HE red letter day on the club woman's calendar comes in the middle of March, when the state Daughters of the American Revolution convention will be held in Omaha, at the new Fordenelle hotel. This will be the first convention to be held in this hotel. A number of special affairs are planned in connection with the meeting, one of which will be a large tea, to be given at the home of Mrs. Donald Macrae in Council Bluffs, Friday afternoon, March 19, following the adjournment of the convention. A banquet will also be arranged for Thursday evening, March 18, at the hotel. It is probable that an invitation will be extended to the Sons of the American Revolution for this affair also. Among the distinguished guests at the meeting will be Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey of Independence, Kan., state regent and a candidate for the office of national regent; Mrs. Charles Bassett. historian general, and Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell of Council Bluffs, honorary vice president general.

Mrs. Warren Perry, state regent, and Mrs. Charles H. Aull, vice state regent, are in charge of the program. They are being assisted in the arrangements by the presidents of the two local chapters, Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm of the Omaha, and Mrs. R. E. McKelvy of the Major Isaac Sadler chapter.

Members of these two chapters have sent out cards announcing that they present the name of Mrs. Auli for the office of state regent. The members of chapters in the eastern part of the state feel that the office should be filled here as the regents for the last nine years have been from the central or western part of the state.
