WOODMEN ARE HERE TODAY

Will Pitch Their Camp at Krug Park for Rest of Week.

DRILLS HELD EACH EVENING

Strict Regulations Will Be Observed All Through the Camp-Public Initiation Exercises Will

Be Held.

As the various companies of the Woodmen of the World arrive in Omaha today for the encampment of District No. 1, uniform rank, they will proceed at once to Krug Park where the encampment is to be held. They have their instructions as to how to reach the park and are to go there at once to be assigned quarters in the tents. The tents are now being pitched in the park, so that all will be in readiness when the various companies arrive. About 250 or 300 are expected. The encampment is to last until next Sunday. The tents will be just inside the entrance of Krug Park. The camp regulations will be in strict accord with military regulations, reveille and taps will regulate the conduct of the woodmen, and daily drills with the axes will be held. General Yates will not be able to take command of the camp Is he cannot be in the city. C. L. Mather. pelonel anl adjutant general, has been assigned to the command in place General Yates.

Competitive Drills.

During Friday and Saturday afternoon there will be competitive field drills. The best drilled men selected from the various companines by the competitive drills, will on Saturday afternoon engage in a competitive individual drill. There will be three prizes, each a gold medal. Regular army officers are to be the judges of the various competitive drills. First, second and third prizes will also be awarded on discipline. Judges will be employed to keep a general eye on the comparative conduct of the various companies throughout the encampment and the prizes will be awarded to those whose deportment is found to be best. Three gold medals are also offered as prizes for the three men doing the best guard duty. In addition to the ribbons offered for the frield drills, a free trip to the national encampment next year is to be given to the two best drilled companies.

Following the dress parade Saturday ming there is to be a parade through streets of Benson by the entire bation of Woodmen. Then comes the pubinitiation of 300 candidates in the woods in the north part of the park. This will be the first time the degrees have ever been conferred in public. When the 300 men have been initiated the Woodmen Circle, the ladies' auxillary of the Woodmen, will hold a public nitiation also.

There will be a dress parade every vening at 8 o'clock, this hour being selected in order that the public might have an opportunity to witness it. The encampment includes companies from the territory embracing Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and the two Dakotas.

Street Railway Traffic Increases

According to the statement of the street railway company, read to the city countoday, the company carried 531,636 engers in the month of June, 528,097 n May and 486,542 in April.

Total receipts of the company for the three months was $472,843.46, occupation taxes in the sum of $14,175.30 being paid on that amount.

GREAT WESTERN OFFICIALS MAKING FRIENDLY CALLS

The Great Western has inaugurated what is termed a "Station to Station Visit," something said to be new and original in railroading. It was the idea of General Manager Slifer, who accompanied by General Freight Agent Townsend and General Passenger Agent Craig, do the visiting.

The visiting is now being done and will imply calling upon the business men in the cities and towns along the line and getting acquainted. Their calls are friendly and strictly informal. They travel on a special train and go and come as they please. When they reach a town of getting out of the rear end of the observation car and looking down the track, they leave their cars and go town. There they call on the butcher, the baker, the merchant and the banker make themselves at home. They talk shop and rates to some extent, but luring the calls, they talk about the babies, the gardens, the conditions in the respective towns and everything that is of interest. In fact, they make themseives feel at home and get right down on the same plane as the men whom they are visiting. These officials will be in Omaha sometime during August and will probably remain here a couple

FRENCH DRY CLEANING PLANT GETS INJUNCTION

Permanent injunction restraining the French Dry Cleaning Syndicate from further use of the word combination "French dry cleaning" was issued in district court on application of W. S. Rothery, prorietor of the "French Dry Cleaning"

Several weeks ago Rothery started innction suits against the French Dry Cleaning Syndicate and other clothes aning concerns asking that they be enoined from using the words. Rothery ontended he was the first to use these words to designate his cleaning works and by their use his competitors were getting business that was intended for im. The other suits have not been adated, but the rulings probably will

Contractors flocked to the health department and the legal department to the per cent of condition 72. find out what was going to be done, as fear is entertained there will be no money to pay them. Also there are contracts to be let in which the men now employed at the hospital are interested. "You'll get your money all right," said Dr. Connell, "for we will pay you out of the $10,000." He said he had held a conference with W. J. Connell, attorney, and Assistant City Attorney Lambert and that it was the opinion that the money for repairs and remodeling the home could be taken from the $10,000.

Mr. Lambert said he held to his original opinion that no part of the $10,000 could be used for anything but maintaining the hospital after it was completed. Dr. Connell says the hospital may be

When the hospital is ready it will be under the supervision of the city health officers, says Dr. Connell, and it is the opinion there ought not to be a superintendent or any outside doctor in charge, as the expense would not be justified. This hospital will accommodate fifty persons when finished. Dr. Connell beleves that a superintendent in direct charge of the hospital all the time would have little work to do as the majority of the cases handled will be in charge of 'family doctors' and those not so cared for will be given assistance by city phy-

Fifty-Five Million Bushels.

ONE-SEVENTH OF THIS COUNTRY

Reports Show that Corn is Now Somewhat in Noed of Rain-Wheat Acreage is Increased.

The Burlington's statistical department figures the winter wheat crop of Neoraska this year is going to be close to high water mark.

Last year the yield was 38,500,000 bushels. Last year the condition the middle of July was placed at 58 per cent. This year the increased acreage is 740,000 and

According to the last estimate of the some of them have not been paid, and government made on the wheat crop of the United States the yield was placed at 358,000,000 bushels. In the event this is reasonably correct and the yield of Nebraska is near the estimate it places the state up in the front ranks, growing more than one-seventh of the wheat raised in Uncle Sam's domain.

The latest report relative to corn is not quite so optimistic as that of the latter part of last week. Sunday and Monday high winds prevailed over a large portion of the state. While they were not of the burning kind they were sufficiently strong to draw the moisture from the ground and cause the blades of the growing grain to curl and wither to some extent. In some localities in the extreme opened in September about the time the west and of the state corn is beginning | next few days.

Success of Farming Depends on Women, Says Canada Expert

"Not in years have the prospects for good crops been so pleasing as they are now." was the declaration of George M. Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture for the province of Alberta, & guest of the Commercial club.

"In all the states I have visited," said he, "I have found conditions about as they are in Nebraska, and I look for a ecord yield.

Harcourt is making a tour of the states to extend invitations to the governors and farmers to attend the seventh annual dry farming congress, to be held at Lethbridge, Alberta, October 21 to 26. He is member of the board of governors of the congress.

"The success of farming depends upon women," Harcourt declares. Unless the work in the farm house is satisfactory and unless the farmer's wife is contented with her work the fermer's work is in vain. With the mothers must begin the work of educating the children so that farm life will be congenial to them. They must be taught the love of nature and life upon the farm that will keep them there. Realizing all this, a congress for farm women will be held in conjunction. some of the most noted rural home nurses, sanitation experts, domestic science, garden and poultry experts have ccepted invitations to participate." While in Omaha Mr. Harcourt was taken over the city in an automobile.

Peddlers Protest on Weight Measure

J. M. Macfarland, representing sixty peddlers, appeared before the city council yesterday to protest against the passage of an ordinance providing that all articles must be sold by weight.
