Motor Bicycle is Put on the Market

The Miami Cycle and Manufacturing ompany has placed on the market a new kind of motorcycle, called the Miami motor bleycle. The motor bleycle is built with a view toward entering a market to which the present type of motorcycle does not appeal.

The new machine weighs but 100 ounds. Its upkeep expense is very light. uel tests showing that the cycle will run 100 miles on 10 cents.

It is more simply designed than the ordinary heavy motorcycle, and is free rom all complicated mechanisms that nake repairing a tedious task. A boy or girl can ride the new machine just as easily and safely as a grown-up. The Mianil motor bloycle was one of the big hits at the New York show and again at the Chicago exposition. Dealer representation is being arranged in all large cities in the country and it is predicted and Henry Schroeder, county jailer, and the sights to be seen in the jail were of a kind to lead an observer to the opinion that the dope issue is a growing one.

In a "solitary" cell of the county jall, placed there not for punishment but for the good of the other prisoners, Charles Taylor. 36 years old, is dying of tuberculosis and excessive use of dope. Awaiting Terrible Death. With the terrible habit so fastened to him that the usual palliative and curative measures for his disease are impossible. Taylor is dying in circumstances from which the lowliest canine cur would shrink. Tormented by desire, and racked by his disease, too weak to care properly for himself and too utterly hopeless and worthless to be the object of any per-PIERCE, Neb., Jan. 31.-(Special.)-The son's solicitude, Taylor is awaiting death communications with scores of "fiends." "It is estimated that we now have ove 1,000,000 dope fiends in this country and this number is fast increasing. It not only takes the hobo class, but it takes men and women who are of high standing in social circles. "We have here on an average fortyfive to fifty men who are spending most of their time in the county jail and when they are received there they are total wrecks. They are not only full of sores. but they are mere akeletons, for when At the end of the first period the these men have become total wrecks from Consequently they have little money with which to buy food and they obtain money by stealing or begging and use it to buy dope.

"We have a young man in the county iall who has now spent nine months there. He is only 25 years old and is now cured of the dope, but the question is, what shall we do with him? We hope to get employment for him, but not in Omaha. Dope Business Wide Open Here.

"Anyone can secure dope in Omaha vithout a question being asked, and while we may pass new laws for the restriction of dope, we will never solve the problem until the time comes when those who sell; it can be sent to the penitentlary. "Under our present law the druggist need only pay his $100 fine and then can go on doing business unmolested. Furthermore, it is not necessary for any of these dope flends to ask for anything; all they need to do is to go to a drug store, lay down the moncy and the dope is handed to them."

Says Boys Are Victims. Mr. Andreasen differed from a recently published statement that boys do nor learn the dope habit. He said: "I have found that a large percentage of the messenger boys who carry dops for downtown drug stores have become victims of the dope habit and are total wrecks at the age of 16 or 17.

"To my mind, while liquor is ruining thousands of homes in our country, it is lief for croup, whooping cough and or. not to be compared with the dope habit, dinary colds, it has no equal.
