BECKER TRIAL NEARLY OVER

Accused Police Lieutenant Not to Testify in His Own Behalf.

STATEMENT OF SCHEPPS READ

Policemen Say the Raid on Rosenthal's Place Was Real and Was Not Made for Purpose of a Bluff.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—What Sam Schepps told his friends in Hot Springs, Ark., about the murder of Herman Rosenthal was read into the record today at the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, charged with instigating the crime.

"I don't want you fellows to think we killed a man who was of any account," Schepps told Postmaster Johnson of Hot Springs, according to Johnson's testimony before the commissioner sent to Hot Springs to examine him and other persons.

"That fellow Rosenthal was a dirty cur. He should have been killed. I don't want you fellows to think of me as a common murderer."

Johnson's testimony was read by John W. Hart, Becker's attorney, with intention to support the contention that Rosenthal's death on his account and conspired to kill him. For two hours this afternoon Hart read extracts from the testimony at Hot Springs.

In that which went on record was a talk between Schepps and Michael Berkholz of Argenta, Ark., in which Schepps is alleged to have said: "You don't know what a dirty dog Rosenthal got to be. He thought everybody was abusing him. Why, he even wanted the gang to kill Louis Kauffman."

Thirteen witnesses, few of whom remained more than a few minutes on the stand, testified today and brought the case swiftly toward its close. Indications at adjournment were that the defense would rest tomorrow without placing Becker on the stand, notwithstanding the previous announcement by the accused policeman's lawyer that it has been decided to have him testify.

John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, said tonight that he wanted as witnesses the four gunmen charged with shooting Rosenthal to death, but that their counsel refused to allow them to testify. McIntyre said he had been disappointed also in procuring the testimony of William Shapiro, driver of the murder car.

Among today's witnesses were five policemen, three of whom testified that the raid on Rosenthal's gambling house by Becker's "strong arm" squad last April was not a fake as the state charges, but was made two days after they had produced evidence of gambling on the premises.

All five declared that they had not heard the conversation between Becker and Mrs. Rosenthal which Mrs. Rosenthal has testified took place.

No inmates of the Tombs prison, awaiting trial on charges of murder, denied the testimony of James D. Hallen, the convict lawyer, who said he heard Becker tell Policeman White that the public would soon pay Becker a pension for killing "that crook, Rosenthal." Several character witnesses were also heard.

PERKINS DENOUNCES PENROSE AND HILLES

Perkins. He could recall nothing about contributions to various states in 1904 except in the case of $10,000 sent to Senator Beveridge.

Beveridge Returns Money.
"I remember that," said the witness, "because he sent the money back. I nearly fell dead when I got the check; it was the first time on record that I ever knew of any public man running for office or otherwise to return a dollar that he got his hands on."

Senator Pomerene asked Mr. Perkins about his connection with the International Harvester company and the United States Steel corporation.

"I suppose you believe that the organization of the International Harvester company and its conduct since its organization has been entirely legal?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"Not only legal, but highly moral in every degree," said Mr. Perkins, enthusiastically.

"The same might be said, I suppose of the United States Steel corporation?"
"Amen," agreed the witness fervently. Senator Payne asked about the suit against the Harvester trust.

Mr. Perkins said he personally had asked President Roosevelt to withhold the suit while the bureau of corporations was investigating. He said he told Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, that the suit were begun "right."

President Roosevelt, Mr. Perkins said, ordered the suit delayed until the investigation was completed.

In concluding, Mr. Perkins made a statement, declaring that he had never asked a favor of any president, cabinet officer or executive.

"And I am not in this movement now for any favors. When this campaign is over, if on the fifth of November Mr. Roosevelt is elected, on November 5 our accounts will be all square."

Then Mr. Perkins left the stand.

Ryan Gives to Parker Fund.
Thomas Fortune Ryan was the first witness today. Mr. Ryan first told the committee that he shouldered $30,000 of the debts of the democratic national committee in 1904.

"Early in the campaign," he said, "I gave $50,000 to the fund, although I was opposed to the nomination of Judge Parker. I gave probably $50,000 in smaller contributions. When the end of the campaign was drawing near and it was quite apparent that Mr. Parker could not be elected some of my friends came to me and told me the campaign would be financial assistance. I finally agreed in order to pay the party workers and preserve the integrity of the party, to furnish $250,000. This made a total of $300,000 I gave throughout the campaign. This was a personal contribution and did not represent anyone except myself. I did not give the money to elect Parker. I merely wanted to preserve the democratic organization."

Money for Harmon.
In reply to questions concerning the pre-convention campaign of 1912, Mr. Ryan said he had contributed between $75,000 and $80,000 to Governor Harmon's campaign and more than $30,000 to Representative Underwood's.

"When I came back from Europe in 1911, I made up my mind that the prospects of democratic success were very bright," he said.

HUNT BUSINESS LEAGUE MEN

Executive Committee of Trades and Labor Assembly Asks Signatures to Petition Opposing Unions' Organization.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—For the fifth consecutive time Mrs. George O. Robinson of Detroit, Mich., today was elected president of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church at the national convention.

Society officials say Washington will be selected as the 1913 meeting place, although an invitation has also been received from Toledo, O.

More than $30,000, an increase of $10,000 over 1912, was pledged for the ensuing year.

