Last Week's Totals for Export Sales of Wheat Are Extraordinary.

SPECULATION IS QUITE LIBERAL Business on Cash Account to for Poreign Buyers, Movement of Onts Being Also in the Same Direction.

OMAHA, Oct. 26, 1914. The banner period in the sales of breadstuffs for export was seen last week. It was variously estimated that between 10,000,000 and 12,000,000 bu, were taken in North America in the sit days closing Saturday. On one day the purchases amounted to 2,000,000 bu, on another day 2,000,000 bu, changed hands, and the business varied between the maximum figures given and 1,000,000 bu. In all positions on other days.

Speculation in wheat on Board of Trade has been on a fairly liberal scale. The northwest has hedged some wheat here, but as an offset to this selling was the buying of nearby months against transaction.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Accumulating supplies today put the wheat market under selling pressure. As a result the close, although steady, was at a decline of to to to the certification of the control of the cont last year's figures.

Cool weather, more adapted to the curling and shipment of corn, had a bearish effect on prices of that grain. Slowness of shipping demand was an artificial drag on the market, and so, too, was a sharp decline at Buenos Ayres. Oats displayed sympathy with the court of the same strip in the control of the court of the cou course of other grain. The trade, how-ever, was partly upheld by good cash sales, supposed to be for export.

Provisions at first had an upward tendency, but later gave way on the more active months. There were predic-tions that although hogs were scarcer to-day than expected, the cold weather would bring enlarged receipts. day than expected, the cold would bring enlarged receipts.

at most points the opening market was weak. The supply of beef steers at this point was large, a considerable proportion of all the cattle in sight coming under that head. At the same time there was a good buying demand and the market was generally strong to as much as ket was generally strong to as much as loc higher, the amount of the advance depending upon the kind and quality of the cattle. There was a fair supply of cows and heifers and prices were generally strong as compared with last week's low close. Stockers and feeders sold more freely this morning, being strong to as much as 10@15c higher. The movement so far as the better class of cattle was concerned was quite free. Trashy and undesirable stuff was a little slow and was naturally the last stuff in the yards to sell.
