SECRETARY WAIT FILES REPORT

Anti-Removalists Expend Largest Sum in Publishing Reasons Why Proposition Should Go

Their Way. (From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN. Dec. 3 - (Special.) - Accord ing to figures given out by Secretary of State Wait, it cost the state only $400 to publish the initiative and referendum propositions. The law provides that parties interested both for and against amendments proposed may be given space for arguments and in this case these brought in $2,812.50,

A. H. Bigelow of Omaha took two pages of the pamphlet in an attempt to show why the workmen's compensation law should not be adopted. At the price charged, $62.50 per page, it cost Mr.

Frank I. Ringer of Lincoln took three pages in an argument in favor of the workmen's compensation law at a cost of $187.50.

On university removal the Board Regents tock two pages, at a cost of $63.50. in a statement supposed to be non partisan. Regents Coupland and Haller paid $625, using ten pages favorable to the state farm location. The university alumni home campus anti-removal extension committee took twenty-five pages, at a cost of $1,562.50, to show why the university should stay down town. Mrs. H. W. Hardy used two pages and $125 in an effort to show that the women ought to vote, while Mrs. Crumpacker of Omaha used two more and the same amount of money showing why they
