NOTES FROM BLOOMINGTON AND FRANKLIN COUNTY

BLOOMINGTON, Neb., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Henry Goebel, who lives five miles south of Riverton was fatally kicked in the face by a vicious mule recently. The doctors removed nine pieces of bone from the orbit. The man's brain was exposed through the cavity when the operation was made. Recovery is improbable.

Mr. T. J. Garret brought in a stalk of corn from the farm of H. W. Chaney living southeast of town that is thirteen feet and two inches high. There were two ears on the stalk, one six and the other seven feet from the ground.

A soaking rain fell over this county Monday and Tuesday. The damage of the drought is found to be much less than estimated. Everything is fresh and green again.

The Bloomington public schools attended the county fair en masse today. There is a fine educational exhibit from each department of the school.

GUYE SENDS OUT LETTERS

Labor Commissioner Seeks to Correct Report on Corn.

STATISTICS GATHERED IN APRIL

Burlington Road Appeals to Supreme Court for Judgments for Damages as Result of High Water in 1908.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Labor Commissioner Guye is sending out to the different assessors of the state a letter of inquiry as to crop reports made at the time the assessments were made in April. He is of the opinion that on corn especially the report, while correct at that time, cannot now be called reliable on account of the peculiar weather. The reports made by the assessors this year show a very much decreased acreage under that of a year ago, and Mr. Guye is of the opinion that whereas the reports made in April were governed entirely on what the farmer expected to plant to corn, it may be that on account of the weather conditions he may have not followed out his anticipations and have planted more acreage to corn than he had intended.

Suit Against Lodge. The Royal Neighbors of America, an auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen of America, have appealed to the supreme court of the state from a judgment in the district court of Lincoln county secured by Thomas J. Youda, whose wife Annie held a certificate for $2,000 in Camp No. 381 of North Platte, and who was given judgment for the full amount. The order appeals on the grounds that at the time Mrs. Youda made application to join the organization she made representations that she was in sound health, when this was not the case.

Damage Case Appeals. The Burlington railroad has appealed to the supreme court from the district court of Lancaster county in two suits for damages secured against it on account of the high water in Lincoln in July, 1908, which it was claimed damaged property belonging to the plaintiffs in two suits—William Boyd, Jr., and Henry Alt. The jury gave them judgments in the sums of $500 and $300, respectively, and the railway company appeals from the judgments of the court and also from a denial of the same court for a change of venue.

Douglas Bonds Taken Up. The county of Douglas sent to the state treasurer this morning the second installment of $50,000 of the $150,000 bonds of that county in the hands of the state. This leaves $50,000 yet to be paid. "We rather dislike to have Douglas county take up these bonds," said Treasurer George this morning, "as we consider them among the very best bonds owned by the state, and as far as the board is concerned, we would like to have them run."

At the next session of the supreme court the long contested claim of Sam Patterson, who thought he was secretary of the banking board under Governor Shallenberger, for $5,000 salary for two years will come up for hearing. Mr. Pat-

Half Minute Store Talk

Some wisecracker has said, "It is what we think and what we do that makes us what we are." It's a trite saying, sure enough. Take this store, for example. Its leadership is due entirely to the fact that its pilots have thought out innovations in abundance and have had the courage to put them into operation.

Store Closes Saturday at 9 P. M.

Dear Mr. Business Man:

This store sells more suits to such as you—Merchants, Bankers, Lawyers, Doctors, Clerks, etc., than any two stores in town. It has on its list of permanent customers—the leading men in such callings from the cities near and far. It has earned this patronage by reason of the class of clothes it sells. Every time it makes a sale to such a fellow it comes in competition with the best merchant tailors in the city. It's sales are the result of that competition. The suits it sells are as well made, as perfect in fit and as exclusive in pattern as can be obtained from the best tailor and our prices are about half of his. We invite you to see the new Fall line at—