The executive committee of the Trades and Labor assembly today commenced a process of smothering out the members of the Business Men's league, which is conducting the fight against the teamsters' strike. They started with a declaration which they asked every business man to sign, declaring opposition to the league. In this way they hope to disclose who

Des Moines Man Gets Reward for Saving Lives of Two Men

DES MOINES, Oct. 21.—Maurice J. Connor of this city has just received $1,000 from the state of Massachusetts as a reward for saving the lives of two men at Nahant, September 23. The reward is a standing one for each unusual rescue of a life. Two men had been caught in the ropes of their dory when it capsized in a storm. The life boat at Nahant was wrecked in attempting to reach them. Connor then swam out to the wreck, dived under the boat and unwrapped the ropes from around the legs of the men.

Jack Johnson's Case Comes Up Tuesday

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Federal investigation of charges that Johnson violated the Mann law moved swiftly today. Twenty-five subpoenas were served on the pugilist's associates ordering them to appear before the federal grand jury tomorrow. Prosecution was started by the city against Johnson for alleged violation of the 1 o'clock saloon closing law.

Robert E. Cantwell, an attorney, today asked United States District Judge Carpenter for a writ of habeas corpus for Lucile Cameron, whose name has been connected with that of Jack Johnson, and who is being held in the Rockford (Ill.) jail.

Judge Carpenter announced that he would be unable to hear the petition until tomorrow. Inasmuch as the girl is to appear before the grand jury tomorrow, Attorney Cantwell withdrew his petition. He would not say whether he had been retained by Johnson.

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 21.—Hugh McIntosh, who had offered Jack Johnson $50,000 for fights with Sam Langford and Sam McVey or Joe Jeannette, called today to W. W. Kelly, his representative in Chicago, to cancel all negotiations.

McIntosh explained that Johnson's part in the alleged abduction of Lucile Cameron had so angered the sporting men and public at large of Australia that the matches were no longer desirable.

Children Hate Castor Oil, Ugh!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best for Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold; has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach-ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue, if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well-smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.—Advertisement.

Wonderful Cures Reported in Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late. In Germany a new school of physicians has arisen which throws out almost a whole of the pharmacopoeia and relies on an adaptation of the method of wild animals in curing themselves. . . . N. Y. World.

It was Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as: Golden seal and Oregon grape root, mandrake and queen's root, black cherrybark. These are the chief ingredients in Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been so well and favorably known for nearly half a century. A harmless cleanser and stomach tonic that nature has provided.

J. DONALD MATHESON of Ossining, N. Y., says: "I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was dilated condition of the stomach, associated with a catarrhal condition of some, and nervous heart. I had tried enough nux, bismuth, gentian, rhubarb, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial. Took the 'Discovery' and also the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and can truthfully say I am feeling better now than I have in years. I cheerfully give permission to print this testimonial, and if any 'doubting Thomas' writes me I will 'put him wise' to the best all-around medicine in the country to-day."

TWO SETS OF BOOKS KEPT

Miss Dye Tells How She Juggled the Accounts of McNamara's Office.

SYSTEM WAS FOR A PURPOSE

One Record of Money Expended Was for Officials and the Other for the Public and Members of Union.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 21.—Reading from the financial account books of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers for the period when John J. McNamara, the secretary-treasurer, was conducting a "campaign of explosions" about the country, Miss Mary C. Dye, former bookkeeper for McNamara, testified at the dynamic conspiracy trial today that one record of money expended was kept for the union officials and executive board, while a different book was kept for the public and members of the union generally. A regular system of "juggling" the accounts, the government avers, was maintained to conceal the payments for the expenses of dynamiting.

Miss Dye's testimony was that a dual system of recording expenditures was in force prior to 1909, or until the executive board decided to allow McNamara $1,000 a month without requiring any accounting, which continued until the Los Angeles Times building was blown up. It was out of this $1,000 a month, the government charges, that McNamara paid Orrie E. McManigal and James B. McNamara for the Pacific coast explosions and for thirty-five other explosions.

The defendants named by witnesses as having been members of the executive board who were cognizant of the use to which the money was put were Frank W. Ryan, president of the union; John T. Butler, Buffalo, first vice president; Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco; Henry W. Leggettner, Denver; Frank C. Webb, New York; Michael J. Young, Boston, and Herbert S. Hockin, present secretary. They are among the forty-five men now in trial charged with illegally transporting explosives by aiding and abetting.

Miss Dye testified that in the books available to the officials the full amounts paid to McNamara, Hockin, Webb and others were given, but in the records published in the Union Magazine less than half the amounts were charged to the individuals, while the difference was charged to the emergency fund by order of the executive board. The witness said that for the fiscal year ending in 1909 $2,988 was paid to Webb, while $1,572 was recorded in McNamara's report to the union; $1,900 was paid to Hockin, while $2,043 was reported to the union, and $2,537 was paid to J. J. McNamara, while $1,587 was reported to the union having been paid to him, the difference in each case being charged to the emergency fund.

Altogether the government alleges that $20,000 was represented in aggregate differences and used for dynamiting purposes.

The witness stated that prior to the monthly allowances to McNamara funds were charged up as donations to various unions, or as advances to various officials, without any later showing as to the disposition of the money.

A dozen foremen of structural iron and steel erection jobs where explosions occurred may be called to testify tomorrow. They are to be questioned about the details of explosions which McNamara confessed he caused.

Hiram Johnson is Criticized by Governor Marshall

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, democratic vice presidential nominee, criticized Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California, his opponent on the progressive ticket, in addressing an open air meeting here late today. His reference to the Governor Johnson was made after the democratic nominee had been welcomed to Sacramento and had been wished success by Grove L. Johnson, Governor Johnson's father.

"Governor Johnson came into our state and gave our people a lot of advice about running Indiana," said Governor Marshall. "He had a lot to say about how backward we were and how much we lacked progress. But I am not going to attempt to give you California people any advice in this connection. I think you are competent enough and sensible enough to handle your own affairs without suggestions from me."
