MAGIC CITY DAY AT FAIR

People of Packerstown Flock to Lincoln Exposition.

RAIN SPOILS AUTO RIDES

Five Hundred Make Trip on Trains and Attend When Parade of Prize Winning Stock is Given.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The attendance at the state fair yesterday did not quite reach the Thursday high water mark, and in consequence the management hoped today would show an increase which will enable the fair of 1912 to exceed in attendance that of 1911. The attendance Thursday was 37,323. Last year it was 33,811. This means that South Omaha day, which is today, will have to swell to something like 13,000 to enable the management to fly the biggest attendance flag.

A change in the rules which have hitherto been in force, wherein exhibitors could take away their exhibits at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, was changed this year to 10 o'clock in the evening. This change has met with some opposition from exhibitors who live out in the western part of the state, who like to get their exhibits home before Saturday night, and a request was made of Superintendent James of the agricultural department to allow them to take out their exhibits at the usual hour.

Aviator Champion was unable to make more than one flight yesterday on account of the high wind which prevailed all day and, wishing not to disappoint the crowd, he took chances at 7 o'clock in the evening and made a twenty-minute flight.

Want New Hall.

The state board held a meeting yesterday and decided to ask the next legislature for an appropriation for a new agricultural hall. The present hall is a very old affair and not suited to the needs of the association nor the best interests of the exhibitors. Counties are taking more interest each year, and on account of the crowded condition of the present hall each year something will have to be done to help out the man who wishes to exhibit the resources of agricultural Nebraska.

President I. W. Haws, Secretary W. R. Mellor, C. H. Rudge, Peter Youngers and Joseph Roberts were selected to attend the national association of fairs in Chicago the coming winter, while Mr. Haws and Mr. Mellor will represent the Nebraska association at the Missouri and Illinois state fairs this month.

Today is South Omaha day. A fine rain fell last night and while the grounds were a little muddy, the warm sun had dried up things by noon and the addition of a light breeze made a most ideal day for the fair. It was thought that the rain might interfere with the South Omaha people who had planned on coming in automobiles, and such proved to be the case, but about 500 took the train route and attended anyhow.

This morning the stock parade took place and was up to the usual standard of previous parades, while the usual program was given.

Pure Food Exhibit.

One department of the fair which has been greatly appreciated is that of the pure food exhibition. Chief Hanson and six of his assistants have been exceedingly busy all of the time trying to keep the sanitary conditions in good shape and watching the stands that impure food and drink was not dispensed. It is an almost impossible task to keep a strict watch on those who would deliberately deceive the public, but the commission made a good start this year and they hope by some arrangement next year, if they are in charge, to entirely do away with the places which dispense food and drink up to the standard.

Fire Commissioner Randall has been exceedingly busy also and his department at the grounds, in charge of Deputy Buck, has been watching closely all portions of the grounds in an endeavor to keep away any chance of fire starting in many of the shacks which have been on the grounds for years and which would make excellent places for a fire to make a start.

All Would See Fair.

Year by year it is becoming evident that the state fair visitor is paying more attention to the state fair and that he does not make the institution a side issue in coming to Lincoln. This is evidenced by the fact that the theaters, especially the 5-cent motion picture houses, have not been crowded as they were in former years. Formerly every theater was crowded and a large crowd waited on the walks in front for a chance to get in. This year, while the picture shows did a good business, it is evident that the evening programs at the fair got the crowds. It is said, too, that the ball games have not been patronized as has been usually the case. Games by Western league clubs on all of the days of the fair, while drawing fairly good attendance, did not show up as it would be supposed they would. The attendance was good, but there was room in the grandstand and bleachers for many more.

Douglas Wins Prize.

The contest on county collective exhibits between the counties of the eastern central and western sections of the state resulted as follows:

Eastern Section—Douglas, first; Pawnee, second; Washington, third.

Central Section—Kearney, first; Franklin, second; Antelope, third.

Western Section—Brown, first; Frontier, second; Red Willow, third.

Fairbury to Have Fall Festival.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Fairbury Commercial club is arranging for a fall festival, together with an old settlers' picnic, to be held in Fairbury the second week in October. A committee was appointed by the club to manage it. It is estimated that a festival of the nature contemplated will cost $3,000 and already $1,700 has been subscribed. The features will include an airship flight daily, an agricultural exhibit, parades and speech making, as well as entertainments of various kinds on the public square. It is the intention to have the street from the city park to the square lined with booths.

Nemaha Has Many Apples.

AUBURN, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—This county will have a bumper apple crop. It is estimated that the crop will be twice as large as last year. The apples will be large and fine and free from worms. Foreign apple buyers are visiting the farmers and buying the crop.

Spend Your Noontimes in This Store.

A very great many men must do their "looking" on their noon hour and this store, desiring at all times, to be of the utmost service to the public, has arranged with its salesmen to take their lunch-rooms before 12 or after 1. There is, therefore, a full complement of clothing men at your command between those hours. It's merely another King-Swanson innovation. You're invited to use several noontimes in looking over our stock, if you care to. You're never under obligation to buy because of having done so.

