AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Polish Home Carnival Will Open Today with Parade.

MARKET SHOWS RECOVERY

Heavy Receipts Bring Promise of Further Activity When Feeders Are Returned—Dapont Saved from Potter's Field.

The Polish Home carnival will open today with a monster parade at 2:30 this afternoon. The parade will form at the city hall, headed by prominent men of the committee, the mayors of both Omaha and South Omaha, including the entire roster of officials of South Omaha. The police and fire departments will be a part of the parade in full regalia and all the fraternal societies and lodges will join with various delegations of citizens from Omaha suburbs. Three bands will furnish music on the march from the city hall to the carnival entrance at Twenty-sixth and J streets.

Immediately upon reaching the grounds, the amusements will be thrown open to the public. Prominent orators will talk during the afternoon. A balloon ascension will take place in the early evening; a daring slide for life is another of the many attractions offered, along with the usual carnival merry-making. The streets of the grounds will be lined with attractions new and startling. The "country store" is loaded now to the extreme with articles novel and useful. At night, the grounds will be one blaze of illumination with music galore. Yesterday marked the close of the heaviest week that the South Omaha live stock market has witnessed in over a year, at least as far as cattle receipts go. In all 40,300 head of cattle were received leaving a margin of 8,600 head to the good for this year over the corresponding week of last year. In feeder sales there was such a movement as promises to bring back heavy shipments of feeder stock within the next two or four months. Farmers and feeder men bought heavily and shipped out their stuff for a few months run of the feed lots before returning them to the market.

In hogs with the exception of the record price of $9.05 attained in October, 1910, $9, the next highest price, was attained yesterday for a load of prime Berkshires. The total hog receipts for the week foot up to 21,600 head, an increase of 24,400 on the same date a year back. Sheep and lambs according to stockmen are, if anything, just a shade better than a week ago. Altogether the much heralded scarcity of cattle is not materializing, as surely as was expected. Stockmen say that the market is good and prices good. They declare that owing to the large shipments of feeders sent out to the feed lots it is reasonable to expect that within from two to four months there will be a big business done on the cattle market in feeder stock returned from the pastures.

Dapont's Funeral Monday. Andy Dapont will not be buried as a pauper owing to the charity of a number of city employes and friends in the Indian hill district. Acting on the suggestion of Chief of Police John Briggs several of the police, including Captain John Dvorak, Desk Sergeant Billy Corrigan and special officer to the mayor, Henry Schleming sold nearly 300 worth of tickets at 50 cents a piece to the old friends of Dapont in the west end of the city. Chief of Police John Briggs and Chief of Detectives James Sheahan assisted in the charitable work. Dapont's funeral will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at Larkin's burial parlors to Laurel Hill cemetery.

Black Enters Business. F. W. Black, for the last ten years a carrier in the South Omaha Postoffice, has left the service of Uncle Sam to enter the real estate and insurance line. Mr. Black has bought the business of H. Goldberg, which he will continue in the same place succeeding to Mr. Goldberg's location in The Bee branch office at 215 N. street. Mr. Black is well known and highly regarded by all those with whom he has come in contact during his long service with the local Postoffice department.

Dying Man Still is Unidentified

The man found in Riverside park yesterday morning, unconscious, is still unidentified and in a dangerous condition at the St. Joseph's hospital. No one seems to know who he is and beyond the fact that he is known to have eaten some tonstools, believing them to be mushrooms, his case is a mystery.

Office Boy Wanted. An energetic boy of 15 or over may secure a good position by applying to superintendent Brandeis Stores.—Advertisement.

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own ample grounds, yet entirely distinct and rendering it possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of noncontagious and nonmental diseases, no others being admitted. The other Best Cottage, being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases, requiring for a time watchful care and special nursing.
