ROURKES WIN TWO COMBATS

First Game Goes Fourteen Innings Before Omaha Wins Out. NO SCORES UNTIL ELEVENTH Both Count Two Runs in Eleventh After Sensational Fielding Prevents Earlier Scores—Second Pinned from Fire.

Pa Rourke's brace and fearless athletes, who have now copied five games in a row, and the insects from Wichita put on two of the finest exhibitions of the national pastime before the largest crowd ever seen around these parts. The first conflict went fourteen innings before the Omaha side won, while the second game was a tight battle between Saunders and Wichita until Omaha won in the seventh. The first game went ten innings before either side scored. Then both teams made two and Omaha finally won, 3 to 2. The score of the second game was also 3 to 2.

Dan Tipple and old man Durham started the first battle. Tipple had far the best of it during his reign. He allowed five hits and whiffed eleven men. A walk and a couple of hits and a wild pitch gave the Wiches two in the eleventh and the many bugs, who were kept constantly at a high pitch because of the sensational playing, gave up in despair. But the bats were with Omaha. The Rourke's plucked the brand from the burning as a gink with a poetic soul might put it. In their hand Thomas doubled, Krueger doubled, sending Thomas over, and Bell singled, sending over the tying run. Tipple was jerked to let Sanders bat for him and Crab took up the game. In the twelfth a marvelous throw from deep right to the plate by Congalton caught Fitzsimmons trying to score on Henry's hit. It was a wonderful throw and cut off an apparently sure run.

Baker Loses Game. In the fourteenth Graham removed Durham, who was noticeably tiring and put forth Baker. An error by Fitzsimmons and a walk to Schiebner put two men on. Thompson took third when O'Rourke let Graham's throw go through him and Tommy counted the winning run when Congalton poked one to center. Omaha was prevented from clinching the game early in the day by some of the most sensational fielding Omaha bugs have enjoyed in a long time. Tydeman