In the evening Prof. E. H. Brightman, Ph. D., spoke of his personal impression of Wesleyan university. He said it was equipped as well to do its work as the largest university is equipped to do its work. Chancellor C. A. Fulmer followed Prof. Brightman and gave an interesting address. He was greeted with college yells and the "Yellow and Brown" was sung as he began his address. He was formerly superintendent of schools of this city.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clearman, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Clearman, Miss Mona Clearman, Romney C. Clearman and Miss Fies-

An Open Letter to the Renter of High Priced Land

TO YOU, to your wife, to your growing family this letter is addressed. Every word of it is a message for you. It is one of the most important messages you have ever received. Do you feel an impulse to cast this aside with the thought "Oh, it's only an advertisement." No, it is not simply an advertisement—it is an opportunity. It not only is an opportunity—it is THE opportunity—THE ONE OPPORTUNITY OF YOUR LIFE.

Do not read any further if you are fully satisfied with your present circumstances, but if you are not fully satisfied, please read what some folks say who, until a few days ago, were situated as you are now situated, but who have broken away just as you may break away if you only dare to do so.

ARTHUR ACKERMAN OF ARCADIA, VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA, SAYS: "I came here doubting the things I had heard and read about this country. Some of my friends had been out last week and brought back stories that made me think they had lost their heads. I had not been in the Golden Prairie District an hour until I was satisfied. I have seen thousands of acres of oats here, grown without irrigation on the upland prairies, the poorest of which are better than the best I have seen in Valley County, Nebraska. I have seen thousands of acres of better wheat than I have ever seen before anywhere. I have talked with farmers who have bought their land on the crop payment plan and who will market this season enough grain to pay in full for the land. I have bought a half section on the crop payment plan and will move here during the coming winter so as to be ready to begin farming early in the spring.

"I have been a renter all my life, but no more of it for me. I have seen in three days here farm after farm on which the crops now matured will more than pay for the land on which it is grown, at the price my land cost me, and I have satisfied myself that the rainfall here this season is not above the average. My wife told me to get close to school, and there is a good school within half a mile of the land I bought. On the adjoining section is winter wheat on sod breaking that I am certain (and I am an old thresher) will make 20 bushels per acre, and oats that will yield 60 bushels or over. My boy will help me farm this half section and we will soon pay for it in the crops raised."

OTTO KRUSE OF GLENWOOD, IOWA, read our advertisement in The Omaha Bee. He wrote for our literature, and was so interested that he had his father, one of the wealthy farmers of Mills county, Iowa, come with him to look the country over. They arrived here on the morning of August 22d. In the forenoon they drove out in an auto with our Mr. Busselle, returning in time to close a contract for a half section selected by the young man and leave for Iowa on the night train. Arriving home Mr. Kruse forwarded the money to the Citizens National Bank of Cheyenne to pay for the land, and now has his deed and abstract. When we asked Mr. Kruse to stay over another day he said: "Why should we stay longer? We have found everything better than you represented. I have picked out the land I want and will hurry home to get things in shape to move out to my new farm."

BYRON R. BEAVER OF ULYSSES, BUTLER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, read our advertisement. Mr. Beaver and his wife decided to see the Golden Prairie District. They arrived in Cheyenne at our office Saturday morning, September 7th; they spent that afternoon and Monday looking over the district, and on Tuesday morning closed a contract for 320 acres on the crop payment plan, Mrs. Beaver returning home to look after the children and things, Mr. Beaver staying to superintend the building of a house and barn so they can move out in December. Mr. Beaver authorized us to quote him as follows: "Put me on record as saying that the Golden Prairie District is all and more than you claim for it. We have been royally treated, and you have shown us thousands of acres of the finest crops we have ever feasted our eyes on. The drinking water is so pure, the soil so fertile, the social and educational advantages so attractive that I cannot find words to adequately express my delight. To us from central Nebraska it is hard to realize that the highest point reached by the thermometer here this season is only 88 above zero, and that the lowest last winter was only 9 below on one day, but the government records bear out your statements to this effect. Surely this is a delightful climate, and we are glad we are going to make our home here."