AN AUTHORITATIVE DISPLAY OF MEN'S, YOUNG MEN'S AND BOYS' Fall Clothes

To those of you who have felt "not quite sure" until the big store had shown its Fall styles, we now say "we're ready." Now, and at this store, you can see the very things that the Fashion makers deem indisputably correct. You can see the things that are not so pronounced in style features, but which, nevertheless, carry the approval of the authorities on Men's Wear. Then, too, you can find things that owe their attractiveness entirely to their gentility and extreme elegance, without reference to the extreme of Fashion. Throughout the whole length and breadth of the store, on its every floor, you will find an air impregnated with newness—and never a suggestion of the styles of yester-year—a truly wonderful display of new Fall wearables for every masculine member of the family.

A Word About Omaha's Greatest Clothing Store

Four years ago this store opened for business. It was intended to supply a keenly felt need—a fine, handsome store where the prevailing prices would be satisfactory to the majority of men. A dismal career was often predicted for it. It was pointed out that popular-priced trade would be frightened away and that fine trade could not be attracted to a popular-priced store. The predictions were but the belongings of false prophets, as time has determined. From the first day this store was a success, and each year has added to it, until today it stands without a serious competitor in its class. Its success has been built on fairness and progressiveness. It is the first, always, to show the new styles. It never shows old goods. It treats its customers right, and its customers treat it right. There is a mutuality of interest between buyer and seller that doesn't exist in other stores. Its merchandise is the best that can be procured and its prices even less than elsewhere. These, and hundreds of unmentioned points of superiority, account for its constantly growing favor.

MARTIN SUSTAINS MOOSERS
Attorney General Believes Them Entitled to Place on Ticket.

WILL ADVISE SECRETARY WAIT
Election Not Inclined to Resign and Chairman Epperson Does Fighting While Corrick Does the Managing.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Attorney General Martin has given out that he is of the opinion the bull moosers can at this time get a place on the ticket and he will so advise Secretary of State Wait. There is considerable diversity of opinion on this matter by attorneys, but unless a friendly suit is started, the names will probably be certified to as candidates.

Election Will Stick.

From authoritative sources it is reported that the six electors give little indication of resigning their places. Three of them are said to be unalterably opposed to retiring. Broatch, Johnson and Pease. It is said that when the latter received the demand for resignation from the Taft committee he hastened to wire the other five to stand by their guns and defy the Taft men. The other three are said to take a milder position. They are reported to be willing to retire if the whole six set out on the way. They do not want to move unless the action is unanimous. W. J. Broatch and Allen Johnson have issued public statements that they will not retire.

Chairman Epperson would like to see them retire for the sake of the state ticket. But he has other troubles which take his immediate attention. He has no finances. He has been delayed in securing the committee office furniture. He is not sure that his secretary can serve, and the whole weight of the campaign at this moment is on his shoulders. Manager F. P. Corrick, meanwhile, is directing the Roosevelt campaign from an elegantly appointed office and appears to be well supplied with munitions of war.

Moose Executive Committee.

A. G. Wray of York, chairman of the bull moose convention, which met here this week has announced the executive committee as follows:

F. P. Corrick, Lincoln, chairman; First district, Don L. Love, Lincoln; Second district, Don C. Vandusen, Blair; Third district, L. C. Lawson, Clark; Fourth district, F. B. Tipton, Seward; Fifth district, W. F. Hall, Holdrege; Sixth district, J. P. Gibbons, Kearney.

RAVENNA FATS AND LEANS
PLAY ANNUAL BALL GAME

RAVENNA, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The annual game of base ball between the fats and the leans was pulled off here this afternoon. These games are made the event of the season in Ravenna, all business houses close and the business men provide fun and entertainment for the visitors, including music, clowns and special athletic stunts, winding up with a game of ball between the fats and leans with all ball players barred. At the end of five innings the score stood 10 to 9 in favor of the leans. During the sixth inning a terrific windstorm swept the field and the crowd fled in a panic. As there has been no rain for weeks a blinding dust accompanied the wind. No damage was done by the storm, and no rally fell. A crowd of 1,500 people witnessed the game as far as it went. The most attractive feature of the parade was the girls' chorus singing "Take Me to the Ball Game," accompanied by a clarinet in which a splendid likeness of Charlie Sam drove a team of coal black horses tandem fashion.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Tecumseh Board of Education last evening a petition from the Woman's Municipal league was presented asking for medical inspection of the schools. The board decided to have spelling taught in the high school. NEWS OF WEST POINT AND CUMING COUNTY

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—News has reached the city of the marriage at Leavenworth, Kan., of Gould Richards and Miss Emma Nel'gh, formerly of this place.

The West Point Base Ball association has disbanded and will play no more this season. The cause of the dissolution of the club is want of patronage and support from home people. During the time of its existence the club has made a splendid record. During the season it has played thirty-seven games, in twenty-seven of which it was victorious. C. A. Bernhardt of West Point was the local secretary.

The public schools of West Point will open for the fall and winter term on Monday, September 9. Professor Bowen has been retained as superintendent.
