THE dancing clubs are announcing their dates for the winter season. Some of the clubs of last winter will resume their meetings after Ak-Sar-Ben and will continue with an instructor to teach the new steps.

The students of the Creighton University Dental college will give the first student dance of the present year next Friday evening at the Omaha Field club. The affair will be informal. A dancing club will be formed at the medical department this week.

The women's social committee of the Elks' lodge have arranged for a series of dancing parties during the coming season. The first will be Wednesday evening, November 4, and the other dates are November 18, December 2, 16 and 31; January 13 and 27; February 10 and 24; March 10 and 24, and April 7.

The Week End Dancing club have announced dates for parties for this season, the first party being Saturday, October 31, and every two weeks thereafter. Their dates are October 31, November 14 and 28, December 12 and 26, January 9 and 23, February 6 and 20 and March 6.

Returning to College.

Fred Ryten leaves today for the east to re-enter the University of Cincinnati and Hebrew Union college.

Warren Hamilton will return to Armour Institute of Technology at Chicago this year, to complete his course in engineering.

Singleton Switzer will leave for Michigan and will visit in Chicago with several fraternity brothers of the Zeta Psi before continuing to Ann Arbor.

Flag Presentation.

U. S. Grant Woman's Relief Corps No. 104 presented a large marching flag, eight feet long and five feet wide with gold mountings, to the Pearl Memorial Methodist Sunday school, Sunday morning. Mrs. Lillian Eddy, patriotic instructor of the corps, made the presentation speech, to which the Rev. Mr. Haak, pastor of the church, responded. The flag salute was given by the Grant post and corps.

At Fontenelle Park.

SWOBODA PARTY RETURNS FROM EUROPEAN WAR ZONE

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Swoboda, their daughter, Miss Gretchen, and son, Herbert, have reached Omaha from Germany, where they were delayed without means of communication for about a month after the war broke out. They say that the Germans expect to win the conflict and are well prepared, with plenty of men and ample food for the population for a long time.

princess lace. She carried Killarney roses. Mr. Chandler Trimble was best man. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The decorations were in Killarney and bride's roses with pink shaded candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley will be at home after October 1 at Lincoln, Neb. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Billson and their daughter, Miss Esther Billson, of Boone, Ia.

Warren-Micke] Wedding.

Mrs. M. Mickel announces the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Gertrude, to Royal George Warren, son of George A. Warren, chief clerk of the Army Signal Corps supply depot in Omaha, on Tuesday morning, September 15. After the wedding breakfast at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Warren left for a short trip. They will be at home after October 1 at 530 North Twenty-fifth avenue.

Maple Leaf Chapter.

Maple Leaf chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be entertained at a Kensington at the home of Mrs. W. O. Perry, 490 California street, Saturday afternoon.

D. C. N. Club.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. W. F. Coleman returned to Fort Crook today with her mother and three children. Mrs. E. O. Hamilton and children have returned from Estes park, where they had a cottage during the summer. Miss Hazel Brooder of St. Louis, who has been the guest of Miss Ethel Alsbach, left Sunday to spend a short time in western Nebraska, after which she will return to her home.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wells have returned from Moose Lodge, Minn., their summer home. Mr. Wells has almost entirely recovered from the effects of the surgical operation that he underwent this spring.

Enrollment at Uni of Omaha Greater By Fifty Per Cent

An increase of over 50 per cent in enrollment over former years was shown at the University of Omaha when opened yesterday for its sixth school year. Of the increased attendance the largest number are young women who registered for the teachers' course. Practically all of the new students are graduates of high school near Omaha. The freshman class is by far the largest in the history of the school.

Many Bankers Are Expected from Out in State Wednesday

Between 600 and 700 bankers are expected in Omaha Wednesday morning for the two days' session of the Nebraska Bankers association to be held at Happy Hollow club. Local bankers are to do some entertaining during the afternoons. The morning sessions are to last from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The bankers of Omaha and South Omaha have arranged for a buffet luncheon to be served at the Happy Hollow club rooms immediately after adjournment Wednesday. At 3:15 o'clock they are to be at the base ball park to witness the Omaha-Topeka game. In the evening they are to be accorded a special show and initiation at Ak-Sar-Ben den. The club luncheon and base ball game is again scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

On Thursday evening there is to be a theater party at the Orpheum after which light refreshments will be served at the Commercial club. W. L. Nolan of Minneapolis is to speak at the meeting at the Commercial club after the theater.