THESE STATEMENTS HAVE THE RIGHT RING, HAVE THEY NOT? You are almost persuaded to look into this matter, but before you spend your money to make the trip you wish to be absolutely sure that conditions here are as we represent them to be.

YOU WANT TO KNOW. There are hundreds of prosperous farmers here now who know. They came, they saw, they were convinced. The publishers of this paper know. We place no advertisement in any paper until the owners investigate and are fully satisfied that the Golden Prairie District of Wyoming is a successful crop producer and that all our representations are true.

BUT YOU WANT TO KNOW. You do not want to come on a wild goose chase and so, to make a long and interesting story short and to the point, and to give you the assurance that we mean business and are ready to back our claims, we issue and mail on request a Certificate of Guaranty of which the following is a copy:

THE FEDERAL LAND AND SECURITY CO. Capital Stock 200,000 Cheyenne, Wyo. References by Permission: Citizens National Bank and First National Bank of Cheyenne. CERTIFICATE OF GUARANTY The Golden Prairie District of Wyoming is an agricultural district. It is protected on the southwest by the snow-capped Rockies and is not subject to extreme heat or hot winds. The records of the U. S. Weather bureau prove this. The district lies west of the sand hills of western Nebraska and is a well grassed, fertile prairie free from sagebrush, alkali, gumbo or hardpan. No irrigation is practiced or required to raise crops here. Pure well water is found in abundance at reasonable depths. To protect those bona fide prospective settlers who have been misinformed or who are uncertain as to conditions here we issue this CERTIFICATE OF GUARANTY for the benefit only of the one whose name is endorsed hereon in ink. GUARANTY: We, THE FEDERAL LAND AND SECURITY COMPANY, hereby guarantee that every statement hereon or contained in any of our literature or signed letters relative to the Golden Prairie District of Wyoming is true and correct. We further agree to reimburse the one whose name appears hereon for his railroad fare from his present address to Cheyenne and return and Five Dollars ($5.00) per day for the time actually and necessarily spent by him in making a personal examination of said district, this agreement to be binding upon us in the event said party calls upon us at our office within ninety (90) days from date hereof, goes over the district with us, and does not find conditions here fully represented by us in every particular. To ..... The Federal Land and Securities Company, By ....., President.

Fill out and mail us at once the coupon found on this page. It will entitle you to receive this Certificate made out in your name. Then when you get it, together with the literature we will send you, get on the train and come and look at this Famous Golden Prairie. If you are so fortunate as to have a wife, have her come with you, and then you can together settle this important matter of taking advantage of the opportunity we now offer you. Come prepared for surprises. We want to show you a 160-acre farm belonging to a former Iowa renter from which he has just delivered to the Burns elevator winter wheat for which he has received a check for $1,700.00, besides delivering some to the elevator at Egbert, the amount of which we have not learned as this is written, and keeping some for seed. And it is wheat, too, W-H-E-A-T which the elevator company tested at 62 pounds per measured bushel. We want to show you a sample of oats that the owner has just delivered to the elevator, for which he states, on careful and accurate measurement of the land, he received from the elevator company pay for 7 1/2 bushels per acre. We want to show you just a few little things like these. Then we will show you in the same neighborhoods and just across the fences from improved farms producing such crops as those mentioned above, land we own and offer to you at $15.00 to $25.00 per acre which we can sell direct to you just as we have sold some $150,000 acres to other wide-awake farmers on terms of Plan No. 1: One-third cash, one-third in five years, and one-third in ten years, with warranty deed and mortgage back; or, Plan No. 2: One-fifth cash and balance in ten equal annual installments; or, Plan No. 3: Whereby, after making a small cash payment as an evidence of good faith, you pay the balance of both principal and interest by delivering to your nearest market station one-half of the crop raised, which is credited at market price until the land is paid for.

Special Round Trip Railroad Rates: You may now secure a round-trip summer tourist ticket to Cheyenne, good starting any day, at a very low rate. This ticket cannot be purchased after September 30th, although the return limit is October 31st, so there is a decided advantage in coming during the present month. Ask your local railroad agent for this rate, and if he does not furnish it, write us and we will give you the information.
