NEW YORK, Aug. 11 .- (Special Telegram.)-The first special train from Halifax with 147 first-class passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania arrived at the Grand Central Station here this afternoon. In the terminal awaiting the arrival of the train were several hundred relatives and friends, many of whom had been waiting since Sunday night. Among the passengers was Mrs. Frank Robbins of Omahn, whose husband is a millinery buyer for the Burgess-Nash company of Omahu.

Mrs. Frank Robbins

of Omaha Arrives

On Halifax Special

Mr. Robbins was in the terminal awaiting her arrival, and upon seeing her he vaulted over the guide ropes which separated the passage of the passengers from those waiting, and in, doing so slipped and fell, breaking his glasses. He acrambled to his feet, followed by two patrolmen, but when the latter witnessed, the greeting between husband and wife. they turned away.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins went to the Hotel Martinique, where later Mrs. Robbins said. that she had known nothing of England. and Germany, being at war until the Mauretania docked at Halifax. Relative to the pursuit of a German cruiser, ahe said there had been some such talk, but it had been ascribed to idle rumor,
