

Latest Photos from the War Arena

British marines on board a monitor firing at German aeroplanes along the Belgian coast

British field kitchen

Jap Signal Corps in Shantung—Wigwaggers at work during attack on Tsing Tau.

Japs ready to shell Tsing-Tau: note guns concealed by rice straw

Germans mount large defence guns in front of Palais de Justice in Brussels

Belgian refugees at Calais waiting to be taken to England

German defenders of Tsing-Tau on march in the city

French supply convoy on road leading to Aisne fighting front

German Red-Cross division equipped with rifles and dogs, the latter used to scent out the wounded

