MANY MURPHIES MURDERED

Established to Death by the Bushel as a Sacrifice to Cleanliness.

MAKES AN IDEAL PEN WIPER

Amateur Statisticians Figures Out that Hotels in Omaha Assassinate Twenty-Five Bushels Each Month.

If the ruthless murder of potatoes by means of repeated stabs with ink-covered pens could be stopped in Omaha as well as in other cities, the price of potatoes at least might not have soared quite so high last winter, and at the present time they might sell for at least a nickel a bushel cheaper.

In the hotels of Omaha alone an average of twenty-five bushels of potatoes are thus destroyed each month. It is this way: Hotel people have long ago discovered that a potato has certain properties that make it a desirable cushion into which to jab the pen when the guests have registered. It is soft enough so that it does not injure the pen point, and has a certain acid or other property that in a measure keeps the pen clean and free from rust. Some hotels still keep the socket near the ink well filled with bird shot for this purpose, but many hotel clerks now hold that this is a vulgar and out of date scheme as the shot often clings to the pen and when a drummer in great haste to register yanks the pen over the pages of the register the shot drops off and makes a very unsightly blot.

Layman Does Some Figuring.

Thus it is that the much beloved and costly potato has come to be regularly sacrificed for the sake of clean hotel registers. There are fifty-eight hotels in Omaha. The bureau of statistics in the state of Nebraska is so fully managed that it has as yet no record of the number of fine mealy "spuds" that are slain by the pen in these hotels. Yet a layman may do a little figuring. Granting that eight of these fifty-eight hotels are still so benighted as to use bird shot instead of the more elegant potato, there are still left fifty hotels using "Murphies."

Fred Dembarst, clerk of the Iler Grand hotel, is authority for the statement that these potatoes are changed twice a day. Two potatoes are always put in the sockets at a time. Four potatoes are used in a day at every hotel. The size of the socket is such that the potato that

MOVIES ORDINANCE PASSED

Will Not Affect the Controversy at Twenty-Third and Davenport.

PROTESTS CLOSING STREET

Uplike Objects to Dodge Street Being Closed to Traffic—Glade Wants Pay for Chicken Drawn.

The movies ordinance forbidding moving picture theaters to locate within 20 feet of a church or school was passed by the city council yesterday.

This ordinance will be of no retroactive and will therefore be not available to the members of the Swedish church at Twenty-third and Davenport; streets, who were the principal factors in securing its adoption.

It will prevent the establishment of such a theater at Fortlet and Cuming streets near St. Cecilia's church, the pastor of which joined in the protest against the encroachment of the movies.

Commissioner Butler suggested an amendment to include hospital as well

WAKEFIELD BOOSTERS MAKE TOUR

Twenty-five automobiles all loaded with Wakefield boosters left on a trip this morning for the purpose of advertising the Wakefield carnival and baseball tournament to be held August 23 and 24. During the trip Alton, Concord, Dixon, Laurel, Wayne, Wisner, Pender, Thurston and Emerson will be visited. The members of the Commercial club making the trip were all dressed in white uniforms and a band was taken along to furnish music.

WAKEFIELD BOOSTERS MAKE TOUR

When for a long period last winter potatoes were worth $1.25 per bushel, the hotels thus butchered $125 worth of them per month, or at the rate of $95 worth per year. Even this does not see statistics in the making. Here is a good starting point for any commission appointed to look into the causes of the high cost of living, be that commission bull moose, Wilsonite or straight republican.

REPUBLICANS PROGRESSIVE

So Declares Bull Moose Booster in Regard to Nebraska Conditions.

BURBANK MAY SEEK OFFICE

Says He Considers Running for Congress on the Bull Moose Ticket Against Howard Baldridge.

Byron G. Burbank, his friends are saying will be a candidate on the bull moose ticket for congressman from the Second District. Mr. Burbank himself admits that "he has the matter under consideration," but has not decided.

Colonel John O. Tetter, chief of the bull moose, is strongly opposed to anything like this. He advises republicans to vote the entire ticket in Nebraska straight.

Howard Baldridge, republican candidate for congress from the Second District, meets the approval of Colonel Tetter "because he is progressive."

"In fact," said the colonel, "the republican party in Nebraska is progressive and we should unite on the ticket from top to bottom.

"I am for the bull moose party in other states, but for the republican party in this state. The republican party in this state is progressive and its convention was in their control. We should be satisfied. Only those drunk with power would attempt to do more and it would weaken progressive strength to attempt to carry out a wider program."

Conroy C. Calloway.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Fairbury C. Calloway died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Calloway, two miles northwest of Fairbury after an extended illness. The deceased was born near Fairbury in 1852 and was raised in this county. About eight years ago he took a position as locomotive engineer on the Union Pacific running between Sidney, Neb., and Cheyenne. Five years ago he was married to Miss Bertha Henderson of this city. To this union, two children were born. For the past two years he has traveled extensively in the hopes of recuperating his health. Funeral services were held from the home Thursday.
