East to Be Scoured for Carnival Shows

D. J. O'Brien, chairman of the amusement committee of the Ak-Sar-Ben is to leave tonight for Chicago, Indianapolis, Dayton, O.; Columbus, O., and other points with instructions to pick up all the good shows he can get in contact with for Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben week. The committee met at the Henshaw hotel at noon yesterday. The committee is more determined than ever to have nothing but first-class shows on the grounds this year. There is a great demand for concessions and indications are that the grounds will be crowded. Shows that have already secured concessions are the Dog, pony and monkey show; aquatic show, Wonderland, Creation, Sahara, Nymphs, Wild Animals, Bohemian glass blowers, School Days, 3 in 1, Crazy house, Arabian theater, deep sea monster, Yodelville, Plantation show, Great Novel exhibit and shooting galleries and merry-go-rounds.
