliefs the democrats should favor suffrage," said Rev. Mary Safford today. "We are hoping they will be true democrats as their name signifies."

It was pointed out that the difficulties which confront the new party are of another nature, consisting rather in putting a national organization on its feet in such a short period, especially in states where there is a lack of capable leaders.

George L. Record, who came here today from New Jersey; Charles H. Thompson from Vermont; Herbert Knox Smith, former commissioner of corporations, from Connecticut; and John H. Maginnis and Colonel Thomas Daugherty from Mississippi denied that there was anything in the nature of a break in the new party's ranks.

Only Two Conditions. "I want ex-democrats and ex-republicans alike," Colonel Roosevelt said. He added the new party must enter into an agreement with the republican organization under which it would bind itself to support electors who would vote for President Taft should he obtain the larger popular vote.

The only other restriction he would impose, he said, would be that in no case must support be thrown to state candidates who would not support the national progressive electors.

In our conference with Colonel Roosevelt," he said, "we decided not to endorse candidates for state office who would not support Roosevelt electors. It in doubt how the movement would fare in his halliway."

M. Thompson, who is New England manager for the new party, said he was also decided that all over New England candidates for electors would be run independently.

Convention to Last Three Days. CHICAGO, July 20.—Three, possibly four, days will be the duration of the third party convention to open in Chicago on August 5, according to details decided at Roosevelt headquarters today.

The ticket will provide for four days, but it is expected all the work will be completed within three days.

The tickets are to be distributed with a preference shown toward applicants who will have contributed money toward the expenses. It is figured by the Roosevelt leaders that almost the entire cost of $25,000 for expenses may be paid by the sale of tickets. The press seats probably will be assigned on Monday.

George F. Porter, chairman of the committee on hall, today said the arrangements for the convention in the Coliseum will be the same as those at the republican convention, as the seats, platform and special exits from the press tables to the telegraph rooms remain intact.

Young Man's Brief Career AS SON OF A MILLIONAIRE CHICAGO, July 21.—Representing himself to be a son of United States Senator Guggenheim of Colorado, Fred H. Lennox, 22 year old, a draughtsman from Buffalo, N. Y., led the life of a millionaire for two days at a fashionable Chicago hotel.

Lennox came to Chicago last Thursday and registered under the name of O. Guggenheim. After being in the city a few hours he purchased an automobile, applying a check in payment.

He employed a chauffeur and rode about the boulevards and parks until today, when a representative of the company from whom he had purchased the automobile conferred with the manager of the hotel and the young man was required to settle his accounts. He failed to do so and his arrest followed.

Culls from the Wire Premier Aquith returned to London from Dublin.

It was announced in New York that the strike of the longshoremen was ended.

The Southern hotel, the oldest place of its kind in St. Louis, and one of the best known in America, will close its doors August 1.

HARLAN REPUBLICANS SPLIT

Two Sets of Delegates Elected to the State Convention.

Delegates Will Vote Against Any Endorsement of Taft or Roosevelt—Hamilton County is for Roosevelt.

ALMA, Neb., July 21.—(Special)—The republicans of Harlan county met in convention at Orleans Saturday. After calling the convention to order Chairman B. E. Clapton, with ten other Orleans delegates, walked out and proceeded to select delegates favorable to Taft to the state convention, while the remaining delegates proceeded to organize and elected seven delegates instructed to favor Roosevelt, as follows: J. W. Bash, J. F. Morgan, R. C. Houlihan, J. F. David, Sanford Richards, A. V. Shaffer and Charles Reed.

The names of the Taft delegates were not given out. However, it is evident that there will be a contest for seats in the state convention from Harlan county. The resolutions adopted favored a set of electors pledged to abide by the vote of the people on their choice between Taft and Roosevelt.

Folk County Against Endorsements. OSCEOLA, Neb., July 21.—(Special)—The Folk county republican county convention met in Osceola Friday. Four precincts in the county were represented. Hon. E. L. King, delegate to the Chicago convention, was chairman, and in his address deplored the condition of affairs in the national convention, but also took a strong stand against a third party or Roosevelt movement.

He acknowledged that many republicans would refuse to support Taft, but counseled all remaining in the party and fighting out their differences in the future.

Hon. C. H. Morrill of Lincoln, upon request of the chairman, addressed the gathering. His entire talk was along the line of holding to the Taft ticket, venturing the idea that the present trouble would soon blow over and that the organization could only be maintained by permitting the majority to rule.

The committee on resolutions cut out the plank commending the delegates to the Chicago convention and as finally adopted the resolutions contain no reference to national matters, except an endorsement of the record of Congressmen Charles H. Sloan. Delegates were selected as follows: Liberty Clark, J. W. Ballesner, Dr. A. M. Post, L. H. Headstrom, E. L. King, H. H. Campbell, Ed Larson and George W. Hendrickson. These delegates will vote unanimously against taking any action in the endorsement of either Taft or Roosevelt.
