The earnestness, the energy and business enterprise of the women of the First Presbyterian church, in their work or redeeming a pledge made to raise 230,000 toward the new church, has called forth admiration on every hand, Already over $12,000 has been raised by the women, by means of weekly luncheons given at the old church on Seventeenth and Dodge streets and by the sale of articles made by the sewing circles.

Their latest money-making scheme is the arrangement to have Miss France Nash and George Hamlin, the wellknown tenor of Chicago, appear in joint oncert at the Brandels theater on Monday afternoon, March &

Tickets are $1 all over the house and the sale of reserved seats begins Monday n orning. Boxes have been taken by Mrs. Ceorge A. Joslyn, Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. E. W. Nash, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. G. W. Megeath and Miss Margaret Greer

To facilitate their work the women have been divided into eleven groups of between fifteen and twenty-three women each, each one of these groups having pldged themselves to raise at least $1,000. Mrs. C. M. Withelm is chairman of the entertainment committee, Mrs. G. L. Bradley secretary and Mrs. Charles Offott treasurer. Each group in turn has its own chairman and treasurer. Mrs. W. F. Milroy is president of the Ladies' Ald society. An Easter sale is also included in the plans for making money in
