OMAHA. March 5, 1913. The whest market is in no condition to withstand any unfavorable rumors of cancellation of large orders held in this yountry for arms and ammunition by the warring nations without breaking sensa-tionally. This fact was clearly demon-strated when the May futures suddenly dropped from $1.455 to $1.57. but reacted just before the close to $1.1954. These changes were swift enough and large enough to please any speculator looking for a fast market, and it was too swift for the average man now found in its wheat market. The local exchange experienced one of the duleat sessions it has had in your sector. WARE BLOCK, OMAHA.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, March 5.—Fears that export demand for wheat from the United States might suddenly come to a halt had a dis-turbing effect today on prices, but at the finish the market, although unsettled, was at the same level as last night to bis off. Corn closed selfic down, and oats at a decline of selfic. Provisious wound up with gains of Bie to 10c. Possibilities of surprising bearish de-velopments in the European situation where at the outset dreaded by many wheat traders owing to a decided drop in quotations at Liverpool. About mid-day pace talk concerning Austria led to sim-lar misgivings. Breaks that in some cases extended nearly i cents under yes-terday's close were witnessed in conse-quence. Invariably, however, buying of a persistent character on the art of cash houses came into play on declines and resulted in a succession of rallies. They conditions for the domestic winter wheat crop made the wheat market per-haps more than unusually sensitive to in-fuence on the back Widesweat SOUTH OMAHA, March 5, 1915 Receipts were: C Official Monday Official Wednesday.... wheat crop made the wheat market per-haps more than unusually sensitive to in-fluence on the bear side. Widespread heavy snowfalls were regarded by experts as highly beneficial in promoting growth later on and as a protection at present. It was to the crop outlook that, in a measure, was due the July delivery touch-ing for a brief while today the lowest price yet this season. Improved cash demand steadied corn even more than wheat. Nevertheless there was much selling by speculative holders and by shorts whenever the wheat

Session.

HIGHER TREND OF BOND GROUP

NEW YORK, March 5.—Stocks at tained their highest level of the week to-day on buying of a comprehensive and confident character. The rise was oc-canionally interrupted by realizing for profits, which, however, had little ef-fect on prices, the moro material gains being recorded in the final dealings. Trading was in excess of recent ses-sions and commission bouse reported at awakening of investment demand. Completions among the strong issues were the coalers, transcontinentals and grangers trunk lines. United States Steel, American Smelting, National Lead, Amsi-santed Copper and some of the less active stocks. Average advances ran from one to two points, Canadian Pa-edite and New Havon scoring greatest and.

cific and New Haven scoring greatest gains. Shares and the 4% per cent bonds of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway were weak on extensive offerings, which were altributed to Europe, these issues being largely held in Holland. The com-pany has a large amount of noises ma-turing on May I, and some apprehension is felt as to its ability to meet this pay-ment. Other issues, which failed to par-ticipate in the general advance included Maxwell motors first and second pre-ferred, International Harvester and Bald-win locomotive.

Florida Snow

People are rejoicing, and we rejoice with them, that the snow is a good thing for next summer's crops, but while we are rejoicing for the prospect of next summer's crop the farmers and gardeners on our land in Florida are actually pro-ducing creps that will bring returns far in excess of any summer crop we have in prospect. These crops will be out of the way in time to plant corn and all the other summer crops grown in the north. No one-crop country can compete with a two and three-crop country. Don't take our word for it, but join our excursion March 16 and see for your-self.

Coffee Market. NEW YORK, March 5.--COFFED-The market for futures was more active to-day, with prices showing decided firmness on the steadler rolling of the primary markets and a renewed demand from cables from Brazil reporting a good de-mand in the producing markets, were also a faotor and after opening at an advance of 6001 points, the market bere showed a further imrpovement on covering, bull support and trade buying, with the close at a net advance of 90015 points. Sales, hoot bules: March, 5.75c; April, 5.78c; May, 5.84c; June, 5.89c; Octover, 7.06c; November, 7.11c; December, 7.11c; Janu-ary, 7.8c. Spot steady, Rio No. 7, 7.96c; Santos, No. 4, 9%c. Rio exchange on budon was ½ higher and militels prices were unchanged. HOGS—The heavy storm, which seems to be preity general over the territory tributory to this market, cut today's re-celpts almost to nothing, and there were hardly enough hogs here to make a mar-ket. On the strength of a 5010e advance in Chicago salesmen started out asking figures that were at least 10916c above yesterday's average. Buyers, however, refused to make so large a concession and as two packers did not seem to care whother they got in or not the market turned into a preity dull affair. Starting with their early offers of 5c higher, pack-ers finally raised prices until they wero mostly a dime up and after a long drawn out session the bulk of the offerings moved on this basis. A few hogs sold on shipping and speculative account at fully $2010e higher prices, but the demand from this quarter was quiet and most of the offerings found their way into packers' hands.

offerings found their way into packers' hands. Bulk of the hogs sold at $65096.55, with tops at $557%. The market for the week to date has been bearish on most days, and today's dime advance leaves values less than a nickel higher than at the close of last week. It might be mentioned that nearly all of the few loads which arrived late westerday were carried over for to.

NEW YORK, March &.--DRY GOODS-Cotton goods and sliks were steady. As a result of the settlement of differences between the textile alliances and the wool manufacturers announced today, custo-dian banks will be appointed to receive the wool shipped here from England for American factories.

nearly all of the few loads which arrived late yestorday were carried over for to-day's market. Receipts totaled about forty-three cars, or 5,000 head, which includes Thursday's late arrivals. Total for the five days is 5,004 head, which is over 17,000 short of last week, but is nearly 12,000 larger than a year sigo. Representative sales: NEW YORK, March &-SUGAB-Po-tures opened firm, influenced by the strength of the spot market and unfavor-able weather reports from Cuba. Prices at midday were 367 points higher. Baw sugar, strong; centrifugal, 4.77c; molasses sugar, 4c.

Very Much Mixed.

NEW YORK, March &-Dun & Co.'s Review of Trade tomorrow will eay: Review of Trade tomorrow will eay: - Conditions in business are very much mixed. Total transactions are still be-low those of recent years. There is a large attendance of retail distributors in the textile markets and they buy often, but the extra rule is in comparative small lots for immediate needs and to keep their stocks low. Many of the cottou mills are ruuning on full time and there is a satisfactory business in clothing. Some improvement is noted in the shee indus-try, but conditions are still far from nor-mal.
