that carried conviction. It was authoritatively announced that Evers will sign his contract as manager tomorrow. The ceremony had been planned for today, but members of the team are on a barn-storming trip and Murphy consented to the postponement to allow Evers to keep his engagement as a player. What terms the contract will carry could not be learned.

When Frank Chance was informed that Evers would be the next manager of the club he replied: "I have no doubt it is true. Evers is a good man for the posltion, too."
