BRICKLEY MAY BE COACH FOR AMES

Which He is Considering as Coach Next Fall.

TO BRING SYSTEM WITH HIM

Harvard Being Panned for Refusing to Give Michigan a Beturn Game Next Fall When Welverines Will be Stronger.

Charles Brickley, star Crimson foot ball player for the last three years and captain in 1914, has announced that he nobody else could be better qualified to regular games. teach foot ball a la Naughton than the effete east would make out.

Take Harvard to Task.

But it is found now that even a few Michigan squabble. Grantland Rice, dean of sport writers in New York, criticises Harvard very severely and comments upon the true sportsmanship evinced by Rice declared that Yest made the assertion when the 1914 game was scheduled that Harvard would not play Michigan in time: 'Harvard play us in 1915? It's the biggest joke of the year. You'll find out. We'll have a good team in 1915, and Harvard will lose Brickley, Hardwick, Pennock, Logan, Trumbull, Bradlee and others. We haven't got a chance to win this year, and we haven't got a chance to play Harvard next year."

And Yost was right. The fact that Michigan, with the poorest team in years, and a team with half a dozen superiors in the west, would have beaten Harvard but for a few bones pulled by green and inexperienced players was too much for the Harvard men, and they frankly admitted that they were unwilling to take any chances with an eleven Yost might
