off in the supply at Minneapolis during the last four days was announced as 750,000 busnels and in Kansas City for two days at 524,000 busnels.

Corn weakened as a result of the slowness of domestic and export demand. European bids at the seaboard were said to be 2c out of line.

Call for cats was not as enthusiastic as on the preceding day. Country offerings, notably in lows, were said to be large.

Provisions sagged early on account of big receipts of hogs. The market, however, advanced later in consequence of covering by shorts.
