Athletes Preparing for Fall Contests

R. L. Carns, supervisor of athletics in the public schools, is conducting the final contests for choosing the contestants in the annual fall athletic meet. At least 300 pupils of the 2,500 competing will qualify, says Carns.

In the final meet at the fall contests the schools will contest for the Harding cup and for the three banners, first, second and third, class. Kellom won the cup last year and Central, Long and Kellom secured the banners.

By the first of the week Mr. Carns will be able to name the winners in the tryouts. Last year 2.464 competed in the broad jumps, chinning, running, and broad jumps and 800 qualified. As many will qualify this year.

SERIES

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

AMES, Ia., Oct. II.-(Special.)-Amor will meet Simpson college at Ames Saturday. A big shakeup has been made in the lineup the last week.

McDonald, the veteran end, clearly demonstrated his right to play on the team over Pfantz, the youngster, who started last week. Pfund at tackle so far has been a big disappointment and has had to give way to Wilson. Cowan has taken Chris Juhl's place, who received a broken arm Saturday. Hunt has been sick for several days and until he returns Thompson will play center. Burge is nursing a sore back and will be re-placed by Brennan.

Coach Williams has been giving his athletes strenuous practice all week. Signal practice is being held every night in the training quarters and the afternoon practice is nearly all scrimmage.

AMES IN WAIT FOR MISSOUR

Aggles Figure on Taking Tigers in for Cleaning Up.

AMES, Ia., Oct. 11.-(Special.)-While the Cyclones are figuring on taking Missouri to a cleaning at Columbia a week from today, Coach Clyde Williams will take pains to ward off any serious damage that may occur to the Aggle eleven in the Missouri game. Coach Williams will nurse his men into condition for the game with the Hawkeyes-the state university-November 16, which is the biggest game Iowa sees in the year.

The Ames eleven plays Simpson here on State field tomorrow. The men have been instructed to go in to win the game, but not to pile up a big score because it is easy.

The Minnesota game, which the Gowon last Saturday slimly, 5 to was a hard one on the Ames team. Juhl, the big veteran right guard, is out probably for the whole season with a broken left arm; Burge suffered a strained tendon in the neck and is out; Lew Reeve, powerful guard, is bruised so badly he is kept out of acrimmage: Don Hunt, center, is laid out of practice because of the doctor's prohibition for a few days; Pfauts, left end, who was taken out at Minneapolis for alleged lethargy, bursted a finger in scrimmage with the scrubs a day or two ago, and Spike Crawford an important man on the line, is out of scrimmage with a bad leg bruise.

Injured by a Bull. TABOR, Ia., Oct. 11 .- (Special.)-When Merril Greenlee, a farmer living a mile south of town, went to turn his cattle out of the lot, a bull refused to go. Greenlee took hold of the ring in the
