DES MOINES, Oct. 6 .- (Special.)-The problem of the loan shark and how to offset the evil he does is one that is going to be forced to the attention of the Iowa tegislature next winter.

The state conference on charities and corrections soon to be held promises to start a movement that will compel some definite action in legislation. The subtect of the loan shark is given first place on the program. The conference is to be held in Cedar Rapids and will be attended by a large number of the people of the state interested in all subjects pertaining to the care of unfortunates or of evil ten dencies. Those who attend the conference are already well informed as to the evil of the loan shark system.

Retracing Civilization's Path.

We are racing fast along the back ratt toward fendalism, according to the ocialist vice presidential candidate, as nstanced by the fact that but ten of every hundred students in the public chools go to High school.

"It costs $25 per pupil per year to educate our children until they are ready o enter High school. When they are ready to go to High school but ten out of every hundred go and the other ninety go into the factories, the sweatsheps, or other industries and then we educate the ten at $50 a year until they are through High school. This ratio keeps up as they go through the higher institutions of learning."

Mr. Seldel said nothing but socialism will remedy this and all other evil conditions of society. He said there were laws against railroads rebating, but these provided fines that were paid within twenty minutes after they were imposed and in ten minutes after they were paid other violations even greater than the original were on foot.

The socialist party recognizes in the present system only an epoch in the development of society. Slavery, communism, feudalism-each was an advance over the preceding stage of society, and so socialism will be a step forward over all the rest."

Mr. Seldel left at midnight for Cheyenne. He came here from Lincoln, near which city he has a brother residing. Dr. L. B. Morsman, who was a candidate for c'ty commissioner here on the socialist party, was chairman of the meeting and kept the crowd in check until Mr. Seidel arrived, his train being several minutes late.
