NEW YORK, Nov. 16—COFFEE—Market showed continued steadiness here today, although trading was generally quiet. Two steamers arrived here from Brazil over Sunday, one of which was considerably overfuce, and the adotton of 95,500 hags to local stocks seemed sufficient to help out assortments. Brazil, however, was offering very little coffee in the cost and freight market, while the weekly figures reflected an increasing lusiness from Europe in the pr.mary market, and, notwithstanding a small demand, the spot market here was steady at 64c for Rio is and 194c for Santos 4s. Sales of old contracts through the liquidisting committee amounted to only 15,999 bags. December closed at 5.556.55c; March, 5.556.5cc.

The corn market is in a position where lower prices would doubtless be seen were it not for the good export demand that has developed and which is expected to absorb all the corn of good quality to be offered from this time forward. There is a goodly open interest in the May future at Chlosgo and it is generally believed that foreigners are long not only on the futures, but that they have considerable man bought for delivery as soon as the grain is available. This fall has been excellent for curing and hunking corn and the movement will likely increase freely. Receipts of corn from November 1 to date were 7,54400 but against 4,430,000 but last year. HOGS—Supplies were very fair for a Monday, about eighty-two cars, or 5,000 head, comprising the total receipts. Of these twelve cars came direct to a packer, leaving some seventy loads on sale. To day's run is 1,400 larger than a week ago, but is 1,300 smaller than last year.

Trade opened with anippers buying freely at prices that were fully 100 as much as 15c higher. Packers were slow ir, getting started and their first bids were not much better than steady, but strong competition from the shippers strengthened things up until when the bulk of the killer supply moved values were all of a nickel up, and in some instances were quoted as much as 10 higher.
