

ANDERSON AFTER THE YARDS

Boyd County Member Has Resolution Looking to Investigation of Yardage Rates.

EXCHANGE ALSO IS TARGET

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Representative Anderson of Boyd county will take a shot at the South Omaha stock yards by introducing a resolution to investigate rumors that the yards are discriminating against Nebraska shippers.

Turned Down by Board. Shortbill's complaint was directed chiefly toward securing a reduction in the yardage rate for hogs. It was shown that 8 cents per head is charged for yarding those animals at South Omaha, while at Kansas City and St. Joseph the rate is 6 cents.

Commission Men Also. A member of the Douglas county delegation has another resolution to investigate the commission firms of South Omaha and the Live Stock exchange of that city, to determine whether the commission men are in an unlawful combination to fix the price for their services in selling live stock for shippers.

MORE PROFITS MAY BE DUE TO MANAGEMENT

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Increased productivity of western railroads might be due entirely to careful management rather than to any effects on the part of workmen employed by the roads, according to a statement made today by W. J. Laue, stationmaster, when cross-examined before the subcommittee on the investigation of the conditions on the western roads.

Other Reforms Adopted. Other reforms adopted by the senate included the printing of the schedules of committees for the purpose of avoiding conflicts, and that all final reports of committees be decided upon in the regular daylight meetings of the same.

The committee's report knocked out the recommendation of the Norton committee that all committees of the senate and house in dealing with appropriations hold joint meetings. The proposal that committee meetings be held from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning was also rejected.

JOURNAL SYSTEM IS NEW

Proceedings and Bills Will Be Handled by Printer in Both House and Senate.

MAY COST A LITTLE MORE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Contracts let for printing the daily house and senate journals under the new order of things may make a saving to the state of several hundred dollars, or it may cost considerably more. Secretary Lord of the printing committee is of the opinion that it will cost about one-third more, or about $400, but that the saving on engraving of bills will more than make up for the excess.

The contract has been let for printing 300 copies of the daily reports in each house on pink paper at $3.50 per page. After the minutes are corrected each house will be provided with 300 more copies, which will be furnished at $1.50 per page. Then the printer will print sufficient copies of the corrected journal to bind into the complete record at $1.25 for the senate and $1.10 per page for the house. There will be about 1,000 of these.

Under Old Method. Under the old method the complete volume was printed of the house proceedings at $1.30 per page for the last session and for the senate at $1.20 per page. In addition the chief clerk of the house received about $100 for preparing the journal and the chief clerk of the senate $1.20 for his work. Under the new method adopted the chief clerk and secretary of the senate will work but about a week after the close of the session preparing the index.

To Print Finished Bill. The amended bills will cost $1.50 per page and will show the amendments in italics and the changes in cancelled letters. The bills when passed ready for the signatures of the house officers and the governor will be printed on different paper and in bold type. It is expected that if the saving in the engraving room does not meet the extra expense of the new method that the saving in employees and other things will bring the matter up to an even thing.

Yoakum Makes Plan for Reorganization of Frisco System

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—Plans for the reorganization of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, now in the hands of a receiver, were learned from an authoritative source here today. The plans contemplate an assessment of $125 to $150 on each share of Frisco stock, and this is expected to yield about $2,000,000. A new corporation will be organized. It is hoped that the reorganization will be completed within ninety days. At present the plan is now waiting for an easier market. With the money obtained by stock assessment, it is said, all claims in the way of a reorganization are to be paid off, and then a new mortgage against the property will be issued.

Grocers Blame Farmers for the High Price of Wheat

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Blame for high prices of wheat products should not be laid at the door of the retail grocer, but upon the farmer who has kept his wheat from market, according to F. B. Connolly of St. Francisco, president of the National Association of Retail Grocers, officials of which met here today. "The farmer, individually and in the mass, have held their wheat for higher prices," Mr. Connolly said. "The grocers and bakers are merely collectors, and distributors. They are not to blame and are actually suffering."

HALL'S NOMINATION IS FAVORABLY REPORTED

Omaha Medical Student Suffering From the Hoof and Mouth Diseases

One of the first cases of a human being becoming stricken with the dread hoof and mouth disease is that of Carlisle Stanford Lents, 23-year-old son of Charles M. Lents, doing business at 1615 Farnam street. Young Lents, who is a graduate of Creighton, is a first year student at the Johns Hopkins Medical school in Baltimore, and is now isolated in the Johns Hopkins hospital at that place, where his case is attracting national attention.

It is supposed that the young Omaha contracted the disease through drinking milk from an infected cow, while spending the holiday season in Washington. When he returned to school he fell ill, and his case for several days was a vexing problem to the attending physicians. It was Dr. Paul W. Clough of the medical faculty who diagnosed the case yesterday as the hoof and mouth disease, and the patient was removed at once to the contagious ward of the hospital.

Surprise to Mother. Mrs. Leet did not know of the elopement until informed of its happening at Blair.

The measure's preamble, declaring the purpose of the United States to grant complete independence when a stable government has been set up, Mr. Garrison declared to be but a reiteration of promises made by successive republican administrations.

EFFECT OF BIG ENDOWMENTS SUBJECT OF INVESTIGATION

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—One of the suggestions to be considered by the federal commission on industrial relations, which is to begin hearings here next Monday is a scheme of social insurance, administered by state and federal governments to meet the problem created by unemployment, occupational diseases and other social evils incidental to industrial organization.
